A quotation commonly attributed to John Wesley, founder of Methodism, has been known for his "Rules for Christian Living." He began with "Do all the Good you can, by all the Means you can..." Complete his "Rules" and write a story describing how the church and community volunteer service you do specifically reflects Wesley's "Rules." Explain which of the "Rules" is the hardest to follow, and which is the easiest – and why. The essay should be 300-350 words.

Choosing a college is an important task. Your choice will impact the rest of your life. Describe in a narrative why you chose this college and how you believe your education and experiences there will fulfill your goals. (100-150 words)

Please attach ONE page listing 1. Your academic honors 2. Your three most important SCHOOL extracurricular activities and 3. Your two most important community volunteer activities.

Attach an official, current copy of your high school transcript with the completed application.

Send 3 letters of recommendation: 2 from high school ACADEMIC TEACHERS and 1 from an ADULT LAY member of your church. These letters may be mailed directly to Nancy M. Wood, Box 7404, Little Rock, AR 72217

OR the letters may be placed in a sealed envelope with their signature over the closed flap, your name on the front, and enclosed with your application.

Be sure your name is on the top right corner of every page sent with the application and please do not staple pages.

Before signing, carefully check to be sure you have included all information, letters and an official transcript.

My signature below acknowledges that I am currently enrolled in high school, I am on target to complete the requirements for spring graduation, and I plan to attend college. I also certify the above information to be true.
