

Wonderfully Made Scholarship for Children's Ministry

Qualifiers:

- You are using a Wonderfully Made Arkansas Conference of Children's ministry approved trainer.
- You are using the Wonderfully Made Curriculum written by Mark Huffman, Tanya Eustace Campen and Leigh Meekins from the beginning to the end of the human sexuality training at your church.
- You must have 6 or more students enrolled in the class.
- Your pastor signs off that receiving the $300 to help pay the trainer fees will greatly relieve financial burdens. Thus, allowing for more children and their families in your community to receive human sexuality education from the United Methodist Church.
- Your church and or participating members in the class are responsible for all other $200 in teacher's fees as well as course booklet fees.

I certify that I endorse and support the Wonderfully Made class to be held at our church. It would relieve a financial burden on ministries to receive partial payment of $300 paid directly to the ARCCCM certified trainer. Please email completed form to Melinda.shunk@arumc.org. Scholarships are ONLY available on availability of budgeted funds in CCCM Wonderfully Made yearly budget. There is no guarantee of scholarship based solely on application submission. You must apply for the scholarship at least one month before class is planned. Scholarship reward will be sent directly to trainer from Conference office.
