

CFA passed the following legislative item as a recommendation to the Arkansas Conference special session:

In response to the request from the United Methodist BSA Leadership Team to contribute to the “Survivor Trust Fund” resulting from the United Methodist Settlement as part of the Boy Scouts of America Bankruptcy reorganization, the Arkansas Conference Council on Finance & Administration makes the following recommendations to the January 11th, 2022 special session of the Arkansas Annual Conference:

- The Arkansas Conference commits to paying $292,144.00 for its share of the “Survivor Trust Fund.”
- In order to assist the denomination in reaching the full $30 million, the Conference shall pay its share in full to the fund established to fulfill this purpose immediately following final court approved legal settlement.
- Money used to pay the Conference’s share of the fund shall be paid from undesignated reserve funds.
