

Arkansas Annual Conference 2023

Come to the Table

Hot Springs, AR

June 21-23

Journal

Hendrix College values and honors its relationship with The United Methodist Church.

“In religious and vocation programs combined with service learning, Hendrix continues to develop clergy and lay leaders for faithful service inside the church and beyond... helping students find meaningful vocations connected to who they are and how they want to serve in the world.”

—from the Hendrix College Statement on Church Relatedness, adopted by the Faculty and Board of Trustees in spring 2017

Hendrix believes young people are already the leaders of the church. They ask critical questions about what it means to follow Jesus and create disciples in challenging times.

Hendrix Youth Institute (HYI) has helped shape and provide leadership, learning, and discernment opportunities for 76 high school students in Arkansas since its 2016 launch.

Annual Conference Prayer

God of the Table,

You have set a place for each of us and invited us to gather as your church.

Around this table is the joy of community, the sorrow of loss, and the hope of your tomorrow.

*During our time together, may we find ways to make space for all who crave love, seek forgiveness,
and desire your grace.*

*We pray this in the name of Jesus, the one whose table was always full and yet had room for one more,
Amen.*

Conference Committees

Members of the Arkansas Annual Conference,

The changes to the Leadership Report for the Arkansas Annual Conference are included in your Annual Conference packets. Copies of the full Leadership Report are available online at arumc.org. Thank you to everyone who has agreed to serve on a conference committee, council or board.

The Nominations Committee works diligently to put people on committees that best match their interests and gifts. We also seek to have diversity of gender, race, ethnicity, age, and representation from different districts and church sizes. The best way to help this work is to fill out a self-nomination form. Self-nomination forms are available on the conference website under the forms and documents tab. If you are interested in serving on a conference committee please fill out a form and encourage others to fill one out as well.

Due to the postponed 2020 General Conference the terms for the Board of Ordained Ministry, Council on Finance and Administration, and Episcopacy Committee have been extended once again. The Discipline specifies that these committees are elected at the Annual Conference following General Conference. We have continued to fill vacancies on these committees due to resignations, disaffiliation, and moves.

While we seek to fill every position, every year there are several positions still waiting to be filled. This year we have included open positions in our report and encourage you to review these and fill out a self-nomination form or email me at katie.pearce@arumc.org if you are interested in serving in one of the positions that is currently unfilled.

Blessings,
Rev. Katie Goss Pearce
Chair, Nominations Committee

Proceedings of the Special Session of the Arkansas Conference
November 19, 2022
Bishop Gary E. Mueller, Presiding
Rev. Dr. Candace Barron, Secretary

SATURDAY MORNING

The morning worship included song, prayer, and a devotional from Psalm 130 by Bishop Gary Mueller.

THE SPECIAL CALLED SESSION

Bishop Gary Mueller called the morning business session to order to consider the consideration of recommendations from the Conference Board of Trustees requesting ratification of Disaffiliation Agreements with various congregations of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, in accordance with 2553 of The 2016 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, and the Principles adopted at the 2021 Arkansas Annual Conference Session and Judicial Council Decision 1379.

Bishop Mueller introduced Bishop Jimmy Nunn of the Oklahoma Area Conference as a second Bishop in attendance in case the presiding Bishop cannot preside due to medical or personal emergencies.

Bishop Mueller explained that according to Judicial Council rulings, a vote would be conducted to ratify or not ratify the disaffiliation agreements that the Board of Trustees brought forward and that no amendments would be allowed for the agreements. According to the call of the Special Session, this is the only business that could be considered. The Book of Discipline and Robert's Rules of Order were the ruling documents for this session.

Bishop Mueller introduced the Conference Secretary, Rev. Dr. Candace Barron.

Rev. Dr. Barron explained the Organization of the Conference, giving information about the Special Session, the Adoption of the Session Rules, the Designation of the Bar of the Conference, and the Introduction of the Tellers. Each vote requires a simple majority of eligible members.

Rev. Scott Stewart, Mena FUMC, asked to amend the Session Rules in Amendment C, Sentence 1, to say "agreements" (plural). He also made a motion to amend the Session Rules Amendment C, Sentence 5, to vote on all the disaffiliation recommendations as a block vote.

One speech was made against the motion, and one speech was made in favor of the motion.

Rev. Nathan Kilbourne, Jacksonville FUMC, made an amendment to Rev. Stewart's motion and asked to vote on churches that have a 90 percent threshold or above to be considered a block. And those church agreements under the 90 percent threshold would be voted on individually.

Four speeches were given in favor, and four speeches were given against the Kilbourne amendment.

Before any votes were taken, Todd Burris, Director and Treasurer of the Center for Administrative Services, gave voting Instructions.

The Kilbourne Amendment to the Stewart Amendment was APPROVED by a clear majority by a count of hands. (Due to wireless internet issues, the first votes were taken by hand.)

Calling the question of debating the Kilbourne Amendment was called. The vote was APPROVED by a two-thirds vote by a count of hands.

The amended Session Rules were now under consideration. The question to vote on the Session Rules as amended with the 90 percent threshold was APPROVED by a two-thirds vote by a count of hands.

The Sessions Rules, as amended, were ADOPTED by a majority vote by a count of hands.

; Rev. Dr. Blake Bradford, Dean of the Appointive Cabinet; and Rev. Dr. Tony Griffin, Chair of the Conference Board of Trustees, provided reviews of the Disaffiliation Process. The guidelines for the Discernment Process were made available on the Arkansas Conference website at www.arumc.org.

Ms. Michelle Ator, Conference Chancellor reviewed the significant steps from the Disaffiliation Process per Paragraph 2553: participation in a time of discernment (an initial disaffiliation request, listening sessions, a straw poll); Local Church Decision (a church conference conducted pursuant to the requirements of The Discipline with $\frac{2}{3}$ majority); the completion of an agreed proposed Disaffiliation Agreement with the Conference Board of Trustees, Ratification of the Disaffiliation Agreement by the Conference (by a simple majority vote); and the Completion of Disaffiliation, (completing all of the steps outlined in the agreement).

Rev. Dr. Bradford reported that the Appointive Cabinet adopted the leadership principles in the season of disaffiliation and discernment that included allowing churches to land where they may thrive in their disciple-making mission while protecting appropriate interests of the United Methodist Church and bathing the process in prayer. He said the role of the District Superintendent is to steward the process with fairness, integrity, and grace.

Rev. Dr. Tony Griffin, chairman of the Conference Board of Trustees, presented the role of the Trustees in a season of disaffiliation and discernment. He clarified that the Board of Trustees did not include a recommendation about how the Conference should vote but instead provided the information needed to complete or discontinue requests by disaffiliating churches based on the information presented by the churches.

The Special Session was dismissed for lunch at 12:15 p.m.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Bishop Gary Mueller called the Afternoon Business Session to order at 1:30 p.m. with the Call to Order. Rev. Dr. Ulysses Washington, Central District Superintendent, opened the session with prayer.

THE SPECIAL CALLED SESSION

The morning business was called to order by Bishop Laura Merrill at 10:13 a.m., followed by the introduction of Bishop Max Whitfield.

The purpose of this Special Called Session was to consider recommendations from the Conference Board of Trustees requesting ratification of Disaffiliation Agreements with various congregations of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, in accordance with 2553 of The 2016 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, and the Principles adopted at the 2021 Arkansas Annual Conference Session and Judicial Council Decision 1379.

Voting Instructions: Bishop Merrill introduced Mr. Todd Burris, Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services. Mr. Burris presented voting instructions and provided WIFI information. Tellers assisted with the setup of mobile phones for voting as needed. Clarification was made for those wishing to use their own data services if needed. A successful test poll was taken at 10:23 a.m.

Organization of the Conference: Bishop Laura Merrill introduced Conference Secretary Rev. Dr. Candace Barron.

Rev. Dr. Barron explained the Organization of the Conference, giving information about the Special Session, the Adoption of the Session Rules, the Designation of the Bar of the Conference, and the Introduction of the Tellers.

Rev. Dr. Barron presented the Session Rules for the May 2023 Special Called Session to be adopted and set the bar. She explained all disaffiliation agreements would be presented as a whole, with arguments of three “for” and three “against” allowed. Rev. Dr. Barron moved for the adoption of Session Rules.

Bishop Merrill shared that if the session rules were approved, all agreements would be voted on as a whole in block format, but that if an amendment to session rules were made before session rules were approved, then a majority vote would be required. If an amendment was made after session rules were approved, then it would require a two-thirds vote.

Sarah Argue moved to amend the Session Rules so that those approved at 80% or above would be presented as a whole for a vote, and those below would be reviewed individually. The motion was seconded.

Rev. Nathan Kilborne asked for a point of clarification regarding the cost to date of existing lawsuits resulting from disaffiliation agreements not approved in November. Rev. Dr. Tony Griffin, Conference Trustee Chair, stated that the cost of litigation to date is $212,157. Mr. Todd Burris noted this is being paid from undesignated assets and that CF&A would decide where future monies would come from.

The amended Session Rules were now under consideration. There were three arguments for and three against. Rev. John Palmer requested information regarding the amount of litigation going forward. Griffin could not speculate how long this litigation could continue.

Bishop Merrill read the motion to amend session rules and opened the ballot. The motion to amend was APPROVED with a 61.66% vote.

Bishop Merrill opened the ballot to adopt the agenda. It was APPROVED by 97.4%

Bishop called Rev. Dr. Tony Griffin to present the report from the Conference Trustees. Rev. Dr. Griffin offered an explanation regarding the list of churches presented and thanked the conference trustees, Mr. Burris, and conference trustee secretary, Ms. Alison Huskey, for their work.

Mic 3 -A statement was made about a concern regarding the Greenbrier total votes. It was decided this would be addressed when Greenbrier was presented for a vote.

Rev. Dr. Griffin then presented the “block of churches with 80% and above” that excluded the churches that would be considered individually for a vote. Those churches included Good Faith Carr, Greenbrier, Greenwood, Hope, Pine Bluff First, and Wheatley.

At this time, the Convention Center declared an emergency, and everyone was asked to move outside the building. A false alarm was declared, and people returned to their seats.

Darelen Dobbs, lay member, asked if a person could still vote once their church’s disaffiliation was ratified. It was determined that they could vote until the close of this Special Session.

The body was reminded the vote before us was for those churches with 80% and above to be ratified.

Rev. Mark Norman led us in prayer after the vote.

Update on the Trustees Report

The Rev. Tony Griffin, Chair of the Conference Board of Trustees and Senior Pastor at Russellville FUMC, and Todd Burris, Conference Treasurer, gave the report. Rev. Allen Crum, Senior Pastor at Harrison FUMC, made the following request: I request that the Arkansas Conference Board of Trustees consider the following addition to the disaffiliation agreement pursuant to the June 4, 2021, Principles Regarding Local Church Requests for Disaffiliation Ratified by the Arkansas Annual Conference henceforth: All churches disaffiliating be required to pay an additional sum based on of at least 10% of their unfunded pension liabilities, not to exceed $50,000.00, for the primary purpose of establishing new United Methodist Congregations in areas where there are either displaced persons or in counties with no United Methodist presence. These funds shall be in addition to the line item budget for “New Places and New People.” The rationale for this proposal is that in addition to the financial strains of our annual conference, departing churches need to have a sense of responsibility to those individuals in their community who wish to remain United Methodist. Respectfully Submitted, Rev. Roger Allen Crum, Elder in Full Connection

Griffin reported that in the litigation concerning Jonesboro FUMC, there had been three hearings considering temporary possession of the facility on Main Street, which was being occupied by the group called First Methodist Church of Jonesboro, Inc. Annual Reports

The Arkansas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church Episcopal Address

Bishop Laura Merrill

Isaiah 55:1-3

People of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, as a part of this opening service of worship, I greet you in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ. We stand on holy ground today, because of Christ's presence with us. We stand on holy ground, because in this worship, we have opened our hearts to God and to one another, to share our grief, our lamentation. We have shared our vulnerability in asking God to heal our hearts and to renew a right spirit within us. And now, having lifted up an honest account of who we are and where we stand, we come—to the table. We are standing on holy ground.

You and I are still getting to know each other. You have been so good to me since my arrival not quite six months ago, lavishing gifts and hospitality on me and making sure I know that I am welcome here, that you're glad to see me, that you want us to be related in this work. I've felt the hospitality of God through you, and I want you to know that I have already come to feel great affection for you. There's a delight I feel when I look into the eyes of a person, lay or clergy, whose heart is open, and that's what I've experienced all over Arkansas.

What I want you to know about me is that the very same hospitality, the same invitation that you have offered me and that we today all hear in the words of Isaiah—this hospitality lies at the very core of my faith. The divine invitation I have found in Christ and in his people is why I stand before you today. I was fortunate to be raised in the church, and I experienced the privilege of full affirmation and acceptance there—that's not true for everyone, but it was deeply true for me. Yet inside, especially as a young person, I still wondered if I was enough, if I could ever do enough to make God really proud of me. I carried pain in my life, brokenness in my family, and I didn't know how to fix it. I wanted to feel healed and not afraid.

So when I heard words like these from Isaiah - "Come, eat, listen, live" -I dared to believe that God was speaking to me. When I heard my preacher father speak the words of assurance every time we prepared to come to the Lord's table - "Come to me, all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" - I yearned to believe it might be true for me. Over and over since that time, I have come to the table, seeking that blessing, that healing, that rest for my soul. It's this promise, the promise of exactly what my soul yearns for, that keeps me coming back, keeps me as a part of this body, when it is so easy to find reasons not to be. This table, this rich feast, this promise that reaches deep into our bodies and our bones—this is our inheritance as people of God in the United Methodist tradition. This extravagant gift of God, wine and milk, poured out into us, without money and without price—this is where we begin.

There's something about this table, though, that moves our focus from this (vertical) to this (people). We learn from both scripture and the Wesleyan tradition that somehow, drawing close to God moves us toward other people. Part of that is simply an expression of gratitude that bubbles over. "Hey, come here; look what we found!" When you celebrate regularly the love that you didn't create for yourself, the gifts that didn't come from you, it makes you open-handed with that love. Some people come by generous love very naturally, and others of us have to practice! But the wonder of this life in Christ, the joy of it, the deep feeding of it—it's so much bigger than we are, in the very best way. So we rejoice, and it makes us want to share.

At the table, that means we scoot over. Have you ever been at a meal with a bunch of people, and you end up sitting on the corner, with the table leg poking into your leg? Or have you had to share the piano bench with a couple of wiggly kids? Sometimes we end up with a kids' table for overflow, but other times the grandma is determined that we're all going to fit around the same table, so we use the TV trays or the card table to make it bigger, and we pull up whatever people can sit on, and we make room. It's different, it's even uncomfortable. We might be bumping elbows; we're not in our regular spot, doing our regular thing. But we make room, and we look across the table into each other's eyes and see each other's faces. We light candles and tell stories and talk about our lives; we learn about each other; we teach the children.

And we eat. Some of our best meals are the ones where we don't know exactly what we're going to end up having. Church potlucks are like that. People bring things to the big, crazy table that are familiar and comforting—maybe something from the church cookbook, using something from their garden, or just store-bought chicken, and maybe you have a whole bunch of one thing and not enough of another, but it doesn't really matter. I've gotten to enjoy this kind of meal with many of you, and I know what a good time you have with each other.

Then what makes potluck meals really interesting is when people from different backgrounds come together. That means new flavors, and it can mean a different conversation at the table, too. I remember the time I went to a potluck at the Chinese UMC in the city where I was serving. I had never seen any of that potluck food before. But it was very good, and even the limited conversation we were able to have was full of joy. Or maybe the meal is with another church, or a visiting mission team or VBS families, or the people who come to your food pantry. When different people are invited, and invited to bring food that's special to them, it changes the meal. It changes the conversation. And if you do it often enough, the superficial niceties can fall away, and you can begin to really share and truly learn about each other.

That's the kind of connection that we will celebrate as United Methodists over the next three days. Connection with people we know and love, people we have shared journeys with. We'll gather around these very tables to form new connections, too, with people in this conference we might not know, building relationships that will leverage and strengthen the ministry of your local churches. And we'll also celebrate United Methodist connection with people we may never meet, people who share the table with us in a bigger way. From higher education to family health, from childhood hunger and literacy to relief and response, everywhere from Wynne AR to Ukraine and Congo, the church of which you are a part is built upon a legacy of life-giving, world-transforming connection. Together, we extend the invitation of Christ far beyond what any one of our churches could accomplish alone. Annual Conference is a time to give God thanks for the fruit of those relationships.

I love to be invited and to invite others. I love to be connected, to feel a part of something that matters. These are good. But when we turn back to the scripture, it calls us beyond the potluck, beyond the comfort of the family or even the extended neighborhood meal. The eating, the extravagant table, the delight in rich food—all are associated in the Isaiah passage with listening, with hearing the voice of God. In each verse, the prophet says, “hear and come,” “listen and eat,” “incline your ear, and live.” And then this convicting question, “Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your earnings for that which does not satisfy?” The scripture asks us to listen and to choose what will give us life. It reminds us that we can fill ourselves with all sorts of junk, junk that will not heal or save us and whose cost is far too high. Just head on over to Facebook and spend an afternoon. Between the ads and the ugliness, you'll be full up, you'll have spent all your money, and your body and your spirit will be weaker for it.

And it's not just social media—that's the superficial stuff. There are real-life voices in our ears of late that have tried their best to break down this body. Y'all, we in the United Methodist Church have been told that by extending a broad, open, grace-filled welcome to the table and church of Jesus Christ, we've conformed to the culture of the world, as if the opposite were not actually true. We have been told that there is no value in our connection with each other, that it's onerous and unnecessary. We have been told that in making room for questions and differences of opinion and experience, we don't take the Bible seriously. We have been told that in taking the road of humility, where we scandalously admit that we don't know everything, that we have things to learn, we don't really believe in Jesus. We have been told that we are sliding down a slippery slope that leads straight to hell. We have been told all this and more, but I am here to tell you, it's not true! These are not the voices we need to listen to. God bless those folks, and may God bless their future ministry—I say that sincerely—but they do not speak the truth about the United Methodists of the state of Arkansas. People leaving this body are not our enemies, but nor should they disparage this body, nor recruit from our churches. Their words do not speak who we are and will not give us life.

No, we are standing on holy ground today. Many of you have heard me say that if you're still here, you're here for a reason. If you came back after covid and resisted the lure of your couch and your pajama pants on a Sunday morning, you're here for a reason. If you've survived painful attacks and separation in your local church, or even accusations by other Christians in your community, and you're still here, you're here for a reason. If you know deep in your heart, deep in your life with God, that you are called to resist polarization and cutoff, called to be a voice of sanity, kindness, and justice, then you're here for a reason. And if we know we're here for a reason, we can trust God to tell us what's next, to show us our purpose. We can listen for that voice. We can trust God to speak to us through the scriptures and through prayer. God will speak to us through the discernment of the body of believers, with divine love as our rule. God will speak to us through the voices of people we love and the voices of our neighbors.

Standing in that trust and on this holy ground, tuning our ears to hear the voice of God, we can gather at this table today and at these tables this week, and hear again God's purpose for us. We can eat the holy meal that Christ provides and take strength in the power of the Holy Spirit. We can offer ourselves as a church that seeks to give its life away for the sake of the world, just as our Lord has done. We can be a church that crosses the chasm of discomfort to invite people who are strangers to us, people we honestly might not think to invite, except that Jesus told us to, neighbors who are brokenhearted and yearning; neighbors full of hope and possibility; neighbors who just might hold part of the key to our future. We can be a church that proclaims by word and deed that the kingdom of heaven itself, the reign of holy love, is already at hand.

That's why I'm here, y'all. That's why we are all here. So incline your ear, and eat what Christ has prepared, so that you may live.

An Invitation to Abundant Life

Isaiah 55

1 Hear, everyone who thirsts;

come to the waters;

and you who have no money,

come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
2 Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread and your earnings for that which does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good,
and delight yourselves in rich food.
3 Incline your ear, and come to me;
listen, so that you may live.
I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
my steadfast, sure love for David.

Laity Address

Conference Lay Leader, Kathy Conley

A glorious “Good Morning” to each of you as we begin another new day spent with our Savior. Let us begin our time together with these words:

“Today, love will reign!” (Repeat with me) “Today, Love will reign!”

Good morning to you Bishop, District Superintendents, guests and the members of the Arkansas Annual Conference: I am Kathy Conley and am honored to stand before you as your Conference Lay Leader.

I’m also delighted to introduce your Board of Laity: Barbara Prowell Jones - SW District Lay Leader, Regina Norwood - Central District Lay Leader, Carole Baker - NW District Lay Leader, David Malone - the new NE District Lay Leader, Becky Simmons - the new SE District Lay Leader. Becky is taking the place of our dear Helen Emerson who is serving as a Heavenly Lay Leader, now. At Large Members - Cathy Hall and Cathy Blackwood. And our new Lay Ministries chair - Teresa Bolin, along with her Associate Lay Ministries chair - Karen Anderson.

I am thankful for each of these people who exercise courageous leadership in their daily lives and are always seeing the world through spiritual eyes. I appreciate their witness to me and those they encounter everyday. We are here to resource you, encourage you to grow in your faith, deepen your relationship with God and other people and strengthen your witness to the world as a United Methodist Christian. And yes, to also be a shoulder for you to lean on. We would love to talk with you and get to know you. Find us at this Conference or email us and let us know what you need from us. Your Board of Laity seeks to be your voice in the Annual Conference.

Before we go on any further - let’s pray: Holy God, we welcome you into our midst. We praise You for Your faithfulness to us as we walk through life. Without You, we would feel so alone. And scripture tells us, without us, You would too. That is why You created each one of us. We appreciate Your companionship in the garden of life with us. Send Your Holy Spirit to us in these days of Holy Conferencing. May it rest among us - give us peace - give us joy - give us strength. In the Name of our Saviour, Jesus, we pray. Amen.

These days, our lives are filled with one distraction after another. It’s hard to stay on task and keep our minds on what we are supposed to be doing. I don’t know what your method of getting things done is or how you juggle your responsibilities but I seem to find myself moving among all the things I need to get done and working short periods of time on all of them. I have my little piles and bags of all the things I'm involved in spread everywhere. It takes a while to get everything taken care of because I am easily distracted but, eventually I do. Seems like I work better under pressure. But that can get very stressful.

Many times dealing with distractions takes us away from living a calm life . . . They keep us from living in the moment, being ready for whatever and wherever we are needed by God. These distractions keep us from finding the holy among the ordinary. We run from this to that, not knowing what we really need to be doing or where to put our energy. But, Jesus has told us what we are to be doing . . . how to overcome the distractions . . . how we are to stay focused on our calling as Christians. And I have to think He especially meant it when we are stressed, busy, fearful, confused, and distracted from what our calling truly is as a follower of Jesus.

Jesus has said "Above all Love One Another." And He didn't just say it with words. He said it with actions. Living a life filled with the Holy Spirit changes the way you interact with others, with God and with yourself. It deepens your faith and then your faith in turn spills over into all aspects of your life. We show the world what God looks like by the way we live our daily lives. God's call to us is a call for God's purpose to make the world a better place. A place where everyone is welcome and accepted. He will give us the power and the strength and most importantly, will go with us. But we must step out in faith, trusting that there will never be a time that God is not present with us. Let us live every day in the truth of Christ. A truth that is love. And we must always ask ourselves if the way we live our lives reveals our love for Jesus? If our focus is on God and we are faithful to the mission, we will not fail. God will bless us. Let's put our blessings to work to be used by God to bless this world, because today we are the Jesus people need to see and hear. We must be the kind of people that are guided by the principle of love in all of our lives. Not just in our "Sunday Selves" but our "rest of the week selves". When we are "by ourselves" - and in our "when no one else is watching selves."

I'm thankful for the United Methodist Church in my life. For the saints who have taught me the truths of God, who have shared with me the grace and mercy and love taught by Jesus our Savior. We each bear witness to the mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church and all we can do together. And there's never been a better time for United Methodists to live out that grace, mercy and love we've all experienced through our years in the church. But, there's that distraction in the back of our minds saying "but what's in our future? What do we do now? Where are we headed?"

I like to think of the coming months and years as if I'm looking out over the horizon. Consider that with me now. As we look out over the horizon we only see a small portion of reality. The horizon is the limit of our vision. But remember, there is more beyond the horizon - more beyond what we can see right now. Much more than our minds can even imagine! It's the same thing with water. When we look across a lake or ocean, there is so much still to be revealed that is under the water. Another whole world of life, living, and beauty.

So this is my challenge to all of us: Let's dive in! Let's dive in trusting God to reveal that glorious plan that is hidden from our sight right now but is still there. Let's be brave, curious, excited to discover new and different things we have never experienced before. The moment we refuse to step into the great unknown is the moment we stop living. Everyday with God is a day of trust. A day lived in faith. That's what makes this journey of life lived with Jesus so much fun and so rewarding. We never know what's going to happen but we do know that everything will be alright. We have the Lord of all creation walking alongside us in all that we do.

Transformed lives, a visible love, a gracious sharing of acceptance, a word of understanding, a heart for justice and always looking for ways to express an unusual kindness. That's what's instore for us in these steps taken in trust and faith. And along the way we will need to remember to be encouragers. Encouragers to each other and to those who are seeking to know God's love. And sometimes that happens by knocking down walls. Many times our narrow focus can get in the way of sharing Christ and it blinds us to the way God loves. Remember, God is not limited by our understanding.

Like I said earlier, our horizon is the limit of our vision. And, there's always more beyond the horizon - more beyond what we can see right now. Our priorities as Christians are to proclaim the Lord's extravagant grace! We are to shout with confidence that Jesus believes in us, forgives us, redeems us, saves us, and loves us unendingly. We don't have to understand it. We just have to accept it. And then we must Live our faith. God comes to others not only through Jesus the Word of God but in the way we share that Word, that Jesus with the world . . . and that happens not only when we say we love like Jesus loves but we really mean it and really do it!

We must learn to live and breathe our faith so that others can no longer see the seam that connects us to Christ and be so close to Jesus the world sees Him in our eyes.

How do we grow, develop, experience our faith? How can we really be authentic in what it means to follow Jesus and be true to the teachings of Jesus? Our Conference has several different ways to help us deepen our faith and one of those ways is through Spiritual Direction. Teresa Bolin is a real asset to this Conference and is more than willing to lead your group in the Spiritual Direction program.

With the giving of the Great Commission, Jesus commands us to build a bigger table. All of us - Lay and Clergy alike - are called by Jesus to "Go into all the world - Tell My story of grace, mercy, acceptance, resurrection and transformation. Make Disciples." There is such power in that commandment. Those words have guided the church for over 2000 years - but Jesus is speaking to us now! I've heard it said Wesleyan evangelism at its best is an action, a word and an embrace. Let us keep building that bigger table so that there is room for all at the Banquet Feast. Let's keep our hands out and our arms open. This is our time. Jesus has prepared the Feast. We've received the invitation and been given extras to give away. The table is set. Your place is waiting. Come, but do not come alone. Bring someone with you!

May Jesus be in us for others. How special it is to step into the presence of God with friends we fellowship with and have known for a while. But, then, how extra-special it is to make new friends who are there for the first time. Those who have never been at the table. What an honor to welcome someone new - to walk with someone new into the Holy Presence of God!

This is what God intends! Oh God, let your fire fall down on us. May Your Spirit - Your Spirit of love and grace always be welcome here. This is our moment, church! May it be so! Amen & Amen!

Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the modified cash basis financial statements of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2022, and have issued our report thereon dated April 25, 2023. Professional standards require that we advise you of the following matters relating to our audit.

Our Responsibility in Relation to the Financial Statement Audit

As communicated in our engagement letter dated November 3, 2022, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to form and express an opinion about whether the financial statements that have been prepared by management with your oversight are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve management or the members of the Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration (the Council) of its respective responsibilities.

Our responsibility, as prescribed by professional standards, is to plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit of financial statements includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion of the effectiveness of the entity's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, as part of our audit, we considered the internal control of the Conference solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurances concerning such internal control.

We are also responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to management and the Council's responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to communicate to management and the Council.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

We conducted our audit consistent with the planned scope and timing we previously communicated to the Council in our engagement letter dated November 3, 2022.

Compliance with all Ethics Requirements Regarding Independence

The engagement team, others in our firm, as appropriate, and our firm have complied with all relevant ethical requirements regarding independence.

Landmark PLC, Certified Public Accountants

201 E. Markham, Suite 500 | Little Rock, AR 72201 | Telephone (501) 375-2025 | Fax (501) 375-8704 | www.landmarkcpas.com

We have assisted management in drafting the modified cash basis financial statements and the notes to the financial statements based on information provided by management. In addition, we have performed additional procedures outside of the normal course of the audit related to the Conference's health retirement account. These are nonattest services, which are services above and beyond those required to perform an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America. Management has reviewed, approved and accepted responsibility for the results of all nonattest services performed by us. All nonattest services were subject to supervisory review by experienced members of the audit engagement team and the engagement partner. In addition, the financial statements and the notes to the financial statements have been subjected to a technical review by an additional partner who was not directly involved in the Conference's audit.

Significant Risks Identified

We have identified improper revenue recognition, management override of internal controls and identification and accounting for support with donor restrictions and resulting net assets with donor restrictions as significant risks of material misstatement of the financial statements. We obtained an understanding of the design and implementation of policies and procedures related to these areas of risk and we planned tailored audit procedures to address the identified risks. Based on our audit procedures, we did not identify any other significant risks to the Conference.

Qualitative Aspects of the Entity's Significant Accounting Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

Management has the responsibility to select and use appropriate accounting policies. A summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the Conference is included in Note 2 to the financial statements. As disclosed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the financial statements have been prepared using the modified cash basis of accounting. As disclosed in Note 14 to the financial statements, management determined investments that had been under Conference control during previous years had not been reported in the financial statements.

There have been no initial selection of accounting policies and no changes in significant accounting policies or their application during the year ended June 30, 2022. No matters have come to our attention that would require us, under professional standards, to inform management or the Council about the methods used to account for significant unusual transactions and the effect of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Significant Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's current judgments. Those judgments are normally based on knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ markedly from management's current judgments.

The most sensitive accounting estimates affecting the financial statements are the estimated useful lives of property and equipment and the fair value of investments, as disclosed in Notes 2 and 3 to the financial statements, respectively. The estimated useful lives of the Conference's property and equipment are determined by management based on expectations regarding the length of time the assets will be in service. The fair value estimates are based on market pricing information provided by financial institutions and brokerage firms with which the Conference maintains accounts. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop these estimates and determined that it is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Financial Statement Disclosures

Certain financial statement disclosures involve significant judgment and are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. Note 12 to the financial statements discloses uncertainties surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the Conference and current geopolitical events occurring globally and the uncertainty about the disruptions that may affect the Conference's investment assets. Note 13 to the financial statements discloses current pending litigation, and the Conference's portion of settlement payments that will more than likely be paid out. Note 14 to the financial statements discloses the restatement of certain balances for 2021 and 2022 that are presented in the modified cash financial statements. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

We have audited the financial statements of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference), which comprise the statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis as of June 30, 2022 and 2021, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and net assets of the Conference as of June 30, 2022 and 2021, and its revenue, expenses and changes in net assets for the years then ended, in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting as described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Conference and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Emphasis of Matter – Restatement

As disclosed in Note 14 to the financial statements, during the year ended June 30, 2022, management determined investments previously reported did not include additional investments under Conference control. Beginning net assets for the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021 and cash and cash equivalents and investments as of June 30, 2021 have been restated to conform to this change. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 2 to the financial statements, and for determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not absolute assurance, and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with U.S. GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with U.S. GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audits.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audits in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Conference's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audits, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audits.

Notes to Financial Statements June 30, 2022 and 2021

NOTE 1: NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) is a service organization for the United Methodist Church throughout the state of Arkansas. The mission of the Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping local churches for missions and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the congregation, all to the glory of God. The Conference receives tithes and apportionments from churches located in the state of Arkansas and distributes the tithes and apportionments in accordance with the approved budget set by the Arkansas Annual Conference.

NOTE 2: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and cash equivalents, investments, local church apportionments in-transit, prepaid apportionments and property and equipment, and the liabilities that are recognized are apportioned and other funds payable, note payable and amounts held for others. Non-cash transactions, excluding unrealized gains (losses) on investments and depreciation of property and equipment over their estimated useful lives, are not recorded in the financial statements; therefore, non-cash donations are not recorded as receipts when received.

Local church apportionments in-transit represent amounts that churches have budgeted to pay but have not yet been received by the Conference. Apportioned and other funds payable include amounts the Conference is budgeted to pay according to the budget approved by the churches at the Arkansas Annual Conference but are not yet disbursed by the Conference.

Basis of Presentation

The Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following two classes of net assets:

Net Assets without Donor Restriction—Net assets that are not subject to or are no longer subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net Assets with Donor Restriction—Net assets whose use is limited by donor-imposed time and/or purpose restrictions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all deposits with financial institutions, as well as highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents.

Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

Investments

Investments include units of participation in separately pooled funds administered by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas (the Foundation) and Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath). See Note 3 for additional information regarding these pooled funds and policies for determining fair value.

Investments also includes a corporate debt obligation held at Edward D. Jones & Co., LP (Edward Jones), and is reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly fashion between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 3 for further discussion of fair value measurement. Purchases and sales are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Dividends and interest, as well as realized and unrealized gains and losses, are reflected as net investment return in the statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis.

Property and Equipment, Net

Property and equipment are reported at historical cost, net of depreciation. Additions and improvements in excess of $10,000 or more are capitalized, while purchases under this threshold are expensed in the period incurred. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from five to thirty years.

Cash Receipts

The Conference's cash receipts are restricted to fulfilling the purpose for which the donor remitted the funds. The Conference's goal is to distribute the funds received for the ultimate benefit of the third party done in a timely and efficient manner.

Cash receipts that are restricted by the donor are recorded as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the support is recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time period ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished), donor restricted net assets are reclassified to net assets without donor restriction and reported in the statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis as "net assets released from restrictions."

The Conference classifies funds based on their funding source. The financial statements contain two types of funds: tithe and other. Tithe funds are calculated by local churches as 10% of their receipts with some allowed adjustments. Other funds are obtained through the collection efforts of the committees established to oversee the individual funds. The Conference maintains and disburses these funds as requested by these committees.

Income Taxes

The Conference is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is not a private foundation. Accounting standards require the Conference to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Conference has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Conference has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of June 30, 2022 and 2021, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements.

Functional Expenses

The Conference considers all disbursements to be related to its programs and therefore does not allocate disbursements between program, general and administrative and fundraising for financial statement presentation. See Note 11 to the financial statements for disclosures related to disbursements by natural category.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). Under the new guidance, lessees are required to recognize lease assets and lease liabilities in the statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Leases will be classified as either finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis. The requirements under the updated standard will be effective for the Conference on July 1, 2022. The Conference has not yet selected a transition method and is currently evaluating the effect that the updated standard will have on the financial statements.

NOTE 3: DEPOSITS AND INVESTMENTS

Cash and Cash Equivalents

At times during the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021, cash and cash equivalents balances exceeded the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and were not collateralized. In the event of an institutional failure, the excess over FDIC insurance may not be recoverable. The Conference's total bank balance maintained at multiple financial institutions at June 30, 2022 and 2021, was $7,715,525 and $7,707,282, of which $273,713 and $252,038 was not insured or collateralized at June 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Investments

The Conference primarily invests its funds in separately pooled funds administered by the Foundation and Wespath. The Foundation and Wespath manage the pooled funds, which are invested in equity and fixed-income securities, mutual funds, investment pools, partnership interest and notes receivable. These investments are available to be withdrawn upon written notice to the Foundation and Wespath. There are no restrictions on withdrawal amounts for these investments.

The fair value of amounts invested in pooled funds managed by the Foundation and Wespath is based on the Conference's interest in the pooled funds, which are evidenced by a unit. The value of a unit is calculated based on the fair value of the underlying assets, adjusted for the effects of such transactions as administrative fees and investment income that has not been reinvested in the underlying assets, as reported by the Foundation and Wespath, because there is no ready market for the assets.

The Conference also invests its funds in a corporate debt obligation held at Edward Jones, and is reported at market value. Accounting standards categorize fair value measurements according to a hierarchy that is based on valuation inputs that are used to measure fair value. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices for identical assets in active markets that can be accessed at the measurement date. Level 2 inputs are inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for an asset, either directly or indirectly. Level 3 inputs are unobservable. The fair value of the Conference's corporate debt obligation is determined based on yields currently available on comparable securities of issuers with similar credit ratings (Level 2 inputs).

At June 30, 2022 and 2021, the Conference's fair value of the units of participation in the pooled funds and the corporate debt obligation at the Foundation, Wespath and Edward Jones are as follows:

	2022	2021
Foundation	$ 9,118,525	$ 11,127,240

NOTE 8: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PENSION PLANS

Eligible Conference and participating church employees are covered under one of two defined contribution pension plans as follows:

- a. Ministerial employees – Eligible ministerial employees are covered under a defined contribution pension whereby the participant contributes 3% of compensation and the church or Conference contributes 10% to 12% of the participant’s annual contribution base (compensation) based on the Conference average compensation as calculated by the General Board of Pensions.
- b. Lay personnel – Eligible lay employees are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes at least 3% and the Conference contributes 9% of the participant’s annual contribution base (compensation).

Both plans are multi-employer plans by which all contributed assets of participating employers and employees are commingled and are not segregated by employer.

Total contributions to both plans for Conference staff were approximately $133,000 and $129,000 for the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

NOTE 9: OTHER POSTRETIREMENT BENEFIT PLAN

The Conference provides a monthly healthcare reimbursement benefit to retired clergy and disabled clergy who are Medicare eligible, and their spouses. This benefit is not guaranteed and is reviewed annually. Clergy are eligible to receive this benefit if, after retiring from the Conference, they have served in the denomination for a minimum of ten years. The stipend is a fixed dollar amount based on eligible active years of services and the maximum monthly healthcare premium stipend.

The Conference engaged an independent actuary to value the postretirement benefit plan with a measurement date of December 31, 2021, which is as follows:

Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation	$ 15,116,886

NOTE 12: RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The COVID-19 pandemic remains a rapidly evolving situation. The extent of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Conference and the financial results will depend on future developments, including the duration of the outbreak and the related impact on consumer confidence and spending, all of which are highly uncertain.

Market disruptions associated with current geopolitical events have had a global impact, and uncertainty exists as to their implications. Such disruptions can adversely affect assets and thus performance of the Conference's investments; at this time, an aggregate effect on assets and performance cannot be reasonably estimated. Management of the Conference is continuing to monitor these developments and evaluate other impacts they may have on the investments.

NOTE 13: COMMITMENTS

As of June 30, 2022, there is current litigation pending against the Boy Scouts of America (the BSA) and others in various jurisdictions related to lawsuits for abuse that occurred during BSA-related activities. Although the Conference is not believed to have chartered any Boy Scout units, the United Methodist Church has committed to raise $30 million (1% of a $3 billion settlement) for settlements of these cases and contribute to the Survivor Trust Fund. Insurance companies, the BSA and BSA Councils are largely paying the remaining 99%. The $30 million settlement is required to provide release for all United Methodist Churches and organizations from the pending litigation. The Conference's portion of this settlement is estimated to be $312,144, with the Conference already contributing $20,000 for legal support. In management's opinion, the likelihood of an adverse outcome is likely. Accordingly, $292,144 has been recorded apportioned and other funds payable as of June 30, 2022 on the statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis, and as a survivor trust fund disbursement for the year ended June 30, 2022 on the statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis.

NOTE 14: RESTATEMENT

During the year ended June 30, 2022, it was determined that investments as previously reported did not include additional investments under Conference control. As a result, an adjustment of $110,067 and $6,479 was made to increase investments and cash and cash equivalents, respectively, which resulted in an increase of $28,408 and $88,138 net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions, respectively, at June 30, 2020.

The following priorities have guided the Cabinet and Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) in making strategic stewardship decisions in order to shape the 2023-2024 Arkansas Conference Spending Plan:

- A. Total gross income for previous month including designated giving $ _____
- B. Less income for capital campaigns
- C. Less income for memorials and endowments
- D. Less income from sale of church-owned real estate
- E. Less income from tuition-based services
- F. Less direct costs of fund-raising

- H. Less Paycheck Protection Program loans
- I. Adjusted gross income = Line A minus B,C,D,E,F,G,H
- J. Conference Monthly ministry tithe = Line I X 10% = $ _____

III. Tithe Instructions

Line A—Total gross income for previous month (including designated giving and all other funds)
Enter the total amount of ALL revenue for the previous month. Total income includes ALL income received by the church (offerings, pledged giving, unpledged giving, donations, building use fees, income from fundraisers, designated giving, interest from investments, capital campaign income, preschool income, bequests, memorials, etc.)

Line B—Exclude income for capital campaigns (this does not include income for lines of credit (LOC) or mortgage payments)

Capital campaign income is money received from campaigns that are defined as significant, short-term fundraising efforts for a stated project, such as a building, debt retirement, or special project. The campaign usually lasts for a short time, generally less than a year; however, the donations to the campaign may span several years. Stated capital campaigns should not be confused with trustee account donations, building maintenance donations or other donations or capital needs. Income for regular monthly LOC or mortgage payment is not capital campaign income.

Line C—Exclude income for memorials and endowments

Gifts received to fund memorials and endowments should be excluded here. Income from endowment earnings should not be excluded.

Line D—Exclude income from sale of church-owned real estate (not used for operating expenses)

Income from the sale of church owned property (such as a parsonage) to be used for future capital expenses should be excluded here.

Line E—Exclude income from tuition-based services (preschool, daycare, etc.)

Tuition-based services income is any payment made to the church for services provided at the church such as preschool, childcare, elder care, or other similar services. Normally such services are budgeted separately, often by a non-profit organization affiliated with the church.

Line F—Exclude direct costs of fund-raising

Direct costs of fund-raising are those costs paid to raise funds for the church, but not the income raised. Typical examples include: 1) the discounted purchase price of gift cards for future resale, 2) the cost of food and supplies for a fund-raising dinner and 3) a consulting fee to direct a fund-raising activity.

Line G—Exclude income for pass-through/outreach ministries

Pass-through funds are monies received for projects or events outside the local church. From time to time churches will act as a collection agent for special events, such as disaster relief, community homeless shelters, food pantries, soup kitchens or mission trips. Monies are sometimes given for field missionary support or mission focused activities including materials and supplies for mission trips and mission outposts. Any donations given for outreach ministries or causes should be excluded.

Line H—Exclude funds received from the Paycheck Protection Program loan

- B. This figure shall include salary, utilities and appurtenances, and other professional reimbursable expenses.

Should the DS and the chairperson of the S/PRC determine that the parsonage will require cleaning and/or repair due to abuse and/or negligence on the part of the departing pastoral family the DS may direct that the pastor's moving reimbursement be reduced by the amount required for such cleaning/repair and that this amount be paid to the church. In no case shall the amount paid to the church be greater than the total to which the pastor would otherwise be entitled for moving expense reimbursement.
 6. $1,000 additional moving expenses for seminarians receiving their first appointment in the Arkansas Annual Conference.
 7. On recommendation from the Cabinet, the CFA may disburse funds for pastors transitioning out

Employee Assistance Program:

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits partnered with The Board of Ordained Ministry to bring clergy families the Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program. Since January 1, 2012, this program has provided free, confidential short-term counseling to all active, retired clergy and clergy households. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommends continuing the program with 10 visits for 2023-2024 fiscal year. The benefit is not guaranteed and will be reviewed annually. The costs for the program will be paid with Insurance Reserves for 2023-2024. We are pleased to offer this service to our clergy and their households. EAP can help with many of life's challenges such as family issues, marital concerns, alcohol and drug abuse, anxiety, depression, major life events, grief, work concerns and managing the stress of everyday life. The program offers 10 counseling sessions to you and members of your household, free of charge. In most cases, short-term counseling is all the help you'll need. However, if a referral outside the EAP is necessary, the EAP counselor will seek the best resources for your situation. Counseling outside the EAP will require use of insurance or self-pay. Use of the EAP and issues discussed in all sessions are held in strict confidence. Rest assured that your private health information remains confidential and can only be released outside the EAP with your written consent or when required by law such as in life threatening situations or child/elder abuse. All Arkansas Conference staff members and clergy families; whether full time, part time, retired or disabled as well as members of your household are eligible to participate. Surviving spouses are also eligible for this benefit. For more information about the Methodist Healthcare EAP, please visit their website at www.methodisteapcanhelp.org and review the brochure enclosed in this announcement. To access the program, simply call their toll-free number 1-800-880-5658 to schedule an appointment.

Clergy Retirement Plans:

The Pre-1982 Pension Plan was replaced by the Ministerial Pension Plan effective January 1, 1982. Vested participants and their spouses receive lifetime benefits from the pre-82 plan. The 2024 monthly Past Service Rate (pre-1982) known as the PSR is $577.00.

The 2004 General Conference voted to end the MPP as of December 31, 2006. The replacement pension plan was the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) which began January 1, 2007. Less than full-time clergy are ineligible effective 1/1/2013. The plan is made up of 2 components;

1. A Defined Benefit provides monthly income at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church and a surviving spouse benefit payment of 75% for her/his lifetime. Clergy may also designate a disabled child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the death of you and your spouse, your disabled child will receive a reduced benefit. As with spousal coverage, your initial benefits will be reduced to pay for this extra benefit, and
2. A Defined Contribution that provides a retirement account balance that was established and funded by the annual conference.

All eligible full-time clergy who are under Episcopal appointment in the conference shall enroll in the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). Full-time clergy may make written request to waive out of the pension program CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014 clergy serving less than full-time are not eligible to participate in CRSP. We encourage the churches they serve to provide a retirement benefit by making contributions to the United Methodist Personal Pension Plan (UMPIP) on their behalf. Pension Plan enrollment is the responsibility of the participant and must be done no later than 30 days from the eligibility date. Information for enrollment must be provided to Conference Benefits Officer, Mona Williams, at the Conference Office of Finance and Administration.

- Clergy pension is calculated on "Plan" compensation. Plan compensation as defined by Wespath includes a parsonage equivalent (25% of compensation) or housing allowance. The benefit multiplier for 2023/2024 is 14% and is broken down in the following manner;
- The monthly CRSP- DB benefit is 8% of eligible Plan compensation.
- The CRSP-DC benefit is 2% non-matching employer contribution and 1% matching of employee eligible Plan compensation.
- The premium for the Comprehensive Protection Death and Disability Plan is 3% of eligible Plan compensation up to 200% of the Denominational average compensation "DAC" for clergy appointed full-time.

- Participants must contribute a minimum of 1% of eligible Plan compensation to their Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) in order to receive the full employer CRSP-DC contribution.

2023-2024 Retiree Healthcare Premium Stipend Allocation:

The Arkansas Conference provides a monthly healthcare reimbursement benefit to eligible retired clergy members of the Conference and disabled clergy who are Medicare eligible. The benefit is not guaranteed and is reviewed annually. In order to be eligible for a conference healthcare premium reimbursement Provisional Elders, Associate Members, Elders in Full Connection and Full-time Local Pastors who remain members of the Arkansas Conference must have served full-time in the Conference for a minimum of 10 years. Only full-time, Conference Responsible appointment years are counted and must have been served under Episcopal Appointment in the Arkansas Conference. Retirees not currently receiving a conference healthcare premium stipend are not eligible to receive the stipend. The stipend is a fixed dollar amount based on eligible years of active service and the maximum healthcare premium stipend. Additional years of service above 40 have no effect on the healthcare premium stipend.

- The maximum monthly healthcare stipend for the 2024 fiscal year is $207.06 for clergy and $155.30 for a spouse.
- Clergy who work or serve an appointment after retirement will not receive additional years of service or an additional benefit of any kind. The base HRA benefit calculation guide was •
- The first ten years of service will accrue at 2% of the maximum premium gift:
 - Clergy: 2% of $200 = $4.00
 - Spouse: 2% of $150 = $3.00
- The next 20 years of service will accrue at:
 - Clergy: 3.5% of $200 = $7.00
 - Spouse: 3.5% of $150 = $5.25
- The remaining ten years of service will accrue at:
 - Clergy: 1% of $200 = $2.00
 - Spouse: 1% of $150 = $1.50

Conference-responsible appointment years of active service are defined as service in which the Arkansas Conference or local church is responsible for contributions to clergy pension plans; Pre-1982, MPP or CRSP. The minimum healthcare stipend benefit is $51.77 per month. Clergy who are married at the time of retirement will receive a supplemental spousal gift. The spouse at retirement who outlives the clergyperson will receive a stipend as a surviving spouse. If a retired clergy couple divorces, the clergy will receive the clergy benefit and that spouse will receive the spouse portion. Should the clergy remarry, the new spouse is not eligible for a stipend. A surviving spouse who remarries will continue to receive a healthcare stipend benefit. When a clergy dies while under an active conference responsible appointment leaving behind a spouse (who is not eligible for Medicare) the conference will provide a healthcare premium stipend for $1035.30 per month for the first 5 years. After the earlier of year 5, or Medicare eligibility, the healthcare premium stipend will be based on clergy years of eligible service.

Clergy on Medical Leave receiving CPP Disability Benefits: Approved Medical Leave is an active Conference responsible appointment. Clergy appointed to Medical Leave who are not yet eligible for Medicare will receive a taxable Healthcare Premium Stipend in the amount of $1035.30 per month. Those who are eligible for Medicare must enroll in Medicare B, purchase a Medicare Supplement and a Drug Plan. Having met these guidelines, you would be eligible to receive a Healthcare Premium Stipend using the years of service guidelines above through the non-taxable HRA.

Other Important Information:

1. Surviving spouses eligible for spousal pension benefits will receive benefits at 75% of the formula benefit rate for pre-1982 service.

2. Allowance grants and local expenses of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits are paid by Wespeth or the Conference Treasurer must meet 2016 Book of Discipline guidelines and are subject to the approval by the Arkansas Conference. There are no grants at this time.
3. The institution, board or organization paying the salary of a minister on special appointment without annuity claim on the conference shall make provision for the pension of such person.
4. Attention is called to ¶1506.5 in the 2016 Book of Discipline, regarding eligibility to participate in CRSP and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). In order to provide adequately for the active pension program (current and past funding), death & disability benefits, retiree healthcare support and well care in 2023-2024 the conference has budgeted from the conference tithe $585,065. That total is broken down as:
 - Healthcare premium stipends for disabled clergy on approved medical leave shall be $18,750.
 - Healthcare premium stipends for retirees & spouses shall be $462,500.
 - To provide for clergy under special conference responsible appointments shall be $21,315.
 - Administration $82,500.
5. We remind all pastors and local churches of ¶639.4 in the 2016 Book of Discipline, which sets forth the requirement that payments on the pension and benefit program of the conference be in exact proportion to payments made on the salary or salaries, including housing of the ordained minister or clergy serving it. ¶638.4d requires the local church treasurer and/or pastor to adjust the cash salary and payment to be in the same proportion as the amount paid to the pension and benefit program of the conference. ¶639.4d adds that it shall not be permissible for a pastor to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment.
6. ¶639.4 of the 2016 Book of Discipline requires the Conference Board to keep a permanent record of defaults by churches of the conference in paying clergy pension and benefits. The board is further required to render annually to each church that is in default a statement of the amounts in default for that and preceding years. The Conference default total for was $46,091.39. According to our Conference Treasurer, for 2022 the following churches were in default by greater than $500 on the direct billed Clergy Retirement Security Program & the CPP premiums by the following amounts:

The Arkansas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from Wespath during the period Jan 2023-Dec 2023 by each active, retired, terminated, or clergyperson receiving disability benefits who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Equitable Compensation Commission Report to the 2023 Arkansas Annual Conference

For 76 years, the Conference has provided financial support to churches allowing them to provide pastoral salaries suitable for their mission fields. The mission of the CEC is to enable charges/ churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ by providing appropriate compensation for effective pastoral leadership. The Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) of the Arkansas Annual Conference does this in four areas: recommending Minimum Compensation for all clergy under full-time appointment and providing Key Charge, Minimum Base Compensation, and emergency Salary Arrearage funding to churches identified by the Cabinet.

As of May 22, 2023, the Conference was supporting four charges through the Key Charge program, and only two will continue into the next appointment year.
Calico Rock UMC This is their final year to receive support.

I. Minimum Full-Time Compensation

The CEC recommends that the Minimum Compensation Payment Schedule and guidelines for full-time pastors under appointment remain unchanged for the 2023-2024 Appointment Year, as printed below.

Full Connection: $48,330

Provisional/Associate Member: $47,280

Local Pastor: $46,230

Appointed pastors serving a charge that provides a group health insurance plan shall be subject to the following minimum compensation support:

Full Connection: $36,330

Provisional/Associate Member: $35,280

Local Pastor: $34,230

A parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage shall be provided in addition to the figures listed above.

II. Key Charge/Church Program for Base Compensation Support

The Key Charge/Church program provides Base Compensation Support to pastors who are appointed to charges/churches targeted for significant growth by the Conference or are in transition and require short-term support for effective pastoral leadership for various other reasons. Key Charges/Churches are related to the CEC by a covenant agreement. The covenant is negotiated by the chair of the Commission, the appointive cabinet, and representatives of the charge/church. The persons or their successors, shall be the trustees of the covenant, having verified it with their signatures.

The covenant shall include:

1. The initial amount of the Base Compensation Support needed,
 2. The duration of the covenant (normally five (5) years or less),
- and
3. The signatures of the persons negotiating the covenant.

The nature of the covenant is such that the amount of compensation support given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the compensation paid by the charge/church increases by at least the same amount, thus keeping the compensation at least stable over the covenant period. After the covenant has expired, no further compensation support will be granted to the charge/church. Under the Key Charge/Church arrangement, there shall be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the charge/church. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

Each church receiving compensation shall report by April 15 to the Appointive Cabinet for review and the Commission on Equitable Compensation for continuing approval. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the Arkansas Annual Conference website at arumc.org.

III. Minimum Base Compensation Support

The Minimum Base Compensation program is intended to assist in providing compensation for capable, effective pastoral leadership to charges/churches which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support. Where charges/churches are in need of additional compensation in order to meet the Minimum Compensation Base Support, this support is available to Elders in Full Connection, Provisional/Associate Members (not to be confused with associate pastors), and Full-Time Local Pastors who are not retired. Upon recommendation by the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the minimum base compensation is set annually by the Annual Conference for Elders, Provisional/Associate members and Full Time Local Pastors. (Minimum Full-Time Compensation has appeared previously in this report.)

Charges/churches receiving Minimum Compensation Support are related to the CEC by a covenant agreement negotiated by the chair of the Commission, the appointive cabinet, and representatives of the charge/church. The signors or their successors shall be the trustees of the covenant, having verified it with their signatures.

It is understood that:

1. A parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of the parsonage shall be provided in addition to the set compensation.

2. Associate pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Annual Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid.
3. Retired pastors are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid. See Paragraph 357.6 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.
4. Each charge/church receiving Minimum Compensation Support shall provide to the Commission the amount(s) received from the Arkansas Conference for the past five (5) years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan.
5. Each church receiving compensation shall report by April 15 to the Appointive Cabinet for review and the Commission on Equitable Compensation for continuing approval. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the Arkansas Annual Conference website at arumc.org.

IV. Emergency Salary Arrearage Support

Every clergy under appointment shall receive the full compensation set at Charge Conference. (See Paragraph 624 of the 2016 Discipline.) If a church is financially unable to provide the full compensation in a timely manner, the Annual Conference through the CEC may provide emergency funding to ensure the clergy is provided the compensation the church promised at the Charge Conference. The Arkansas Annual Conference Salary Arrearage Policy is found in Paragraph 103 of the Policy & Guidelines section of this Journal.

V. Equitable Compensation Covenant

When Equitable Compensation support has been granted to a charge/church, an acknowledgement of the conditions and amount of that funding shall be executed by the appointive cabinet, pastor, and leaders of the charge/church before any payment of funds shall be made. This acknowledgement shall be made on a form provided by the commission. No funds shall be disbursed until the agreement is signed and returned to the district superintendent. These forms are available from the district superintendent and the conference website at arumc.org.

The charge/church receiving financial support shall submit an annual report. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the conference website at arumc.org. Included in this report is the explanation of how these funds have aided the local charge/church. Each church receiving compensation shall report by April 15 to the Appointive Cabinet for review and the Commission on Equitable Compensation for continuing approval.

VI. Additional Priorities

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation shall maintain adequate reserves to fund needs which may emerge.
2. Each charge/church receiving equitable compensation in any of the above categories is expected to pay its conference tithe in full. If the charge/church is unable to accomplish this, they shall submit a written plan of action approved by their district superintendent, detailing the steps to be taken in order to achieve this goal. Notification of the plan will then be forwarded to the CEC.
3. All CEC funding is for pastoral support only. Using funds for any other purpose, such as program costs or other compensation violates the agreement.
4. Equitable Compensation funds are paid directly to the church/charge by the fifteenth (15th) of each month. The compensation shall be paid to the pastor as a supplement to funds budgeted by the charge/church. Typically, the calendar year of support is from July 1 through June 30, but the initial request and approval process may take place at any time during the year.

200,000 More Reasons to Fight Childhood Hunger

Mission: 100% of Arkansas United Methodist churches will participate in an initiative to significantly reduce childhood hunger through feeding ministries, public witness, and education for long-term stability.

As 200,000 More Reasons, we invite local congregations to do more for hungry children and families around strategies that provide stability and long-term solutions.

We encourage ministries around access to food, childhood literacy and that promote a healthy, stable family life. Local church ministries provide access to food now; greater learning potential for the child in the future; and, opportunities for living without food insecurity for the next generation.

Grants totaling $51,105 were shared in the Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 with forty-one churches around the state to support ministries related to each of our objectives: Nutrition, Literacy, and Stability at home. Grant cycles occur in the first and third quarter of each calendar year.

Nutrition: The most recent data from Feeding America's Map the Meal Gap shows that in 2020, 19.6% (more than 139,00) of Arkansas' children lived with food insecurity. 66% of local UMC congregations and organizations reported in 2022 offering or supporting a local ministry that feeds food insecure children and their families. These include blessing boxes, food pantries, mobile food distributions, backpacks of food, out-of-school meals, and congregational support of local and regional food distributions. Our goal is to have 100% of our churches doing something.

The Delta Project focuses on working with churches to help communities with some of the highest rates of generational poverty and thus food insecurity in the country through a generous three-year grant through the Methodist Foundation. $96,000/year for the past 3 years provided mobile food distributions in the Delta through a partnership between 8 churches and the Arkansas Food Bank. In 2022, these mobile distributions in the SE district shared 156,908 pounds of food to roughly 6,200 families. Over the 3 years, 700,000 pounds of food was distributed to approximately 17,000 families.

Literacy: 70% of Arkansas 4th graders are reading at or below proficiency according to the 2022 National Assessment of Educational Progress, slightly higher than in 2019. Furthermore, this report shows that the gap in reading is significantly wider for children who are eligible for free or reduced lunches, and who score on average 34 points lower on testing as compared to 25 points in 1998), to food secure students.

Our goal is to have 50% of United Methodist Churches and organizations with ministries that increase access to books, offer in-school reading tutors or out-of-school reading programs. In 2022, 21% started or expanded little free libraries, reading camps, after-school programs, tutoring ministries or distributed books to children.

Stability at home: In 2021, 22% of Arkansas' children experienced two or more ACEs – Adverse Childhood Experiences. These are traumatizing events such as divorce, living with someone who misuses substances or has mental illness, witnessing violence, or having a parent in jail or to die. Children in poverty are at higher risk for more ACEs.

For a state that ranks in the top 10 for most ACEs per person and low access to mental health, the ARUMC can do more to help children in poverty and the adults who care for them. Offering positive experiences through ministries and access to mental health will counterbalance the adverse impact some food insecure children endure. 200K More Reasons encourages local congregations to promote healthy, stable families by 1) increasing awareness of mental health issues and the need for access to affordable and acceptable care; 2) opening church doors to community-wide support, training and learning; and, 3) creating topic-driven small groups for under-resourced families. 22% of ARUMC's reported in 2022 ministries that promote a stable family life, mostly around addiction care and crisis support. Our goal is to have 35% offering these ministries to food insecure families.

Training on ACEs and trauma-informed ministry is available to all clergy, youth and children's ministers as well as lay volunteers in outreach ministries to the poor on September 9th, 2023.

Additionally, 71 clergy and lay people have been trained in Mental Health First Aid for Adults. These 8 hour trainings led by Amy Shores teach how to identify and respond responsibly to mental health needs of those with whom our churches connect, including in outreach ministries to the poor.

2022 Ingathering and the related service event were hosted in November. Districts worked to gather UMCOR disaster relief supplies. The Conference celebrated with a service event at the AR Food Bank with 84 volunteers and 12 staff from around the state and of all ages who bagged approximately 5,100 pounds (or 1,020 bags) of sweet potatoes; 192 TEFAP Food Boxes; and 1,440 Dental Kits to be distributed through the Food Bank. All the districts collected $40,386 in financial and in-kind gifts related to UMCOR kits, AR disaster Response and 200K More Reasons. 8,689 pounds of food were donated locally in districts, and an additional 373 volunteers contributed 521 volunteer hours.

All of Arkansas' United Methodist Churches are vital to their community. 200,000 More Reasons supports those churches and ministries that reach out beyond the pews to some of the most vulnerable—children in food-insecure, under-resourced households. We celebrate what you are doing as local congregations and as disciples of Christ. Contact us at 200Kmorereasons@arumc.org if your church needs ideas or support in getting started in any of these ministry areas.

Board of Church and Society

The Arkansas Board of Church and Society began meeting sessions on Zoom in fall 2022 with a newly constituted group of leaders from around the state, representing all our districts, since the pandemic interfered with cooperative work in-person and with other groups, agencies, and non-profits.

Initially, we began to familiarize ourselves with each of our geographic areas, and the social justice work that churches are doing around the state. We looked at the General Church Five Priorities: Poverty, Climate, Health, Peace, Civil and Human Rights. We agreed through 200K More Reasons and BGM, the Conference is strongly meeting some important needs around poverty, including hunger, literacy, and health.

Thus the group leaned into discussions of peace-making around the issue of disaffiliation because, in 2022, it was happening all around the state, and there has been harm and pain in the UMC. In November, we met with Rev. Michael Roberts, regarding his work with the ReStart Initiative. It was helpful for the team to get a bigger picture. In a time of uncertainty and transition for many, no statements or actions were taken.

In February, we met and discussed a needed emphasis on helping local churches connect with General Board of Church and Society resources and to help educate. Communications is helping set up a C&S page on the new Conference website, and we will have a Facebook page to help share state and national alerts and information for action, advocacy, and education.

We also began a discussion around the issue of climate since this affects all people everywhere. We live in Arkansas, a state known for its natural beauty, resources, and agricultural economy. Thus, we discussed ways Church and Society might work with our districts and congregations to provide further climate education. We proposed and are working on a webinar in which we hope to have some leaders in these areas. We have GBGM SCJ missionary Elizabeth McCormick as a resource and Rev. Angie Gage is our state's only certified EarthKeeper. We also met with Rev. Hammett Evans regarding ways to work with Board of Global Ministries, which also supports climate initiatives. We may also connect climate with 200K More Reasons on health.

The work on climate can be expressed in many educational ways: recycling programs, community gardens (food justice), access to clean water and pollinator gardens (sustainability and health), understanding natural resources and how to support them and their eco-systems, as well as encouraging congregations to engage in more play in nature in their own backyards, be it hiking, gardening, biking, natural labyrinths, and welcoming, safe playgrounds. These suggestions may aid local churches to use innovative ideas around creation care, assisting in community evangelism and church revitalization.

Board of Discipleship

The last few years have been very difficult for the United Methodist Church. This is why the Board of Discipleship for the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church is excited to be able to present the One Matters Award and the Harry Denman Evangelism Award. It is inspiring to bear witness to Good News being shared in such difficult times.

There were so many encouraging and uplifting stories shared with us this year that it was truly difficult to select just one winner for each of the categories of the Denman Award: Clergy; Laity; and Youth. In fact, we could not just narrow of our selection down to just one clergy person and have chosen to recognize two clergy this year.

In the Clergy Category we have chosen to present the Denman Award to Melanie Tubbs of Augusta, Cotton Plant, and McCrory United Methodist Churches, and Peaches Smith of Haven United Methodist Church.

Melanie Tubbs: For years Melanie has reached people outside of Arkansas through her blog the Southern Pastor. During COVID this helped to connected many people who were unable to worship, attend Bible study and fellowship in person. She leads Bible studies in Augusta with people from multiple states as far away as Hawaii.

But this year in particular, Melanie is deserving of the Evangelism Award. When one of her churches, Cotton Plant United Methodist Church burned down last year, Melanie led that church to do amazing things out of that tragedy. Instead of rebuilding the historic sanctuary, Cotton Plant UMC renovated the Fellowship Hall as a worship space, and are using the money instead to build a playground, start a college scholarship, and feed the community. Melanie and Cotton Plant UMC are truly showing what it means to be the church.

When St. Paul and FUMC in Searcy voted to disaffiliate Melanie took on a fourth congregation for over a month and preached for them until they were able to begin a rotating schedule of preachers. Her ministry reminds me of John Wesley's famous quote "the world is my parish."

Peaches Smith: Peaches outreach ministry through online worship services are being shared with churches in Africa. The church in Africa started with just a few pews & services being held outdoors. They watched the service every week on a small cell phone. One church would be watching with an average of 50 people. More & more people began coming to hear the services & seeking the word of God. The services have now spread to 6-7 churches in different countries in Africa and they have grown to viewing the services on a large projection screen. She even led a virtual revival with over 1000 people in attendance. She hopes to visit soon and lead a revival in person.

This year, we are recognizing Mark Eldridge of Searcy First United Methodist with the Denman Award for Laity.

Mark Eldridge: When it became clear that Mark's longtime church was disaffiliating, he realized that he was not alone in his spiritual exile. Mark and his wife Anne gathered others from both St. Paul and FUMC Searcy to come together in worship and discipleship. With little experience in putting together a worship service, he reached out to others for guidance. Within weeks, the group of exiles began to form into a church. Mark identified other leaders to take on ministries such as teaching Sunday school, participating in worship, and forming small groups. He also recruited individual pastors to come to preach and provide the sacraments.

Mark Eldridge has stepped up in incredible ways amidst a time of deep conflict and pain. He is truly a disciple who makes disciples.

Finally, the youth recipient of the Denman Award this year is Addison Smittle of First United Methodist of Conway.

Addison Smittle: Addison has essentially taken charge of Conway First's food pantry and feeding ministry at 14 years of age. She began volunteering for our Thursday feeding ministry in the 8th grade and quickly became well know amongst the other volunteers and those that Conway First serve through the ministry. She is beloved by all that she works with. In fact, they took a trip as a group to surprise her at a Junior high football game as she led the junior high marching band as one of the drum majors. She has a heart for serving and the skill of organization and a true calling into serving others in need. She also serves on Conway First's local youth ministry leadership team and as a representative to the district council on youth ministry for her church.

We are also very excited to present Farmington United Methodist with the One Matters Award. Discipleship Ministries offers a commemorative plaque and $1,000.00 check to one congregation at each Annual Conference that has increased baptisms and professions of faith from zero to at least one in the previous year. Farmington is a shining example of what Christ can do even in the difficult of seasons.

Like most churches, Farmington UMC struggled in how to reach new and current members in a covid-impacted world. In 2022, the church became reenergized in its mission and ministry. Farmington UMC went from no Professions of Faith in 2021 to 10 Professions of Faith (7 POF and 3 by confirmation) and 5 baptisms in 2022. Coming back to worship out of COVID, they have seen their average attendance almost double (90%).

Pastor Annie Lankford and Farmington UMC are intentional in “disciples making disciples” by offering a variety of studies at Wednesday Night Live. All ages, from toddlers to seniors, meet for a fellowship dinner, communion, and then Small Group Bible Study. Historically, Farmington UMC has been active in its community with its Food Pantry, Diaper Bank, and with their Thanksgiving “Feast-to-Go, serving free hot meals with all the fixings.

In July of 2022, Rev. Annie Lankford was appointed Senior Pastor. Over the course of the next six months, the congregation, led by Rev. Lankford, became engaged with the community in new ways. From serving as the high school football chaplain, to being elected to the Chamber of Commerce, and hosting her weekly FB Live “Porch Time with Pastor Annie,” the community started noticing Farmington UMC and their new pastor. When there was a community event, the members of Farmington UMC were present, whether working the concession stands at the football games, having a booth at the town’s fall festival, or decorating a float for the Christmas parade. The church also began offering new ways that the community could engage with the congregation at the church facility. Their 2022 Back-to-School provided almost 500 students with shoes, socks, underwear, backpacks, haircuts, immunizations, and physicals. Their Trunk or Treat and Fall Festival saw 250 people attend this new event. They also invited the community to a Blessing of the Animals, which brought in two new members to the church.

Farmington UMC is sharing the light of Christ both inside and outside the walls of the church building. They are growing new disciples with a heart for ministry and a passion for missions.

Board of Global Ministries

“As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.”

John 17:18

The Board of Global Ministries plays a vital role in connecting the Arkansas Annual Conference in with the United Methodist Church’s global mission and ministry. Our commitment encompasses providing Humanitarian Relief and Recovery through UMCOR and the Arkansas Disaster response team. Additionally, BGM facilitates connections with Missionaries, spreads the good news of God’s love through Evangelism and Church Revitalization, and prioritizes Global Health for physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being.

While our support for Humanitarian Relief and Recovery remains unwavering, we have observed a decline in support for other areas of focus. To reignite our commitment to BGM’s comprehensive work, we introduce the new 5 Star Church Award (see attached). Churches may qualify by paying 100% of the Arkansas Tithe Initiative, contributing to UMCOR Sunday, and actively participating in the following five mission categories:

- 1) One UMCOR Project

- 2) One national Advance project outside the South Central Jurisdiction
- 3) One international Advance project
- 4) Attendance at Mission U or participation in Ingathering
- 5) Support for a Global Ministries missionary

This year no United Methodist churches in Arkansas qualified, so we challenge local congregations to set their sights on receiving the 5 Star Church Award in 2024!

The Board of Global Ministries of the Arkansas Conference is proud to collaborate with Global Missionaries Ellyn Dubberly, David McCormick, Elizabeth McCormick, and Trisha Manns. We are thrilled about the contributions Trisha Manns is making in her role as Church and Community Worker. She is dedicated to developing ministries for youth and young adults working in partnership with five historically-black congregations in the Central District. Our Mission Personnel Coordinator, Brenda Norwood Hinson, has compiled a list of United Methodist missionary personnel either from Arkansas or with an Arkansas connection (see attached).

Even in the midst of the present chaos, it is reassuring to witness the worldwide influence of the United Methodist Church. As we unite in mission and ministry in Arkansas and beyond, we anticipate that God has even greater things in store for all of God's children.

Board of Laity

The prevailing note of the Laity of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church this year is perseverance and strength. Growing in their faith with a continued love of Jesus and the teachings of Jesus is paramount to how they have ministered, served, and been the Body of Christ in our Conference and in the world. Staying on task means we continue our call to be witnesses no matter what, no matter where. Our influence on others to stand firm in their faith, to boldly speak the truth, to help the needy, tend to the sick and offer mercy and grace to a hurting world is always at the forefront of our ministry.

Called. Yes, that is what we are. We are called by our Lord to live a life of outreaching love. That is our commitment. Focusing our ministries on who we are as children of God has allowed us to step into the future with trust and excitement. We become energized in the promise of doing great things in the Name of Jesus. And yes, many of those things are being done quite differently than last year. But, there is fruit we are bearing and songs we are singing because we know that Christ is undergirding all that we do. We know that ministry is still there even in the loss of some of our United Methodist Churches. We are holding steady to be ready to participate in the dance of love that is true discipleship.

Thank you Arkansas Conference Laity of the United Methodist Church. You make me so grateful to be a part of you!

Commission on Archives and History

OVERVIEW

The Commission on Archives and History (ACCAH) is populated by one United Methodist representative from every district in the Arkansas Conference, the Conference Archivists, the Chairperson of the Historical Society, the Museum Curator, the Chairperson of the Museum committee, a representative from the Historical Society, and a representative from the Museum Committee. The Commission is a Connectional Ministry of the Arkansas Conference and is mandated by our United Methodist Book of Discipline. It oversees the Winfred D. Polk Arkansas United Methodist Archives, the United Methodist Historical Society of the Arkansas, and the United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference. The ACCAH's purpose is to preserve and maintain the documents and artifacts of the Arkansas Annual Conference and assist and encourage local churches in not only preserving their histories but telling and celebrating their histories.

More detailed descriptions of the ACCAH and links to on-line accessible historical information are available through the Arkansas Conference web site, <https://arumc.org/our-ministries/archives-and-history/>. The Winfred D. Polk Arkansas United Methodist Archives is located on the second floor of the Hendrix College Library in Conway, Arkansas and is open to the public on Thursdays from 9am-4pm. Appointments and information requests are best made by emailing the Archivists at arkmethodist@hendrix.edu. The United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference is located at The Historic First United Methodist Church, 723 Center St. Little Rock, AR 72201. The museum phone number is 501-904-1280 and is open on Sundays from 9am-3pm, on Wednesdays from 9am-3pm, and by special tour requests. We are in the process of revitalizing the United Methodist Historical Society of the Arkansas this year. We will have information available at this year's Arkansas Annual Conference, June 21-24, 2023, and we will make information available on our website via the above link.

The 2016 Book of Discipline paragraph 641.1-4 sets forth the duties and responsibilities of the Commission. The main points of the mandate are summarized as: to provide a permanent storage facility that is environmentally suitable for archival records of the Arkansas Conference agencies and churches, to make available for viewing those records to the agencies and people of the Arkansas Conference, and to encourage and help the local churches "in preserving their records, compiling their histories, and celebrating their heritage."

We are grateful for our connection to the General Conference of the United Methodist Church through the General Commission on Archives and History. Their website is: <http://www.gcah.org>. It is a great resource providing, Local Church Historian educational opportunities, sponsored historical travel opportunities, links to on-line historical documents, links to designated Heritage Landmarks of United Methodism, links to the Methodist History Journal, and many other interesting and informative resources.

WHERE WE ARE AND CHALLENGES BEFORE US

We are thankful for the past leadership of Helen Giessen Guenter, our long-time chairperson of the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History. Rev. Michael Blanchard became Chairperson of the ACCAH at the 2022 Arkansas Annual Conference.

The Commission on Archives and History is taking advantage of the ability to hold ZOOM meetings. In the past, we were limited to maybe one or two travel meetings a year. Now we will meet more often.

Our upcoming opportunities and challenges are: to make the Historical Society more active which will help us be better able to reach out to the local churches assisting them in celebrating and telling their histories, to provide a forum for local United Methodist historians to tell their stories, to look for ways to help the Archives expand its roll in preserving and making records accessible in different ways, and to help the Museum Committee not only make the museum itself an interesting and educational place to visit but to find new ways of making its artifacts more accessible to the people and churches of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

A major challenge next year will be for our two Conference Archivists to preserve the records we receive from the churches approved to disaffiliate and to make these records easily accessible for viewing.

Ideas about how to present United Methodist history to the people of the Arkansas Conference begin in a Commission's meeting, a Museum Committee's meeting, in an Archivist's collaboration meeting, and in a General Commission on Archives and History lesson or publication. These ideas are waiting to become realities. We want to push the boundaries of communicating United Methodist history in Arkansas so it becomes something that can exist or co-exist as useful to the people called United Methodists in a digitized age.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE THIS YEAR

Winfred D. Polk Arkansas Annual Conference Archives

Last year, our Conference Archivists, Carol Teague and Ellen Bruce, reorganized archived local church records to make room for the records from churches who have been approved for disaffiliation. We now have defined storage for active church records, closed or abandoned church records, and disaffiliated church records. That first step has been completed and we have temporary storage space for the unprocessed records that we have already and will receive in the future.

This past year, the archivists have completed scanning all of the "Arkansas United Methodist Newspapers." The oldest newspaper we have is June 28, 1884. On July 13, 2018 the last printed newspaper was published and on August 13, 2018 the first Arkansas United Methodist digital edition" was published. This process has been a "labor of love" since at least 2008. Most of these historical documents are accessible on-line through our conference website, <https://arumc.org/our-ministries/archives-and-history/> and the rest will be made available as resources allow. In the meantime, the bound newspapers are stored in the archive offices and are available for reading. Hendrix College also has copies of the newspapers through their microfilm database.

This year, the Archivists have preserved and made available, pastoral appointment records, Conference records, and Local Church records. They have kept the archive offices open on each Thursday and answered questions requested by phone and email. The Archivists always welcome any questions, no matter how simple or complex.

The Archivists researched and wrote memoirs, including photographs, when available, of deceased conference ministers and spouses. These memoirs are printed in the Annual Conference Journal. Additionally, the archivists contacted each bereaved family offering prayers and condolences on behalf of the Annual Conference.

United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference (UMMAC)

Last year, two new members were added to the United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference Committee. Michael McMurry was elected Chair to replace Paul Brown, and Shakeelah Rahman continued serving as the Museum's Curator. We celebrate Paul Brown's leadership of the Museum Committee. During his tenure as chair, he was responsible for guiding its recent membership and financial growth, on-line innovations, recent oral history project, and the making of some of its exhibits.

Our museum Curator applied for and received The American Rescue Plan Grant for $12,000. Funds were designated to be used for small non-profits restarting after the COVID Pandemic.

An increase in the museum's on-line presence was seen both on our Facebook \(Meta\) account \(Arkansas United Methodist Museum\) and on our Instagram account \(UnitedMethodist_Museum\). Those numbers are: Facebook: Online Engagement Numbers 2022: 476 (Reactions, Shares, and Comments), 41 (Post), 1(Video Post), 2(Story/Reel), 590 (Views of Video Post), Facebook group members increased from 421 (2021) to 463(2022); Instagram: Online Engagement Numbers 2022: 70 (Likes), 14 (Post), 3 (Reels/Stories) and 114 Followers by the end of 2022, 87 followers in 2021. The museum social media presence is mostly attributed to the efforts of the Museum Curator. She has consistently pushed the Museum Committee to move the museum from an exclusive "brick and mortar" room to visit to a more digitized, interesting, and informative "on-line" place. A place to see where and how people have been worshipping God as Methodists and then United Methodists even before Arkansas became a state. We think that an on-line presence of the museum might capture the imagination of people on a random encounter or of people like historians needing to add a piece of information that connects or adds to their systematic study.

The Museum has continued the process of recording faith stories as part of the "Oral History" project. This year, two "interns," Liam Hankins-Hull, with a Religious Studies Degree from Hendrix College, and Jonathan Hankins-Hull, with a Music Composition degree from The University of Central Arkansas, have been recording, condensing, and transcribing the stories of the people called United Methodists. This year six of these stories were added to seven that had been previously processed.

Council on Children's and Youth Ministries

The Conference Children's Ministries and Conference Youth Ministries teams are working hard to reimagine and redefine the work of our district coordinators and our conference age-level leadership teams. We're excited to continue this work into 2023-2024 and look forward to sharing more about this work in the fall.

It should be noted that this year the Children's Ministry event, Beyond, and the Youth Ministry event, Equip, will not happen in their traditional forms. Instead, we will join with the work of 200K Reasons and The Delta Project to host ACEs Training on September 9, 2023 at Conway FUMC. We hope that children and youth workers will join other lay persons and clergy for this incredibly important day as we learn more about what trauma-informed ministry can look like in all areas of the church.

Overall, the Conference Children's Ministry Council and the Youth Worker Network continue to be a resilient group of those who value their work and relationships with children and teens. These children's ministry and youth ministry workers continue to commit their support to the young people with who they work and to support one another in this vital work as well.

Council on Youth Ministries

This year the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries (ACCYM) has had great success in recovering from the effects of the pandemic. Although it has been a challenge to restore our events and keep equal district representation, the council has persevered and continues to fulfill our mission.

Unfortunately, we were unable to hold our annual planning retreat. To complete the business that typically takes place during the planning retreat, we gathered on September 17. During the meeting, new members were welcomed to the team, the constitution was reviewed, and we divided into our task forces to begin working on goals for the year.

For the first time in three years, the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries was able to put on Refuge 2022. Youth ranging from 6th-10th grade from all over the state of Arkansas were able to gather at Shepherd of the Ozarks for Refuge 2022. Youth ministries could choose one of two weekends to attend. Over the two weekends, about 400 youth were encouraged to Wonder about their Faith. Both weekends were beautifully executed and thoroughly enjoyed by youth pastors, adults, and youth alike.

Veritas, the Conference's largest youth event, will take place March 3-5 at the Rogers Convention Center. This year's theme is "Wide Awake," which is intended to awaken students' senses and connect them to how we interact with God. During each worship service, a sense will be highlighted, such as sight or touch. The sixth sense, Spirit, will also be acknowledged during each service. Our worship sessions will be led by COR Worship Collective from Church of the Resurrection and speaker Rev. JJ Whitney. And our communion tradition will continue with Bishop Laura Merrill leading us through our last worship session. This will be the first time in a while that Veritas is truly a United Methodist event from top to bottom.

The Junior and Senior high Assembly Task Forces are planning for an in-person event in July this summer at Hendrix College. These will simultaneously take place July 17-21. The Tour has secured their schedule, dates, and order of service. Our goal for these events is to unite youth around the state and provide an environment for them to worship and build relationships.

Our Youth Service Fund is an organization for youth by youth. This group of students raises funds to provide grants to youth groups in need. 70% of the funds raised remain in the state of Arkansas, while the other 30% of proceeds go to international projects. During both weekends of Refuge, the Youth Service Fund was able to raise roughly $2,500. The Media team attends every CCYM event to capture the powerful moments that take place. They also manage the CCYM social media platforms. They post important dates, reminders, and event information.

Overall, the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries had an inspiring, productive year. Being in leadership this year has allowed me to grow in my own faith while creating a safe environment for others to do so as well. We continue to have open minds and create loving disciples of Jesus Christ. I am forever grateful for the opportunity to serve as the 2022-2023 ACCYM President. Thank you to all of the youth and adults for your time, dedication, and support. You have made this chapter of my life so special and unforgettable.

Council on Young Adult Ministries

This has been an exciting year for the Conference Council on Young Adult Ministries, which serves laity and clergy in the Arkansas Annual Conference between the ages of 18 and 35. Our hope is to help make connections between young adult clergy and laity in the ARUMC across districts so that they might grow in their faith with God and in fellowship with one another. We will have an evening gathering this year during Annual Conference for all young adults to keep making these connections. Please look at the Annual Conference schedule and make plans to join us for this event.

Beginning last Fall, the Council on Young Adult Ministries organized a monthly Zoom Book Club. We've been meeting since September and will conclude discussion of our book selection, The Cross and the Lynching Tree by James Cone in April. We had ten young adults sign up and participate in some manner in this study. Young adults from across the conference, some of whom live out of state right now while attending college or serving in ministry, joined us and took turns leading the monthly discussions. This opportunity to have conversations around the virtual table have been meaningful as we've discussed Cone's book, the challenges of racism, and our desire for racial reconciliation in our lives, our local churches, and our conference.

The young clergy in the Arkansas Conference have begun meeting regularly for retreats and monthly meetings. Thus, the council has been supporting them as they seek to build relationships across the conference. The next step for the council is to find ways to connect laity and clergy together. Often events we have hosted or supported have either laity or clergy present. Our desire is for all young people in the ARUMC to be in conversation because we are all called to ministry, and we have all made a commitment to remain a part of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas despite our denomination's current challenges.

To connect with the Conference Young Adult ministries, please fill out this information form so that we can be in touch with you: <https://arumc.wufoo.com/forms/arumc-young-adult-information-form/>. Thanks to the young adults who have already filled out this form, we've begun creating a database of young adults in the ARUMC so that the Council on Young Adult Ministries can reach out to young adults across Arkansas to connect in ways that are faithful to their desires for growing in their faith.

Finally, if your church has a young adult ministry and you would like to share a story of transformation about this ministry, we would love to hear about it. We would like to collect young adult ministry stories to encourage other churches to begin ministries of their own. You can share your story here: <https://arumc.wufoo.com/forms/xdosiv21f5sz9m/>.

Culture of Calling

The focus of the 2022-2023 year for the area of Culture of Calling continues to be building a culture of calling in every local church in the ARUMC. In order to provide more opportunities and conversations for those exploring ministry we must create an environment in which Calling is discussed early and often. Calling stories, regular emphasis on evaluating and exploring Calling, and intentional follow up must become a regular part of the work of the local church.

In order to provide local churches a starting point for this work, the Culture of Calling initiative launched The Calling Kit at Annual Conference 2022. This Kit provides resources for Worship, Conversation and Response for every local church. The worship resources provide a multitude of ideas for how to plan a Calling Sunday. The conversation resources provide discussion questions for every age level to be used in small groups, Sunday school, etc. The response resources provide additional ways both clergy and lay have dive deeper if a calling needs to further explored and guidance for next steps for those discerning a specific call. 485 kits were distributed since the launch and stories of how the kit is being used in local churches are encouraging an exciting. At Annual Conference 2023, the next phase of The Calling Kit will begin as we start collecting the stories and examples of how local congregations are creating a Culture of Calling in their church and what results they are seeing from this work.

An additional project started this year is the Internship and Short Term Job Network connecting Camp Tanako, Mount Eagle Retreat Center, Ozark Mission Project, Project Transformation, and Shoal Creek Camp along with local churches who have internship opportunities. This network will allow for more collaborative work between churches, ARUMC affiliated non-profits and those seeking discernment opportunities through internships or short term employment placements.

Culture of Calling continues to ensure a presence and discussion about Calling at all ARUMC children's and youth events in addition to regular contact with current ARUMC seminarians. This work is exciting, ongoing and vital!

Project Transformation

Project Transformation held an inaugural summer of ministry in 2022. Project Transformation's (PT's) mission is to transform communities by engaging children, college-age young adults, and churches in purposeful relationships. PT does this in two ways. First, the program engages children in holistic development, strengthening their literacy, social-emotional and spiritual skills through a summer day camp. At the same time, young adults are engaged in purposeful leadership and ministry as they lead children's programming, live in an intentional Christian community, and focus on vocational discernment. Ultimately, PT becomes a tool to connect churches with their communities through hosting and supporting out-of-school-time programs.

Children

For 7 weeks, children at PT take part in arts and crafts, daily recreation, Bible studies, and 40 minutes of reading one-to-one with a volunteer. During this time, the children build positive relationships with college-aged interns who encourage the children to be their very best selves.

In 2022,

- 50 children participated in summer programming
- 90% of participants had a positive experience of the climate built at PT Arkansas.
- 84% of children in the program maintained or improved their reading levels
- 1,816 meals were served

College-Age Young Adults

PT Arkansas engaged 10 college-aged young adults from 6 different colleges, and 3 different continents. Even so, nearly half of them called the Pine Bluff area home. These young adults invested their time and energy to support children in Pine Bluff, while also taking time to explore where God is calling them. Young adults visited 5 area nonprofits and ministries including the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Methodist Family Health, Canvas Community, The Generator, and Neighbor to Neighbor of Jefferson County. They lived in intentional Christian community at the University of Arkansas Pine Bluff eating meals and worshipping together at St. James United Methodist Church- Pine Bluff located adjacent to campus.

- 80% of young adults showed an increase in confidence in their sense of vocation and in their ability to use their God-given gifts and strengths after the internship

Churches

The success of Project Transformation would not be possible without the investment and support of our partner and host churches. Two United Methodist Churches opened their doors to families in their communities. In partnership with their intern teams, St. Luke and Lakeside UMCs provided impactful programming in their neighborhoods. Each hosted Family Fun Nights to gather children and their families at their churches and partnered with St. James in Pine Bluff for an end of summer celebration.

Nearly a dozen partnering churches provided meals for interns and volunteers to read with children. These included Benton First, Good Faith Carr, Highland Valley, Lakeside, Oak Forrest, Pulaski Heights, St. Luke, St. James- Little Rock, St. James- Pine Bluff, Sulphur Springs, and Henderson State Wesley Foundation.

- 78 unique reading volunteers
- Over 600 hours served

Project Transformation is always looking for new partners to serve as volunteers, provide meals, and learn about our programs. If your congregation or you as an individual would like to learn more about how you can support this ministry, visit: projecttransformation.org/Arkansas, email smeadors@ptarkansas.org, or call 501-650-0565.

Secretary of Global Ministries

Collaborating with other United Methodist agencies, as well as world Methodist and ecumenical bodies, Global Ministries facilitates mission with more than 200 missionaries in more than 115 countries. Global Ministries includes the United Methodist Committee on Relief, or UMCOR, providing nonsectarian disaster response and sustainable development worldwide. Global Ministries is also the lead United Methodist agency for global health.

As the new Conference Secretary of Global Ministries (CSGM), I have spent a great deal of time learning more about Global Ministries and my responsibilities in this role. I am grateful for this opportunity to serve as an advocate to the Annual Conference for the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM). I have been meeting on a regular basis with the Mission Advocates for the South Central Jurisdiction, Elizabeth and David McCormick, who currently reside in Arkansas, as well as with other CSGM's across our jurisdiction. We were able to have an in-person Fall Gathering in November at which I was also able to meet General Board of Global Ministries personnel. In addition, I learned more about the missionaries and programs GBGM is currently supporting and how local churches and the Annual Conference can be more involved.

The role of the CSGM is to promote covenant relationships with missionaries around the world or in the U.S. as each missionary serving in the UMC is responsible for raising a portion of their expenses each year. The CSGM also coordinates missionary itineration in the Annual Conference and encourages visits with churches which are currently supporting a missionary as well as with churches interested in doing so. There are a number of missionaries who are currently in need of support and we would love to see more local churches in covenant relationship with individual missionaries.

There are currently four missionaries that the Conference Board of Global Ministries is encouraging churches to consider supporting;

- Elizabeth McCormick, Mission Advocate
- <https://umcmmission.org/missionary-bio/3022180/>
- David McCormick, Mission Advocate
- <https://umcmmission.org/missionary-bio/3022179/>
- Trisha Manns, Church and Community Worker, Central District Youth/Young Adults Initiative
- <https://umcmmission.org/missionary-bio/3022241/>
- Ellyn Dubberly, Global Missionary, El Salvador <https://umcmmission.org/missionary-bio/3021818/>

In 2022, 157 churches in the Arkansas Annual Conference donated $328,929.74 to UMCOR and other Global Ministries Projects. In addition, Missionary Support and Advance Projects totaled $9,186.00. The Conference Board of Global Ministries is grateful for all you do to support missions throughout our connection!

If you would like to learn more about supporting individual missionaries or any other facet of Global Ministries, please contact me at gail.brooks@arumc.org or 479.223.0242.

United Methodist Men

United Methodist Men's groups have chartered for years. Chartering helps support the GCUMM so that they can help you with resources and training. Renewing your annual Charter is also the best time to update and correct the officer list and contact information for the officers. This allows the GCUMM and state leaders to stay in contact with your unit.

The GCUMM has also launched United Men's Ministry. This is a web-based platform for making disciples of Jesus Christ. It is aimed at discipleship training for all men, but some parts are open to anyone. It includes the Live Bold app you can download onto your telephone. This app is free and includes a daily devotion, a prayer wall, and stories aimed at Christian men. The platform also includes an annual subscription for the church to the entire platform for $180. This will include many resources to support men's ministry for that congregation.

If you have any questions about any aspect of ministry to the men of your congregation, please contact me at clay.mccastlain@arumc.org.

United Women in Faith

United Women in Faith has taken a new name to better reflect how we answer our calling today. It's an exciting time to commit to greater inclusivity, action and impact in our mission to support women, children, and youth. Rebranding meant that we refreshed the way that we are telling our story and updated our programs so that we could welcome women of diverse backgrounds and life stages. We are still the only official women's organization of The United Methodist Church and our traditional structures on the conference, district and local levels remain intact.

United Women
in Faith

Our changes to the bylaws allows for women to be involved and be leaders in our organization even if they become affiliated with another denomination. Our new name makes our organization more inclusive. We are paving new paths for more women to get involved and to expand our ability to inspire opportunities for women of other denominations and Christian traditions. It is a time of change and transition and we must influence others by providing opportunities that are about connecting, growing and impacting our communities. To make a lasting difference in this world, our actions must always speak as loud as our words as we introduce new women to the organization and new paths to membership.

Our Arkansas Conference United Women in Faith Luncheon will be held on June 22 at Hot Springs First United Methodist Church in Hot Springs. Transportation will be provided from the Annual Conference to the Church.

The Arkansas Conference Mission u will be held July 26-29 at Hendrix College in Conway. The study this year is “Living the Kin-dom.” This curriculum explores the Lord’s Prayer as it is recorded in Matthew 6:9-13, and it invites you to take a deeper look at the prayer and the role it plays in your faith journey.

The 20th Annual Meeting will be held November 4, at Conway First United Methodist Church in Conway.

The 2024 South Central Jurisdiction will be held June 21-23, 2024 in St. Louis, Missouri. The Arkansas Conference United Women in Faith is again saying yes to being part of what God is doing in the 21st century by creating new and improved ways for women today to gather for faith, sisterhood and action for women, children and youth.

Volunteers in Mission and Disaster Response

We are a part of The Board of Global Missions and partner with UMCOR.

We aid survivors of disasters such as floods, tornados, ice storms, heat waves, and now earthquakes.

During the last Ingathering we asked for School Kits, Female Hygiene Kits, and Cleaning Buckets. We were blessed by the great inpouring of kits and supplies. In fact, we were so blessed that we are still rotating the kits and preparing items to send to one of the distribution warehouses.

Another blessing that we received is that over the past year we have not had any Major disasters. As of now the local communities have been able to help their neighbors.

During this slow time, we have had a large amount of “blue sky” time.

This enables us to take care of the Disaster Response and Volunteers In Mission business that goes unchecked when we are busy with larger disasters.

We have opened our new HUB located behind Wesley UMC on Oak Street in Conway. This staging and training facility allows us to have all our tools, kits, extra supplies, and our trailers in one location. The trailers can be checked out from your District Coordinator or Conference Coordinator.

Africa University

United Methodists worldwide celebrated an ‘Ebenezer’ moment in the ministry of Africa University in 2022, marking 30 years of faithfulness, generosity, growth, and impact within and beyond The United Methodist Church.

Africa University thanks the Arkansas Conference for maintaining a strong investment in 2022. Local congregations graciously provided 84.74 percent of the conference’s share of general church giving to support the day-to-day operations of Africa University.

Supported Arkansas United Methodists and others across the denomination, Africa University embraced new opportunities as it emerged from pandemic-related restrictions in 2022.

- Enrollment: Africa University achieved a total enrollment at 2,791 students in August 2022. Female students comprised 58 percent of the student population and 23 African nations were represented.
- Academic Growth: Africa University launched its first new academic unit in almost twenty years—The School of Law—with a pioneer cohort of 20 students pursuing the Bachelor of Laws (Honors) (LLBS) degree program. The institution is currently implementing five new undergraduate and graduate programs approved by the Zimbabwe Council for Higher Education (ZIMCHE), the national accreditation and quality assurance agency.
- Infrastructure expansion: A new residence hall for female students at Africa University is under construction, funded by the East Ohio Conference’s $1.5 million Teach * Reach * Bless campaign. Once completed, it will boost the available on campus housing for students to around 1200 beds.
- Outcomes: 712 graduates from 18 African countries became Africa University alumni in June 2022. The university’s almost 11,000 graduates to date are making vital contributions as clergy, educators, agriculturalists, health professionals, entrepreneurs and innovators. Faculty and student research efforts to address endemic challenges such as malaria and tuberculosis, food insecurity and climate change are gaining continental attention and international support.

Africa University’s year-long 30th anniversary program culminated in October 2022 with a gathering of more than 3,000 people at its main campus in Mutare, Zimbabwe. Amidst the commemoration and joyful thanksgiving livestreamed to the world, the Rev. Dr. Peter Mageto was formally installed as the fifth vice chancellor (president) of the institution.

Mageto, a Kenyan and academician specializing in theological ethics, echoed the gratitude of the students, faculty, staff, trustees, and alumni of Africa University for the many answered prayers represented in the Africa University story. His inaugural address highlighted the optimism and commitment to purpose that are the foundation of the university’s unfolding vision.

Thank you, Arkansas Conference, for nurturing change leaders and building an enduring legacy through the ministry of Africa University. Let us continue to journey together—learning, leading, and serving God, all the time, everywhere.

Candler School of Theology

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Methodist value of ecumenical openness, enthusiastically welcoming students from more than 42 denominations, with nearly half of Master of Divinity students coming from the Wesleyan tradition, including United Methodist, African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Christian Methodist Episcopal, Wesleyan, Free Methodist, Church of the Nazarene, and others. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 417 from 16 countries and 33 states, and 43% persons of color. This diversity is a blessing, enriching our life together and providing a "learning laboratory" for ministry in the 21st century—ministry that cultivates community across difference, welcomes all to contribute and belong, and embodies Christ's love in and among us.

Candler offers six single degrees and ten dual degrees, most of which are available in hybrid or online formats so students can remain rooted in their home communities as they pursue their degrees. Our new hybrid Master of Divinity blending online classes and in-person intensives launches in Fall 2023, and our successful Doctor of Ministry—with its high 87% completion rate—is 90% online. Hybrid and online options are also available in the Master of Religious Leadership and the Master of Religion and Public Life programs. Plus, Candler's Teaching Parish program allows student pastors to earn contextual education credit as they serve their churches. We are excited that these flexible learning formats make a first-rate Candler education possible for even more people who are called to ministry.

EMORY

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid is a top priority for Candler. In 2021-2022, we awarded $7.3 million in scholarship support, with 100% of MDiv students receiving aid. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, MRL, and ThM students receive a scholarship covering at least 50% of tuition. MDiv students also complete a financial literacy program to strengthen their financial and budgeting skills and reduce debt.

Candler was recently honored as one of 16 theological schools to receive a "Pathways to Tomorrow" grant from Lilly Endowment Inc. The $5 million grant will support Candler in establishing a set of initiatives to create an interconnected continuum of offerings for the education of pastoral leaders. This will position Candler as a hub of theological learning with multiple entry points, including The Candler Foundry, our innovative program to make theological education accessible to the public, the United Methodist Course of Study, undergraduate classes, and a new venture, La Mesa Academy for Theological Studies. Set to launch in Fall 2023, La Mesa Academy will offer diplomas in pastoral leadership via a two-year hybrid program with courses in Spanish and English. An optional third year of study will be offered to those aspiring to continue to a graduate professional degree at Candler.

This year, we welcomed the Rev. Dr. Brett Opalinski as Assistant Dean of Methodist Studies, a position made available by the retirement of the Rev. Dr. Anne Burkholder. Brett is an elder in full connection in the Florida Annual Conference and most recently served for nine years as senior pastor of Christ Church United Methodist in Ft. Lauderdale. In addition to other pastoral appointments, he has held a variety of leadership roles in the Florida Conference, including chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry. He is deeply committed to working with students in discerning their call, spiritual formation, and guiding them through the commissioning and ordination process.

Candler's ability to fulfill our mission to provide the church with the faithful and creative leaders it needs depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this essential ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

Drew University Theological School

Drew educates and mentors pastors, preachers, deacons, activists, teachers, thought leaders, and change agents. In Fall 2022 Drew welcomed 77 new students, and as of February 2023 Drew has a total enrollment of 408 students. Many Drew students are just beginning their ministry, while others come to graduate theological education with substantial ministry experience. The latter reflects a growing trend among all theological schools in the United States and Canada. During 2022, Drew classes met on campus in Madison, New Jersey, but also some classes met exclusively online, while other met in hybrid fashion, i.e., partially online, partially in-person. This was also the case with chapel worship. This reflects both our ongoing emergence from the Covid-19 pandemic lockdown, but also Drew leaning into what it means to be a global school with a global student population. With 35% of students coming from 28 different countries Drew Theological School is truly global and diverse in theology, vocations, age, as well as racial, ethnic, national, and international identities. Drew's interdisciplinary degree programs foster out-of-the-box thinking, provide real-world apprenticeships, promotes adaptive leadership skills, and encourages innovation through a team-taught core courses reflecting the integration of the theological disciplines and practices characteristic of the life of faith. The faculty articulated shared values are infused across the teaching and learning at Drew: a commitment to anti-racism; gender and sexual-identity equality; eco-sustainability and environmental justice; and interfaith understanding and cooperation. The Theological School has seen an increase in United Methodist students. Moreover, Drew has many United Methodist Global Fellows who chose to pursue education for ministry at Drew. UMC graduates are serving in conferences across the United States as well as in our regional conferences in Greater New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, and New York Annual Conference.

Duke Divinity School

Duke Divinity School has been blessed to be part of the fresh work of the Holy Spirit this year and to participate in “little Pentecosts”—signs and foretastes of the hope we profess and the calling we follow. The school has continued in its commitment to form ministers of the gospel who will seek God’s justice and mercy. Our faculty have been leaders in the Duke Climate Initiative participating with colleagues from the Nicholas School for the Environment in the event “Pastoral Care for Climate Change: Weaving Together Science and Theology for Justice,” at the Duke University Marine Lab. Divinity faculty have also co-taught a university course titled “Let’s Talk about Climate Change,” and welcomed 30 young faith leaders from various religious traditions to understand better how to engage their faith communities in the fight for our climate.

The Office of Black Church Studies, commemorating its 50th anniversary year, hosted “Justice Ministry Reimagined: Reentry Simulation” for pastors, students, and lay leaders to learn more about how to support people reentering the community after incarceration. We launched the Prison Engagement Initiative with the Kenan Institute for Ethics. Divinity faculty taught a “Trauma Engaged Duke” seminar and led the team Developing Best Practices for Trauma-Informed Teaching and Learning. These programs and events complement the ongoing work of field education and ministerial formation that puts our students in contexts ranging from rural churches to hospital chaplaincy to farm ministry, and more.

We welcomed 226 entering students from 35 different states and eight other countries. The Master of Divinity program gained 88 residential students and 42 in the hybrid program. The Master of Arts in Christian Practice enrolled 13 new students; the Doctor of Ministry, 28; Master of Theology, six; Master of Theological Studies, 22; the Doctor of Theology welcomed six residential, and one special student has enrolled. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed four residential students and 16 in the hybrid program. Across all degree programs, 30 percent of the incoming class identified as a race or ethnicity other than white. Black students made up 18 percent of all students; Latinx students, six percent; Asian students, five percent; and American Indian students, one percent. Fifty-seven percent of students in the incoming class are female.

DDS continued to build on its rich tradition of ecumenical engagement, with Dean Colón-Emeric participating in the Methodist-Roman Catholic International Commission Dialogue meeting with Pope Francis at the Vatican. Student Eliza Love, M.Div.’23, was awarded the $10,000 Bossey Institute scholarship from the United Methodist Church Council of Bishops to attend the World Council of Church Ecumenical Institute.

Three new associate deans have accepted appointments: Daniel Castelo, William as associate dean for Academic Formation; Jung Choi as associate dean for Global and Intercultural Formation; and Sangwoo Kim as associate dean for Vocational Formation. Linda Coley has also joined as the executive director for the Ormond Center.

Several new programs demonstrate Duke’s sustained commitment to connecting with churches and ministers. The Ormond Center launched the Community Craft Collaborative to create resources for equipping lay and congregational leaders. The Certificate in Conflict Transformation and Reconciliation, facilitated by leading scholars and practitioners in the fields of conflict transformation and reconciliation, provides a learning opportunity for pastors and other church leaders seeking theological and practical skills to foster reconciliation in their congregations and surrounding communities. We celebrate the expansion of our connection to UMC colleges through a partnership with Wesleyan College in Macon, Ga., to enable qualified undergraduates to take courses through the Duke Accelerated Pastoral Formation Program.

Convocation & Pastors' School returned to an in-person format for the first time since 2019 with the theme, Creativity & Courage: From Trauma to Tough Hope. Professional dancers, visual artists, musicians, and scholars guided participants in facing brokenness and sin honestly, as they offered glimpses of "the beauty of holiness." NY Times Best Selling Author & Associate Professor of Christian History, Kate Bowler kicked off the event with a live taping of her Everything Happens podcast with over 1000 registered participants.

Duke Divinity School continues to be grateful for our ongoing participation in The United Methodist Church and partnership with this annual conference. To learn more about Duke Divinity School, please visit our website at www.divinity.duke.edu.

Hendrix College

"In religious and vocation programs combined with service learning, Hendrix continues to develop clergy and lay leaders for faithful service inside the church and beyond...helping students find meaningful vocations connected to who they are and how they want to serve in the world."

-Hendrix College Statement on Church Relatedness, adopted by the faculty and board of trustees in spring 2017

Vocational discernment, engaged learning, and academic excellence are some of the hallmarks of Hendrix College that have their roots in the Methodist value of uniting faith and knowledge. The College is proud to continue the vision set out by its founders over 140 years ago. Recognized widely as one of the best small colleges in the country, Hendrix expresses its appreciation to the Arkansas Conference for the support it gives to the programs and mission of this institution. As a United Methodist church-related college, the College embraces the freedom of the academy where students and faculty explore the boundaries of knowledge while setting a context for that exploration in an ethos that values growth of both the mind and the spirit. In this way we fulfill our mission to cultivate whole persons and to prepare our graduates for lives of accomplishment, integrity, service, and joy in their communities and in the world.

We are pleased to highlight some of the many ways that Hendrix College changes lives.

Ministry Exploration

In the summer of 2018, the Methodist Foundation for Arkansas generously granted Hendrix College funding for the Center for Calling and Christian Leadership, to focus more specifically on resources and experiences for young people ages 12 and up across the state of Arkansas who are discerning a call to professional ministry in the United Methodist Church. Rooted in the theological understanding that all Christians are called to ministry at their baptisms, the Center is committed to helping young leaders identify the role of ministry which best fits their sense of personal identity, passion for making disciples and creating a more just world, and both gifts and growing edges. Through worship leadership, orientation to ministry, spiritual formation, peer support, shadowing, internships, and service learning, young persons are mentored from the beginnings of that call into theological education and leadership in the church. Rev. Eva Englert-Jessen (Hendrix '12) directed this work from 2018 through October 2021, when she became the Director of Pastoral Care at Methodist Family Health. For the duration of the grant, the Chaplain's Office is directing the work, with Andrea Stitt (Hendrix '21) continuing as Intern for the programming of the Center. Three primary ways the Center is currently equipping young discerners in this season are:

- Exploring Ministry Together (EMT) sessions, offered weekly to college students throughout the school year, with hybrid format for ease of participation from various locations.
- Internships in local churches and non-profit ministry settings, matching exploring students with seasoned ministry leaders and opportunities for mentoring and discovery.
- Leadership and support for seminary trips with groups of other Arkansas UM students, or funding assistance for individual seminary visits.

Since September 2018, the Center for Calling and Christian Leadership has engaged with young people in these ways:

- Over 55 different college students (from 8 different colleges or Wesley Foundations across the state) and young adults have attended events hosted by the Center: seminary visits, service-learning trips, EMT gatherings and events, UMC Exploration, and as summer interns.
- The Fall 2022 Seminary Fair was attended by 35 students (and others from the surrounding area).
- 24 high school juniors and seniors attended the Hendrix Youth Institute (HYI) in 2019, and another 10 attended a virtual "Call and Respond" event in July 2020, which was offered because HYI 2020 was cancelled due to the pandemic. In 2021, HYI was in-person again, with 9 high school students participating. In 2022, eleven high school students participated in-person in a format where HYI students were together for a special "track" of Sr. High Assembly. The same format will be offered in 2023.

Ministry Exploration Programming at Hendrix:

- Since 2004, 61 Hendrix graduates have enrolled in seminary with 75% of these students attending UM seminaries.
- Six recent Hendrix alumni are currently in seminary.
- Of the 29 2022-2023 UMYF Leadership Scholars, 16 have expressed "maybe" or "yes" to the possibility of a call to ministry, with seven of them confident in that call. For students who are discerning ministry, the weekly EMT program is offered through the Center for Calling and Christian Leadership.
- In the Central District, 6 of the 9 Certified Candidates for Ministry are current or former students of Hendrix. Of the 7 candidates approved for commissioning at the June 2023 Annual Conference, 4 are from Hendrix.

Religious Life

- The UMYF Leadership Scholarship Program is completing its 28th year. Currently 29 students participate who will eventually join nearly 300 alumni from the program.
- These scholars form the core community on campus who participate in and lead weekly worship and communion, small groups for support and discipleship, retreats, and opportunities for fellowship and serving.
- More than 425 UM churches in all five districts have had Hendrix students assist with worship services in the past 28 years.

Church Relations

- United Methodist groups that the College has hosted for no rental fee include the Arkansas United Methodist Conference Historical Society, Board of Ordained Ministry, and various local and district meetings.
- The College also dedicates a display case in the Student Life and Technology Center to exhibit Methodist artifacts to remind the students, faculty, and staff of this historic connection.
- In 2023, Hendrix will host the Jr. & Sr. High Assemblies for the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries, "Mission u" for the Conference United Women in Faith, and Methodist youth groups from Texas who will be doing mission work in the area.

Continuing Education

- This year on campus, the College hosted Rev. Matt Rawle, Abingdon Press author and lead pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church in Bossier City, Louisiana, for the Willson Lecture "A Picture Is Never Bigger Than Its Frame ... Until It Is," and for the annual John and Marj em Gill Preaching Workshop. His topic was "Preaching in an Augmented Age."
- The College hosted author Rev. Britney Winn Lee for a liturgy workshop, "Finding Words for Worship," as well as a Willson Lecture, "How Contemplation and Action Fuel One Another."

Funding Received from Outside Sources for Religious Life and Ministry Support

- An endowed gift from the John Workman family for a summer internship in churches, non-profits, or journalism.
- An endowed gift from the Wilder family to establish an internship in churches and non-profit agencies.
- Grants from the Lilly Endowment (listed above) for United Methodist youth who are discerning a call to ministry and clergy who are 5-10 years out of seminary.
- A gift from the Methodist Foundation for Arkansas to create the Center for Calling and Christian Leadership (2018-2022).
- A grant from the Methodist Foundation for Arkansas for "Feed the World," a series of learning and serving opportunities for students to connect with leaders, ministries, and organizations addressing poverty, food insecurity, disaster relief, and other situations where there is deep hunger for care, hope, and partnership.

Financial Aid/Enrollment

- Identified as a "Best Value College" by US News and World Report, Hendrix College strives to offer students a private school education for the cost of a public school tuition price. Through the Tuition Advantage program, most Hendrix students won't pay more in tuition than the published rate of their home state flagship university.

- Even after our reduction in tuition which was implemented in 2021, the College provides more than $2.7 million in institutional aid to United Methodist students.
- For the 2022 calendar year, the College received $72,045.46 from the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, with 100% of the church apportionment going toward the Office of the Chaplain and the Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics, and Calling.

The relationship between Methodists and higher education is rooted in the historical teachings of John and Charles Wesley. Hendrix College values its relationship with the Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church and the opportunity to fulfill Wesley's vision to bring together intellectual curiosity, spiritual formation, knowledge, and vital piety. Your gifts go directly to provide programming for our UMYF Leadership Scholars, service-learning opportunities, ministry internships, and a wide range of religious life and discipleship opportunities. Leadership Scholars, service-learning opportunities, ministry internships, and a wide range of religious life and discipleship opportunities.

My first introduction to Hendrix was over 50 years ago thanks to the Annual Conference and summer Youth Assembly. I never dreamed then that my life's calling and vocation would lead me to where I am today. But as I prepare to retire this summer, I am ever grateful to the church and the college for the countless ways both have changed my life.

I am deeply grateful for the ways in which the United Methodist Churches of Arkansas continue to support Hendrix.

Memphis Theological Seminary

For nearly four decades, Memphis Theological Seminary has been a leading institution in the Mid-South producing graduates who are commissioned as elders or deacons in The United Methodist Church. United Methodist students continue to be the largest denomination represented at our school.

SCHOLARSHIP • PIETY • JUSTICE

Earlier this year, The University Senate approved MTS for listing for the preparation of candidates for ordination without qualification. We are proud to have met this standard. We work with intentionality to maintain it.

Like institutions of theological education across the country, enrollment for Master of Divinity students has declined. We are evaluating how best to stem the tide through the utilization of innovative strategies and solutions to keep theological education within reach for all women and men seeking to live out their call to ministry. Our current modalities are: in person; hybrid, in which students are present both in the classroom and online; synchronous online; asynchronous online; and monthly hybrid, where students work online except for one day of the month when they come to campus. While we continue to evaluate and adapt, we maintain the value and import of the on-campus experience in community with other students, and are seeking creative ways to achieve it while offering more online options. As in previous years, our Doctor of Ministry programs remain robust.

Wesleyan Studies at the Seminary

Memphis Theological Seminary is pleased to report that theological education for United Methodist students continues to remain vibrant and forward-looking. The Seminary completed the endowment of the Hamilton and Varnell Chair in Wesleyan Studies in November of 2019. This endowment was made possible by generous lead gifts from Mrs. Barbara Hamilton and the late Dr. Ralph Hamilton, as well as Mrs. Jeanne Varnell and the late Mr. Henry Varnell. The endowment ensures the future of Wesleyan Theological formation at MTS and supports the Methodist House of Studies at MTS.

After a long hiatus due to the pandemic, the MHOS is relaunching its work with Dr. Jonathan L. Jeffords as director, following in the footsteps of previous directors, Dr. Lee Ramsey and Dr. Michael Turner, both of whom were instrumental in its founding. Among the most immediate tasks of MHOS is to reconnect with current students from the pan-Methodist traditions, to resource and support them in their educational journeys while offering counsel to students in preparation for their work with Boards of Ordained Ministry. In the Spring 2023 semester, Dr. Jeffords taught the course “Dementia Through a Pastoral Theological Lens” in collaboration with former UMC Bishop Kenneth L. Carder. This course has attracted a wide range of students and auditors.

We are grateful for the support of the Arkansas Annual Conference and for the alums from the conference who faithfully serve the church today. With this report we remember MTS alum, the Rev. Dr. Autura Eason-Williams, in whose memory and by her example we seek to shape leaders centered in scholarship, piety, and justice.

We appreciate the confidence that the Conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for the Seminary. For information about the Methodist House of Studies and Memphis Theological Seminary, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org and check The Good News from MTS for regular updates.

Methodist Foundation for Arkansas

For the last 60 years, the Methodist Foundation for Arkansas has adapted to provide the quality service you have come to expect. Through all the markers used to determine success, the Foundation undoubtedly exceeded all of these in 2022. The total assets, the number of new accounts, the increase in new churches opening accounts, and a record year of grants have made for a very good 2022. You will see the numbers in this publication, but I hope you see the lives being changed. Through the local church, the Annual Conference, and grants made by the Foundation, the numbers do not mean anything if they don't represent how inspiring ministry continues and disciples are being made.

The Methodist Foundation for Arkansas

I appreciate all the ways individuals and local churches support our work. May we celebrate 2022 and look for new ways to grow as we celebrate the Foundation's 60th anniversary in 2023.

Blessings,

Rev. J. Wayne Clark, President & CEO

Assets

At the close of 2022, the Foundation's assets totaled $198.7 million, reflecting positive investment performance, as well as a significant number of new accounts. Based on total assets, The Methodist Foundation for Arkansas ranks sixth among the 51 Methodist Foundations nationwide, in grant awards, the Foundation leads the other 50 Foundations.

The Foundation's managed accounts, established by Arkansas Methodist churches or church members, generate money in perpetuity, returning earnings to church ministries year after year. Over $2.5 million was distributed in early January 2023 to Arkansas churches and Methodist-related charities from these accounts. These funds directly support children and youth ministries, scholarships, music programs, mission work, and building maintenance.

Seminary Scholarships

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Seminary Scholarship Fund, the Foundation hosted a dinner for our scholars and donors at Cypress Social in North Little Rock.

In 2000, the Seminary Scholarship Fund was established to ensure strong pastoral leadership for the future. These scholarships enable our best and brightest students to answer God's call and become pastors in our communities. Repayment for the scholarship is not a loan to be paid back, but "retired" through service under appointment by our Bishop, two years for every one year of scholarship assistance. This "paying it forward" approach has provided the Arkansas Annual Conference with creative and dedicated leadership from our Scholars.

The Methodist Foundation for Arkansas has always been passionate about providing excellent leadership for local congregations. In its sixty-year history, the Foundation has devoted efforts and finances to assist both clergy and laity with training and educational experiences with one focus, providing congregations, leaders, and pastors with the best opportunities to learn and expand knowledge and skills so that the Kingdom would grow in local communities throughout our Annual Conference.

To date, our 41 scholars have served a total of 359 years, in 108 appointments, in congregations, Wesley Foundations, The Methodist Foundation for Arkansas, and in Military Chaplaincy. This Fall 2022 semester, Arkansas Methodism has 6 Elders and 4 Deacons in full-time degree programs at six different United Methodist seminaries. The award for each scholarship is $22,000 annually for three years, the largest scholarship in the denomination.

The Hope Scholarship

In 2021, The Methodist Foundation for Arkansas announced a $200,000 planned gift that established The Hope Scholarship to benefit low-income undergraduate students in Arkansas. The Hope Scholarship awarded its first distribution of $150,000 to incoming and current undergraduate students starting in the Fall 2022 semester at seven Arkansas organizations administering the scholarship: Arkansas State University, Arkansas Tech University, Hendrix College, Philander Smith College, The University of Arkansas, The Dr. Charles W. Donaldson Scholars Academy, and The Oscar Washington, Jr., Educational Fund.

Grants

The Foundation's Board of Directors Grant Committee continued to dramatically impact the Methodist Church in Arkansas during 2022, awarding over $1.8 million among more than 500 grants, more than any other United Methodist Foundation. The Methodist Foundation for Arkansas has been blessed over the years with unrestricted gifts, and our staff and Grant Committee work diligently to be good stewards of these funds.

Grants were awarded in ten priority areas, including food insecurity, clergy and laity education, community health, education and employment, supporting our unhoused neighbors, clergy self-care, diversity, evangelism and discipleship, poverty and charity, and environmental causes. For the second year in a row, the Foundation's Grant Committee approved a $500 donation to every United Methodist church in Arkansas with a food ministry program in December 2022. Working with the Arkansas Annual Conference, the Foundation distributed over $100,000 to 205 churches in our state.

Planning a Legacy: How Faithful People Prepare

The Foundation is delighted to announce a new resource for local churches! Planning a Legacy is a holistic estate planning seminar that covers important matters for all adults.

This complimentary seminar includes basic information about wills, funeral and memorial services, end-of-life planning, and legacy gifts. The goal of the seminar is to inspire participants to take their next steps in their estate planning and to see it as a part of their legacy. For some, that may be an initial trip to an attorney; for others, it may be a follow up appointment, sharing their funeral plans with a loved one, or adding their church to their will.

The format is a 90-minute gathering with a meal, a presentation from the Foundation, and a Q&A with an attorney. Participants will receive a binder with helpful documents to reference and complete as they start or continue this process. The Foundation is pleased to reimburse churches for the meal and for childcare to be made available. Additionally, we created communication pieces for the local church to use when advertising the program, as well as follow-up with the participants.

As of March 2023, the Foundation's calendar is packed full of congregation visits for our Planning a Legacy seminar. We invite you to talk with the Foundation to schedule this 90-minute program at your church by contacting (501) 664-8632 or info@methodistfoundationAR.org.

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare

At Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare (MLH), our mission is to enhance your health and well-being through high-quality, innovative and compassionate care. We are a faith-based institution, proudly affiliated with the United Methodist Church since our founding more than 100 years ago, and our vision is to be nationally recognized for excellence in clinical quality, patient safety and compassionate care to improve every life we touch.

Today, MLH has grown from one hospital into a comprehensive health system offering a full continuum of care to every corner of our community, including five adult hospitals, nationally ranked Le Bonheur Children's Hospital, a home health agency, ambulatory surgery centers, outpatient facilities, hospice residence and more than 60 physician practices serving residents across the Mid-South. As Tennessee's largest provider of care to TennCare/Medicaid and uninsured patients, we are committed to living out our culture of providing care and compassion to all regardless of circumstances.

Reimagining Healthcare across the Mid-South

Leading MLH is our President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Ugwueke, MPA, DHA, FACHE. In 2022, as healthcare systems worked to recover from challenges brought on by the pandemic, MLH celebrated important milestones, formed transformative new partnerships and made significant advances in our mission to improve every life we touch. Under Dr. Ugwueke's leadership, MLH has become the safest and highest quality health system in the region and has been nationally recognized as a top leader for diversity.

Faith-Based Mission at Work

The faith-based mission of MLH continues to be at the heart of all that we do. Leading our Mission Integration Division is Senior Vice President and Chief of Staff Cato Johnson, who guides many of our faith-based and community-engagement programs. Those programs include our clinical chaplaincy services, volunteer services, the Employee Assistance Program and Dennis H. Jones Living Well Network, Clinical Pastoral Education, the Center of Excellence in Faith and Health Equity, the Humanitarian Fund, United Methodist annual conference connections, the Office of Community Outreach, the Congregational Health Network and many other initiatives and projects. Mission Integration offers guidance and direction for the integration of MLH's mission, vision, values and guiding behaviors, especially from the perspective of the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. Additionally, Mission Integration ensures that the relationship with the United Methodist Church and relevant social, ethical and pastoral teachings are understood and integrated appropriately and consistently across the entire system.

Responding to Community Need

In 2022, Mission Integration programs and associates continued their life-changing work in many different ways. Our chaplains offered spiritual care for patients, families and Associates and also responded to the wider community through a spiritual care helpline. The "My Sister's Keeper" program continued its work to empower and highlight the voices of Black women in our community on healthcare, leadership, advocacy and more. The Congregational Health Network and Office of Community Outreach helped distribute thousands of COVID-19 vaccines to the community at hospitals, clinics and pop-up sites, while also running community clinics, home visitation programs and school-based interventions. Our partnerships with local churches continued to be crucial, as leaders and congregations repeatedly used their voice to raise the profile of important education and awareness about everything from disease prevention to mental health to effective partnerships. Our Employee Assistance Program and Living Well Network responded directly to districts and pastors who sought support and education for how pastoral leaders could both care for their people and themselves in the midst of trying times. Our Foundation raised millions of dollars and worked closely with Mission Integration on many community-engagement projects and programs as well as on our MLH Humanitarian Fund, which distributes hundreds of thousands of dollars to MLH associates and their families in need of emergency assistance.

We are deeply appreciative of the support of the three annual conferences who founded our system and continue to be vital partners. The healing ministry of Christ continues to be at our center.

Ozark Mission Project

Ozark Mission Project (OMP) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit mission that serves across the state of Arkansas. We have been transforming lives and legacies through building projects since 1986. Our largest program, summer missions, aims to organize youth and community groups to engage in Arkansas communities by serving individuals and families, our neighbors, who are in need of minor construction repairs, wheelchair ramps, steps, painting and yard work. In addition to the physical service projects, we strive to meet social and emotional needs by spending part of our time visiting, sharing lunch and, if the neighbor so chooses, a devotional.

In recent years, OMP has seen an overwhelming need for urgent assistance to make our neighbors' homes more accessible. Because of this and our desire to partner with more groups willing to meet the needs of families across Arkansas, the board approved a part-time Community Development Coordinator position. This position will serve as a liaison to provide strategic leadership and tactical management to execute mission projects statewide and grow philanthropic support for Ozark Mission Project. The Community Development Coordinator, through outreach, will cultivate relationships with agencies, churches, businesses, schools, and other nonprofits to create and sustain a robust pipeline of volunteer groups willing to sponsor projects year-round through hands-on mission work and financial support.

The city of North Little Rock awarded OMP with a $200,000 in grant funding to be used for contracted work to replace roofs within the city limits. With this funding, OMP created the Community Cares Program. Not only was the work done in North Little Rock neighborhoods, but North Little Rock licensed businesses were sourced for labor and materials, keeping the money turning over again and again in that community. To date, OMP has replaced 18 roofs and completed several other small projects with that grant funding.

In addition to the regular OMP summer mission season where 9 mission weeks will serve 30 counties in Arkansas, there will be two OMP 101 weeks for elementary-aged students. Last summer, OMP 101 partnered with many other local nonprofits to benefit Northwest and Central Arkansas. Included in our partner nonprofits were Mount Eagle, Methodist Family Health, the Northwest Arkansas Food Bank, the Northwest Arkansas Children's Shelter, Havenwood and Community Connections.

Ozark Mission Project's staff and leadership would like to thank the many churches, community partners and individuals who support this ministry. It is through their generous donations of time, resources and forward visioning that OMP is able to connect with and provide a bright spot, however small, to so many of our Arkansas neighbors.

Respectfully,
Bailey Faulkner, Executive Director

Philander Smith College

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, and students at Philander Smith College (PSC), I greet each of you as you gather for the 2023 Arkansas Annual Conference. I also wish to offer my sincerest appreciation for your consistent support in our quest “to graduate academically accomplished students, grounded as advocates for social justice, determined to change the world for the better.”

Introduction

Our unrelenting pursuit of excellence at Philander Smith College (PSC) is motivated by our big dreams and fueled by our rich legacy. For more than 145 years, Dear PSC has stood as a beacon of hope, a source of inspiration, and a place of many possibilities. In the last eight years, we have indeed moved Philander Forward by challenging ourselves to think differently and creatively about our future. At all levels, we have remained focused on a thriving Community of Scholars that would restore PSC’s rightful place as an institution celebrating national prominence and international acclaim. This journey has included our Board’s pivot to becoming a consequential board; our community’s unwavering commitment to transforming the living, learning, and working culture at PSC; and our students embracing the clarion call to become academically accomplished scholars grounded in the principles of social justice. We have celebrated record breaking enrollment gains and unprecedented debt forgiveness, as well as survived a worldwide public health pandemic that challenged the very core of our business model. While this work has not been without uncertainty, its rewards far outweigh the difficulties that are directly associated with fulfilling our critical mission.

In addition to continuing our visionary journey, we have been hard at work realizing new opportunities for success. In Summer 2022, I had the pleasure of traveling to London, England, the United Kingdom with our immediate past Board Chair, Dr. Sherece West-Scantlebury, for the 150th Anniversary of Southlands College, one of our Sister Institutions. During this trip, we deepened our understanding of Global Methodism and initiated new partnerships that will create life-changing study abroad experiences for our students, as well as international externships for our faculty. Closer to home, we paused to honor several stalwart advocates who have committed themselves to advancing our deeply rooted justice-charged mission. In December 2022, we were able to do just that as we honored Bishop Gary Mueller who retired as the Arkansas Area Bishop of the United Methodist Church on December 31, 2022. Bishop Mueller’s terrific support was evident to me from the very start of my tenure. His steady hand of leadership, his responsiveness to emerging issues, and his advocacy for church-affiliated Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) are but a few examples of his significance and commitment to our Forward Movement. Thus, the opportunity to honor him with the Ozell Sutton Medal of Justice and publicly extend our appreciation was, indeed, a privilege that will remain a dear memory to me. As Bishop Mueller enjoys his journey through retirement, we are thrilled to welcome Bishop Laura Merrill! We were pleased to have Bishop Merrill join us for several events during the 2023 Religious Emphasis Week and we look forward to celebrating an excellent relationship with Bishop Merrill as we work collaboratively to Move Philander Forward.

I am pleased to provide this report to the Arkansas Annual Conference as it convenes for its 2023 Meeting. This report will focus on our work from March 1, 2022 – February 28, 2023.

Priorities for United Methodist Conference Funding

Financial support from the United Methodist Church continues to positively impact the College's activities and programs offered through the Office of Religious Life and Campus Culture (ORLCC). The ORLCC offers a wide variety of programs and services to engage the entire PSC Community of Scholars, including students, faculty, and staff.

The Annual Religious Emphasis Week, which serves as the College's week-long spiritual revival, was hosted February 18-23, 2023. Guided by the theme Rekindle the Flame: Reigniting our Passion for God, this year's activities included spiritual development workshops, a special gospel concert, a seminary fair, several chapels, and a special Ash Wednesday Chapel, which featured Bishop Merrill as the guest speaker. The week-long celebration culminated with its signature event, the 16th Annual Living Legends Banquet. The 2023 Living Legends Banquet, which welcomed a sold-out audience, honored seven (7) outstanding individuals for their work and service in impacting the Greater Little Rock and Philander Smith College Communities. Honorees for 2023 included:

- Ms. Kai Wright, Current PSC Student and Immediate Past Student Government Association President
- Mr. Jason Muka, Current PSC Student and White House Initiative HBCU Competitiveness Scholar
- Ms. Bertha Owen, Member of the PSC Staff
- Dr. Lia Steele, Member of the PSC Faculty
- Mrs. Brenda Granger, PSC Alumna and Faithful Supporter
- Dr. Joe Hargrove, Community Leader
- Bishop Jewel R. Withers, Sr., Community Leader

In addition to general programming through the Office of Religious Life and Campus Culture, funding received from the United Methodist Church also supports the following priorities:

- 1. Philander Smith College Campus Culture Transformative Initiative (CCTI) Launched in 2016, the Philander Smith College Campus Culture Initiative seeks to transform the College's culture by addressing the attitudes, decisions, practices, behaviors and standards of alumni, faculty, staff, administrators and students that, taken together, constitute the learning, living and working environment of Philander Smith College. The CCTI focuses on the following:

- Modeling Christ-Like Values and Principles
- The Evolution of the Philander Man and the Philander Woman
- Creating a Servant Leadership and Discipleship Model
- The Urbanization of Spirituality in a 21st Century Liberal Arts Environment • Developing a PSC Ambassadors Program

- 2. Scholarships for Students

Through this funding, PSC strives to create a diverse pool of scholarship opportunities that will not only be awarded to students based on academic merit and need, but also on "potential" for civic and community leadership and engagement, as well as the potential of one's interest in entering the Christian Ministry. The Christian Scholars Track within the S.T.A.R.T. Summer Bridge Program continues to be one of the program's most popular tracks, attracting students from a broad spectrum of backgrounds and experiences. Along with providing academic opportunities, the Christian Scholars Track serves as a dedicated pipeline to engage students who are interested in further developing their spiritual gifts and expanding individual understanding of one's vocation as ministry.

- 3. Ongoing Support of Religious Life Activities

- The Office of Religious Life

- Salaries & Benefits
- Weekly Chapel Services
- Student Participation in United Methodist Church Conferences
- Religious Emphasis Week Activities
- Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week
- Health Services / Community Outreach
 - Community Health Fairs
 - Domestic Violence Seminars
- Other
 - Dollars-for-Scholars Program
 - In-Kind Facility Usage
 - Bless the Mic Lecture Series
 - Baccalaureate Service

Philander FORWARD >>>Key Institutional Successes:

Throughout the 2022 calendar year, I had the great privilege to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer during the College's 145 Anniversary Celebration. These activities brought alums and friends from near and far to honor Dear PSC's rich history and celebrate her enduring legacy. The highlight reel from our year-long celebration includes many successes and fond memories, showcasing the special experience that is Philander Smith College. From our 145th Anniversary Founder's Day to record-breaking fundraising at the 145th Anniversary President's Scholarship Gala, we reached new heights of excellence that will be celebrated for years to come. I extend my sincerest appreciation to Dr. Charles Donaldson, PSC Alumnus and Trustee Emeritus, for his leadership as Chair of the 145th Anniversary Committee as well as to all who had a part – big or small – in making our commemoration a success. The following highlights represent key institutional successes from March 2022 – February 2023:

- The Campus Culture Transformation Taskforce has continued to implement training activities and to host small group discussions under the Love-Based Culture Initiative. The love-based culture framework has proven to be popular among faculty, staff, and students alike.
- In keeping with its tradition of providing critical support for students with unmet financial needs, the Dollars for Scholars Program will support nine scholars at Philander Smith College for the 2022-2023 Academic Year.
- Philander Smith College recently signed a Memorandum of Agreement with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). This partnership is designed to position the FBI as a valuable community ally and partner, as well as strengthen the research and service components in the College's academic programs.
- Philander Smith College's new Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) Program was approved by the Office of Long-Term Care within the Arkansas Department of Human Services. Additionally, the Arkansas State Board of Nursing approved PSC's applications for the Licensed Practical Nursing Program (LPN), Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN), and Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN). This approval allows PSC to begin the feasibility study portion of the approval process and is a significant step in the development of nursing programs at the College.
- As part of our engagement in the Thriving in Ministry Initiative, several of PSC's faculty and staff members recently participated in and completed a special summer institute. Philander Smith's engagement with this Initiative, which is supported by The Lily Endowment, results from a multi-year grant awarded to the College to focus on local clergy and small faith communities in Central Arkansas.
- The PSC Second Chance Pell Program admitted its first cohort of students from the Tucker Correctional Unit and the East Arkansas Regional Unit. PSC was approved as a new experimental site for the program through the U.S. Department of Education.

- The PSC Panther Pantry was awarded new resources totaling $32,500. These funds will be used to expand the Pantry's services, as well as address special diets (e.g., vegan, vegetarian, diabetic, etc.). The PSC Panther Pantry is also set to launch a new program to expand the PSC Cares Initiative. This program, which will begin in March 2023, will provide delivery services to those lacking transportation and facing food insecurity in the communities surrounding the College.
- The United Negro College Fund (UNCF) awarded Philander Smith College a $1 million grant in October 2022 to support institutional transformation. These dollars will be used in part to help continue the improvement within the Development Office and overall fundraising capacity.
- The 7th Annual President's Scholarship Gala was a record-breaking success. With a goal of $500,000, final results indicated that more than $1.3 million was raised during the event with an aggregate fundraising result exceeding $3 million in support of student scholarships.
- Philander Smith College's first graduate program, the Master of Business Administration (MBA), began accepting applications on February 15, 2023. The program will begin classes in Summer 2023.
- The College was awarded an Institutional Saga and Mission Grant by the Council of Independent Colleges in December 2022 to support the creation of a comprehensive publication that tells the full story of Philander Smith College that weaves together the importance of faith and justice to the fabric of the institution.

From a Vision to Reality: The Dr. Joycelyn Elders School of Allied and Public Health

In 2015, we cast a vision to establish a new school in honor of our beloved alumna, Dr. Joycelyn Elders – the first African American Surgeon General in the United States of America. In our vision, this school would offer world-class learning opportunities to meet the growing demand for healthcare and allied health professionals in Central Arkansas and beyond. I am very pleased to report an overwhelming completion of our Phase I fundraising, which, to date, has garnered more than $9.5 million in support. This includes a $2 million grant from the Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church, significant support from the TAWANI Foundation, and a transformational grant from the Arkansas Department of Health – to name a few. Funds raised through Phase I will provide resources for the renovation and expansion of existing laboratory, research, and clinical spaces located within the Kendall Center. The dedication and commitment of our Advisory Committee, along with that of the Office of Institutional Advancement, have certainly demonstrated a significant return on investment. As we prepare for the next phase of this project, I remain encouraged by our progress and hopeful for what the future holds.

Conclusion

This station on our journey has provided evidence that reinforces our institutional resilience and the power of our collective faith. I do not believe that we have arrived at this point by happenstance. Rather, I believe that this moment has been shaped by the unrelenting will of our students in their quest for a quality education; by the uncompromising dedication of our faculty in their duty to facilitate meaningful learning and academic excellence; by the unwavering leadership of our Executive Cabinet in addressing the administrative needs of the institution; and by the unyielding courage of our Board of Trustees that has remained faithful in its pursuit of a consequential agenda to strengthen Philander Smith College. As our story of resilience and faith advances, we must remain encouraged, stay the course, and persistent in our quest. We have clearly articulated our bold vision in the College's 10-Year Long-Range Strategic Plan, which will continue to guide us to a prosperous and sustainable tomorrow.

I believe that we have made significant progress in advancing our Forward Agenda, and I am yet committed to our future-focused direction. With your support, we have dreamed and labored to bring many aspects of our vision to reality. We have been resolved in our faith. We have remained unrelenting in our prayers during times of challenge and unashamed in our rejoicing in times of great joy. We have created a collective movement that honors our past while supporting new pathways to prepare us for transformational impact for generations to come. Inarguably, evidence has documented our success and points to a brighter, more prosperous future for our Dear PSC. Our audaciousness has created many opportunities, unique partnerships, and nationwide collaborations, propelling us to new heights of excellence. Our Forward Movement has been purposeful and ordained, while our collective efforts and dedication to this life changing ministry have provided all that we need to reach our goals. Through it all, we have remained steady in our faith, trusting and believing in the power of God's Grace and His unfailing plans for Dear PSC. Thank you for your enduring support as we continue to pursue our calling to Move Philander Forward!

Saint Paul School of Theology

Educating tomorrow's leaders by offering on-campus, online, and hybrid learning courses at a FLEXible schedule, Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary serving a diverse community committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry through rigorous academic life. Grounded in the academic study of faith and ministry, theology is practiced in a traditional classroom and in remote spaces. Our contextual curriculum features Ministry Collaboration Groups, Practicums, Spiritual Formation Retreats, and Seminars. Students learn from dedicated faculty, experienced pastors, and community leaders about best ministry practices leaving our graduates with the tools and first-hand experience necessary to meet the needs of a changing world.

We continue to implement the changes the last few years have integrated into our daily lives. Our weekly chapel service utilizes a hybrid format, where participants may join in-person or online, allowing staff and students to come together as one institution where all are invited to create a sacred atmosphere from wherever they are. In addition, Saint Paul offers weekly Spiritual Formation allowing students to engage in spiritual practices led by Rev. Jen Logsdon-Kellogg. Some practices will take us outdoors or to other sacred spaces, and others will have us connect with community leaders.

Saint Paul welcomed over 30 new students for the 2022-2023 academic year. Enrollment remained solid for the Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree program with promising growth on our Oklahoma campus. With COVID-19 restrictions lifted yet monitored, prospective students returned to in-person visits on both campuses, experiencing community meals, worship, and the newly implemented "Hammock ministry" on the Oklahoma campus. The Admissions team continues to expand travel to meet new students, including the Carolinas, Washington, D.C., and various parts of Texas.

This year we have focused on strengthening the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry by creating two specializations: Women, Society, and Church; and Social Justice and Advocacy. In each case, the student takes 22 hours of MACM required courses, and then the remaining 12 hours of the degree are comprised of courses focusing upon the specialization. The two existing specializations, Prophetic Witness and Service; and Deacon Ministries, will continue to be offered as well. The Women, Society, and Church Studies specialization is also available in the MDiv program, as is a specialization in Wesleyan Studies.

Saint Paul staff and faculty continue contributing to the academy, church, and society. This year, we welcomed Rev. Dr. Sharon Betsworth as our new Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean and Professor of New Testament. The faculty of Saint Paul School of Theology maintains high standards of scholarship, research, publication, and engagement. Over the past year, their many activities and publications have been so numerous that space permits only sharing selected highlights.

- Rev. Dr. Sharon Betsworth co-authored a journal article with Julie Faith Parker, "'Where Have All the Young Girls Gone?' Discovering the Girls of the Bible through Childist Analysis of Exodus 2 and Mark 5–7," in Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion 38, no. 2 (Fall 2022).
- Dr. Casey Sigmon, Assistant Professor of Preaching and Worship and Director of Contextual Education, was the keynote speaker for the United Methodist Church Missouri Preaching Academy "Offering the Word to a Digital World." She published "Failure to Discern the Online/Hybrid Body: A Captivity of the Eucharist" for the special issue of Currents in Theology and Mission: Eucharist and Online Worship: Toward Extended Theological Reflection, vol. 50, no. 1 (2023) and published the chapter "Liturgical Authority and the Table in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)" in Liturgical Authority in Free Church Traditions, edited by Sarah Johnson and Andrew Wymer, Calvin Worship and Witness Series.
- Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, Assistant Professor of Ethics, Church, and Society, led a "Race, Liberation, and Political Economics" series at Second Presbyterian. He also spoke at The Open Table KC on "Race, Liberation, and Economics."
- Dr. Amy Oden, Adjunct Professor of Early Church History and Spirituality, was a guest speaker at numerous events around the country this year, including at a Five Day Academy for Spiritual Formation in Oklahoma, the Beyond Conference in St. Louis, and the Academy for Spiritual Formation in Alabama.

In October, Saint Paul hosted a forum on "Innovative, Creative Ministry" featuring alumni Matt Austin '18, Fabian Gonzalez '20, Bo Ireland '18, Matt Patrick '18, & Abby Peper '22, with each sharing their personal stories of innovation in ministry. In November, Saint Paul Evangelical Society, led by Dr. Israel Kamudzandu, hosted a forum given by Rev. Mike Slaughter, former lead pastor at Ginghamburg Church, on "Spiritual Awakening: the here and the not yet." Later in the year, the Evangelical Society hosted a lecture featuring Dr. Cheryl Bridges Johns, Visiting Professor of Pentecostal Studies and Director of the Global Pentecostal House of Study at United Theological Seminary. And on May 12, Saint Paul again held a hybrid commencement celebration via Zoom, allowing graduates to come together from both campuses with attendees viewing from around the country. During the ceremony, we honored the 2023 Distinguished Graduate Award Winner and Commencement Speaker Bishop Delores J. "Dee" Williamston.

Saint Paul Board of Trustees changed leadership this year as long-time faculty and board member Rev. Dr. Tex Sample concluded his term as chair of the Board. Dr. Amy Hogan, Professor of Education and Dean of the School of Education at Ottawa University, has succeeded him as chair. Dr. Hogan possesses a deep reservoir of experience in teaching, research, and accreditation. In response to President Neil Blair's announcement that he will retire on December 31, 2023, Dr. Hogan appointed a search committee composed of faculty, staff, students, and trustees charged with identifying Saint Paul's next president. The search committee is currently conferring with Saint Paul's constituent groups to prepare the position prospectus that will describe Saint Paul's needs and aspirations to candidates.

In September 2022, Saint Paul School of Theology hosted a review team from the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), one of Saint Paul's primary accreditation agencies, as part of the Seminary's regular reaffirmation cycle. On November 18, 2022, the Higher Learning Commission notified Saint Paul that the Commission "continued the accreditation of Saint Paul School of Theology with the next Reaffirmation of Accreditation in 2028-2029." The Seminary's Board of Trustees also devoted considerable time to improving its governance capacity. For example, in April 2022, trustees invested a significant portion of their meeting in a facilitated Emotional Intelligence and Trust-Building workshop. The workshop was led by Gail Parker, a noted management consultant who has worked with clients such as KPMG, Goldman Sachs, and Disney, among many others. In October 2022, former executive director of the Association of Theological Schools, Dan Aleshire, offered an overview of demographic and enrollment trends in the nation's seminaries, focusing on how those trends affect institutions' diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives. As these activities suggest, the Board remains deeply committed to enhancing its capabilities to guide Saint Paul effectively and knowledgeably.

We are happy to report that Saint Paul School of Theology is financially sound. We operate with a balanced budget, no debt, and an endowment 9-10 times the size of our annual expenses. As always, we continue to be grateful for donations from the community that provide technology, scholarships, and evolving academic programs to students. As of the close of 2022, over one hundred alumni and friends of Saint Paul contributed more than $60,000 to create the Tex and Peggy Sample Endowed Scholarship Fund honoring the life and work of Tex and Peggy Sample. Sustainability has been our focus over the past five years, and we have achieved our goal. Investments in our future bring exciting new opportunities for our students, staff, and faculty. Our significant technological investments have allowed us to maintain a hybrid educational delivery model providing a flexible working arrangement for our students.

We are continuing to enhance our partnership with Zoom and Neat. Late last Spring, in conjunction with our Neat Board electronic whiteboards and Neat Bars, we implemented Neat's newest product, their Neat Bar Pros, in our large classrooms. These new bars are designed to offer a superior video and audio experience in large spaces and the ability to output to multiple large screens to enhance the overall classroom experience significantly. We have rolled out additional Zoom Room Neat Boards in numerous common areas to encourage ad-hoc use of the technology for breakout groups and other miscellaneous meetings between our two campuses and remote students. One of the best features of this technology is its ability to receive automatic real-time over-the-air features upgrades. Several significant enhancements have rolled out this past year, including improved voice cancellation, Zoom Room Breakout Groups, real-time Closed Captions with transcripts, and updated use of AI to split each in-classroom student into their individual zoomed-in Zoom window. In addition, our Neat equipment continuously monitors several environmental factors within our classrooms; air quality, temperature, humidity, VOC, and CO₂, as well as being able to tell if the classrooms are occupied and how many individuals are in the room. We can also monitor the audio/video quality and network connectivity in each of our classrooms, as well as the connection quality for all remote students attending the class. We are excited about the additional enhancements that will come to our classrooms from Neat and Zoom over this next year and look forward to our continued partnership with Neat and Zoom on this groundbreaking technology.

Saint Paul School of Theology is blessed to be your partner in ministry and help those seeking to discover more and answer the call. We are grateful for your support of our students and our seminary. May we continue to live into the call of Jesus Christ to be faithful witnesses for generations to come.

President Neil Blair, Saint Paul trustees, faculty, staff, alumni, and students thank you for your prayers and support.

Southern Methodist University

Southern Methodist University (SMU) has served as a nonsectarian institution of higher learning since its founding in 1911 by the citizens of Dallas and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. SMU's mission is to expand knowledge through research and teaching and to serve as an igniter and facilitator of growth in Dallas and North Texas. With continued Methodist representation on the Board of Trustees and by welcoming students of all faiths, SMU is reaching a higher level of accomplishment and global recognition in our second century of shaping world changers. Consistent with the University's appreciation of our Wesleyan heritage, SMU voluntarily submits this report to the Arkansas Annual Conference.

Students, faculty, and staff

Each year SMU continues to attract more academically qualified and diverse students. The 1,639 students of the Class of 2026 entered with the highest grade-point average (3.71) of any previous first-year class. Equally important, nearly a third of these incoming students (32%) identified as being from an underrepresented background. Just over 100 of these new Mustangs had their tuition fully met through SMU's scholarship for high-achieving Texas students who are eligible for federal Pell grants. Most of them (59%) come to Dallas from other states, 38% are homegrown Texans and 3% are international students.

As our incoming students reach new heights of academic excellence, research by our faculty members, graduate students, and even undergraduates benefits our region and the world around us. SMU remains committed to our goal of becoming a Research One (R1) institution in the Carnegie Classification system, which will further elevate our national rankings and reputation.

Rankings

SMU continues to receive strong recognition and high rankings among prestigious reviewers, including:

- Top 20% best national universities by U.S. News & World Report (2023). Also cited among the Top Performers on Social Mobility and Best Colleges for Veterans and Best Value Schools (2023).
- Top 12% (No. 94 out of 796) of U.S. public and private universities by the Wall Street Journal/Times Higher Education (2022).
- One of the nation's best institutions for undergraduate education by The Princeton Review's The Best 388 Colleges and among its 2023 Best Colleges: Region by Region.
- Top 5% best nationwide colleges (91 out of 2,241) by College Factual (2023). Also, SMU alumni ranked among the top 10% in pay for graduates across a range of fields.
- SMU's Perkins Chapel at No. 16 out of 35 of the nation's most beautiful college churches and chapels by College Rank.
- "Higher research activity" as classified by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

Capital campaign and research funding

Momentum is growing as the University moves into the second year of the comprehensive campaign SMU Ignited: Boldly Shaping Tomorrow. As of March 1, 2023, donors have contributed over $991 million to this multiyear $1.5 billion campaign to attract and support outstanding students and faculty, explore new fields and cutting-edge technologies, and positively impact Dallas and the world beyond.

In fiscal year 2023, SMU received nearly $46 million in external funding for domestic and global research. Current funding agencies include the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, U.S. Department of Education, U.S. Department of Energy, Google, and Toyota USA Foundation.

Perkins School of Theology

After six and a half years of service, Craig Hill retired as dean of the Perkins School of Theology on December 31, 2022, but is continuing as a member of the faculty until December 31, 2023. We are pleased to have Bishop Michael McKee '78 serving as interim dean until a successor is brought aboard.

The Caren and Vin Prothro Organ project is fully funded. The 1927 Skinner organ has been restored, and installation of this rare instrument in our Perkins Chapel should be completed by November 2023.

SMU remains grateful for the enduring work of our Perkins School of Theology in the instruction and training of clergy for all Wesleyan traditions and other denominations. We ask for your prayers and continued support as we strive to further our mission to make a positive impact on the world around us.

Warm regards,

R. Gerald Turner, President, Southern Methodist University

Enrollment Update

Enrollment at Perkins for the 2022-23 academic year totaled 257 students. The hybrid Houston-Galveston Extension Program, in its fifth year of providing a combination of online and residential classes leading to the M.Div. and M.A.M. degrees, totaled 96 students during the 2022-23 academic year.

Institutional Highlights

- Craig C. Hill, who became the 11th dean of Perkins School of Theology in July 2016, retired as dean December 31, 2022, due to medical reasons. Hill, the Leighton K. Farrell Endowed Dean and Professor of New Testament, will remain a member of the Perkins faculty until December 31, 2023. During his years at Perkins, he led a thorough study and reorganization of the Office of Enrollment Management, doubling new student enrollment from 2016-17 to 2019-20. Under his leadership, financial aid to students increased by 50 percent. He also reinvigorated the Houston-Galveston extension site as a hybrid program. Hill broadened academic offerings to include the development of the Baptist House of Studies, the Black/Africana Studies and a healthcare chaplaincy program.

- Bishop Michael McKee began his service as Dean of Perkins School of Theology ad interim effective January 1, 2023. He will serve until a permanent dean has been named. Bishop McKee previously served as episcopal leader of the North Texas Annual Conference since his election by the South Central Jurisdiction in 2012, from which he retired on January 1, 2023. As interim dean, he will provide leadership development with students and alumni and, at a time of particular challenge within the Methodist denomination, will further strengthen SMU's ties with donors, congregations and institutions within our region as well as nationally.
- The inaugural William J. Abraham Memorial Lecture took place Oct. 17 in Perkins Chapel, with Dr. Fred Aquino delivering the lecture and a reception following in the Blue Room in Bridwell Library. Bridwell Library (SMU Libraries) and Perkins School of Theology established the annual Memorial Lecture to bring a scholar to the SMU campus each year to engage in a topic related to Abraham's work of the scholar's choosing. Dr. Abraham, 73, died suddenly in October 2021. He was the Albert Cook Outler Professor of Wesley Studies at Perkins from 1995 until his retirement in May 2021.
- Bishop Ruben Saenz Jr. (M.Div. '97; D.Min. '09) was honored as the 2022 recipient of the Perkins Distinguished Alumnus/a Award. Saenz, a native of south Texas and lifelong United Methodist, was elected bishop in 2016 at the South Central Jurisdictional Conference. He currently serves as episcopal leader of the North Texas and Central Texas annual conferences. The banquet, which took place Nov. 14, also recognized the 2021 Award recipient, Evelyn Parker, and the 2020 Award recipients, the Rev. Donald W. Underwood and the Rev. Dr. Sidney G. Hall, III.
- Eight congregations were selected for the second cohort of the Lilly Endowment-funded Testimony HQ initiative to develop thriving congregations through the practice of testimony as community engagement. These congregations were selected from applications submitted from churches within a 350-mile radius of Dallas. The cohort congregations will each receive up to $5,000 in grant funding to support their Testimony HQ work from January through December 2023. The following year, in 2024, each of these churches will mentor a church selected to participate in the third cohort.
- An anonymous donor gifted to Perkins and Bridwell Library a Heritage Edition of the St. John's Bible. Only 299 copies are being produced, with only a few copies in the State of Texas. Renowned calligrapher Donald Jackson produced the hand-written, hand-illuminated Bible. The volumes are bound – by hand –in a single piece of Italian calfskin leather and adorned with a solid silver clasp. The headbands are handsewn in Pakistan. Each volume is numbered and initialed by Donald Jackson and protected in a burgundy clamshell box.
- Perkins is continuing its curriculum review process, chaired by Dr. Rebekah Miles, as it seeks refinement in its degree programs that will enhance flexibility for students while also providing opportunities to engage with the school's degree concentrations. We hope to implement the revised curriculum beginning Fall 2024.
- Following a formal campus visit by a seven-member review committee in September, the University Senate of the General Board for Higher Education and Ministry provided SMU and Perkins School of Theology a positive recommendation with regard to institutional integrity, well-structured programs, sound management and clearly defined church relationships. This review process takes place once every 10 years.
- Dr. Rebekah Miles and Dr. Ted Campbell were formally installed as the holders of two endowed chairs: Miles as the Susanna Wesley Centennial Professor of Practical Theology and Ethics and Campbell as the Albert Cook Outler Professor of Wesley Studies. Not only do the two chairs involve professorial positions, but the new chairholders also received an engraved desk chair as part of the formal installation ceremony. Miles and Campbell also each delivered a lecture on a topic of their choosing as part of the installation.
- Dr. Bruce Marshall, Lehman Professor of Christian Doctrine, was awarded the 2023 Altshuler

Distinguished Teaching Award. Bestowed annually since 2001, the award recognizes four SMU faculty members for their notable commitment to and achievements in fostering student learning. These are teachers whose concerns for higher education go beyond classroom boundaries and often the boundaries of their own disciplines. In student mentoring, in discussions about teaching, and in continuous reflection about their own successes and ways to improve, they represent the highest achievement in reaching the goals of higher education.

- Rev. Dr. Elias H. Lopez (M.Div. '10, D.Min. '18) joined the faculty and staff as Associate Director of the Intern Program. Dr. Lopez brings a strong background in pastoral care and theology to this position. Prior to Perkins, he served as Director of Pastoral Care at Methodist Health System in Dallas, leading a team of 36 chaplains in providing spiritual support to the entire healthcare system.
- We are saddened to announce the death of Kenneth Hart, Professor Emeritus of Sacred Music and former Director of the Sacred Music program from 1987 to 2005. Among his scholarship, he wrote and published the 2014 volume titled A Day for Dancing: The Life and Music of Lloyd Pfautsch.

The highlights listed above are reflective of the vibrant engagement of Perkins faculty, staff and students. Our mission is to equip persons for faithful leadership and Christian ministry in a changing church and society; to educate those seeking a deeper understanding of the Christian faith; and to strengthen the church, academy, and world through service, scholarship, and advocacy. We thank our many colleagues, friends and alumni in the Arkansas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church for your generous support, including referrals of prospective students.

Grace and peace,
Bishop Michael McKee
Leighton K. Farrell Endowed Dean, ad interim

Rebecca W. Boggan April 25, 1955 - Oct. 18, 2022

For the Rev. Rebecca Walker Boggan, Christian theology came with a melody, and sometimes you could even dance to it.

The United Methodist deacon, who helped shape music ministry across the Arkansas Conference, died Oct. 18, 2022, in Little Rock, Arkansas. She was 67 and for the past two years had suffered from cerebral amyloid angiopathy, an incurable disease.

She is immediately preceded in death by her husband of 43 years and frequent ministry partner, Rev. Kurt Boggan. He died on July 20, also at the age of 67.

Born on April 25, 1955, in Abilene, Texas, she met her future husband when the two were students at Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology in Dallas. She eventually earned master's degrees in sacred music and vocal performance. She also taught music in Dallas during Kurt Boggan's last year of seminary. The two wed in 1979.

The couple returned to Kurt Boggan's native Arkansas, where they began raising a family. She served alongside her husband as he took on pastoral appointments in United Methodist churches across the state. In the 1990s, she followed her own call to ordained ministry becoming a deacon in 2000.

She served as an associate pastor alongside her husband at Highland Valley United Methodist Church in Little Rock. She then served as a deacon at Cornerstone in Jonesboro, Bryant First, Little Rock First, Springdale First, and finally alongside her husband again at Bentonville First.

In The United Methodist Church, deacons are called to the ministry of the Word and service. For the Rev. Rebecca Boggan, that service took a variety of forms.

"If she saw a need in a local church, she would find a way to address it," said her daughter, Dr. Ashley Boggan, the top executive of the denomination's General Commission on Archives and History.

That included starting children's ministries, leading youth choirs and helping guide the music at weekly worship. And she was supportive of multiple forms of ministry and outreach, including (but not limited to) Beers and Hymns, Care Cuts and Souls for Souls.

Even before becoming a deacon, she started what was then the Little Rock Conference Choir Tour in 1991. She led what became the Arkansas Conference Tour through 2007, bringing together United Methodist teens from across the state for a week of travel and singing across the country. At one point, the tour performed for the Clintons in the White House Rose Garden.

"Rebecca was the consummate church music professional," said Bishop Charles Crutchfield, now retired. "Above all, she loved great music that served to inspire worship. She always brought a gracious spirit, a glowing smile, and a depth of faith to our work together. She was simply a wonderful colleague."

The Rev. Wm. Christopher Cooper, now retired, worked with Rebecca Boggan when he was senior pastor at both Cornerstone and First Little Rock. "She was very talented and always a hard worker and a perfectionist when it came to music ministry," he said.

She also took church youth under her wing.

Among those who benefited from her mentorship was the Rev. Jeanne Williams, now pastor of Oak Forest United Methodist Church and head of the Wesley Foundation campus ministry at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Like her friend and mentor, Williams is also part of a clergy couple.

"She taught me early in ministry how to handle the lows and highs, and how to balance — perhaps 'integrate' is a better term — work and home life," Williams said. "Her gift of creative worship is something I will always strive to emulate."

In addition to her daughter Ashley, Rebecca Boggan is also survived by her daughter Emily and her husband, Dr. André Wineland, of Little Rock as well as four grandchildren.

William Kurt Boggan Nov. 27, 1954 - July 20, 2022

Fellow United Methodists remember the Rev. Dr. William Kurt Boggan as a gifted church leader who was committed to serving God and God's people. Even in retirement, he continued in pastoral work with some of the most vulnerable communities in Arkansas.

Boggan, who went by Kurt, passed away from COVID-19 on July 20, 2022 in Little Rock, Arkansas. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Rebecca, a United Methodist deacon. He was 67.

An Arkansas native, Boggan was born on November 27, 1954. He graduated from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock with a B.A. in psychology. He went on to earn both Master of Theology and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology in Dallas.

He was licensed as a pastor in 1976, commissioned as a probationary member in 1978, and ordained a full United Methodist elder in 1983. In what is now the Arkansas Conference, he was appointed pastor to United Methodist churches in Holly Springs, Magnolia, and Mount Ida. He was pastor of Highland Valley United Methodist Church in Little Rock from 1988 to 2007, where he served in co-ministry alongside his loving wife, Rebecca.

Bishop Charles Crutchfield, now retired, appointed Boggan as district superintendent of the Arkansas Conference's Northeast District, where he oversaw pastors and congregations in the northeastern part of the state and served on the bishop's cabinet.

"As a cabinet member he was always focused on how we could better serve the entire conference and the Kingdom of God," Crutchfield remembered. "He had a pastoral heart, the size of which was enlarged by his excellent capability in administrative skill."

The Rev. Rodney Steele, who served as a district superintendent alongside Boggan, said his colleague brought honesty and humor to the task of making Christian disciples. "He had a great sense of humor that never demeaned or belittled anyone else and was willing to tell stories of his own humorous mistakes," Steele recalled. "I was always glad to see him and spend time with him."

In 2012, Boggan took on the challenge of helping United Methodist congregations across the state as the director and lead equipper for the Arkansas Conference's newly created Center for Vitality. In that role, he worked to train clergy and laity to create vital congregations that make more disciples of Jesus Christ. He then brought those skills to First United Methodist Church in Bentonville.

Even after he officially retired in 2020 after 42 years of service, he still stepped up when needed. Since 2020, he had served as pastor of Quapaw Quarter and Canvas Community United Methodist churches — two Little Rock congregations dedicated to ministry with the homeless and the marginalized.

Current Arkansas Conference Bishop Gary Mueller had known Boggan since their seminary days. "He was an outstanding pastor, creative in reaching new people for Christ and growing churches and deeply committed to those living on the edges — all the while making it about the mission and not himself," Mueller declared. "His footprint is huge."

A formal service was held on Friday, July 29 at Highland Valley United Methodist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Rev. Dr. Kurt and Rev. Rebecca Boggan Endowment fund at the General Commission on Archives and History of The United Methodist Church. These funds will go to support future research into the history of United Methodism and programming for the local church.

In addition to his wife, Boggan is survived by his daughters Emily and her husband, Dr. André Wineland of Little Rock, and Dr. Ashley Boggan D. of Madison, New Jersey, where she serves as general secretary of The United Methodist Church's General Commission on Archives and History. He is also survived by his mother, Nedgie Lee Boggan, his brother, Scott Boggan, and his sister, Melaine Apel. Kurt's beloved grandchildren are West, Graham, Harvey, and Hannah.

William V. Buchanan, Jr. 1954 - May 29, 2023

The Rev. Dr. William Vincent Buchanan, Jr., affectionately known by all as Brother Bill and by his family as Billiam, Papa, Babu and Daddy, passed away peacefully in his Conway home on May 29, 2023 at 68 years of age.

Bill was born in Jackson, MS in 1954 where he learned to hunt and fish and throw a baseball. He attended Ole Miss (and remained a lifelong Rebels fan) where he became a certified public accountant until his calling to enter the ministry. He earned his Master of Divinity from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and began serving in parish ministry in Arkansas in 1990. Barton A. Bynum June 7, 1945 - Jan. 21, 2023

Barton Alan Bynum was born in Dermott, Arkansas, on June 7, 1945, the son of Woodrow Wilson and Janie Richardson Bynum. He died on January 21, 2023, at the Southern Hills Cottages in Rison, Arkansas.

He attended Arkansas A & M College, where he graduated with a BSE degree in 1969, just weeks before marrying Judy Lane of Monticello to begin their 53 years of marriage.

For the first decade of their marriage, Bart and Judy lived in Dermott in the house where he had grown up. Their children, Jody and Woody, were born in 1971 and 1975, respectively. In 1979, they purchased the John Larkin Place and moved to Collins. After teaching school for a couple of years, Bart was an insurance agent, the owner, and manager of the Western Auto store for twenty-five years, and a loan officer at First Service Bank for the subsequent decade, finally becoming the preacher he felt he always had been called to be. His thirteen years in the pulpit of Wesley United Methodist Church were some of the most fulfilling years of his life.

After contracting West Nile Virus, his health began a slow decline that eventually forced his retirement. By that time, however, he was the world's best grandfather to Emma and Garraway Nance, as well as the proudest father of his singing son and physician daughter. He delighted in his family and loved driving his old truck, Chocolate, around the farm with the kids or grandkids in the back with the dog, or sitting in the swing on the banks of the pond, just holding hands with Judy. He voiced his love and respect for others continually, so there was never any doubt how he felt about them. He was famous for his hugs.

Bart was preceded in death by his parents, Woody and Janie Bynum of Dermott; his parents-in-law, Herbert and Corine Lane of Monticello; his sister, Ann Bynum Dunbar; and his son-in-law, Jon Garraway Nance; Survivors include his wife, Judith Lane Bynum of Collins, Arkansas; his daughter, Dr. Jody Grimm (Robert) of Sallisaw, Oklahoma; his son, Woodrow Bynum of Albany, New York; his grandchildren Emma Lane Nance of Bronx, New York, and Garraway Nance, Matthew Grimm, and Allie Grimm of Sallisaw, Oklahoma. He will never be forgotten through tales told around the campfire or at family gatherings around the dinner table.

Memorials may be made to the Curry Cottage of Southern Hills Cottages in Rison, 701 Main Street, Rison, AR 71665, the Collins-Cominto Fire Department, 3739 AR Hwy 35, Monticello, AR 71655, the First United Methodist Church in Monticello, 317 S. Main St. Monticello, AR 71655, The Charles Graham Ministries, P O Box 24, Dermott AR 71638, or to a charity of your choice. Simply "paying it forward" to help another will honor his memory. Special thanks go to the residents and staff of Curry Cottage at the Southern Hills Cottages of Rison, who nurtured and loved him during his final months.

Funeral Services were held on Saturday, March 18, 2023, at First United Methodist Church in Monticello, AR. A reception followed the funeral service in the First United Methodist Family Life Center. The burial took place in Oakland Cemetery after the reception.

Ernest Eugene Efird Dec. 17, 1932 - Feb. 8, 2023

Rev. Ernest Eugene (Gene) Efird, of Little Rock Arkansas, left his earthly life and returned to his creator on Wednesday, February 8, 2023 at the age of 90. Gene was born on December 17, 1932 to Ernest Miles and Jewell Hall Efird in Little Rock where he was raised along with his sister Jo Anne. He attended Little Rock Public Schools and graduated from Little Rock Senior High School in 1951 after participating in choir, cheerleading and wrestling.

Gene and his family were active members of Forest Park Methodist Church, now St. Paul United Methodist Church. Gene loved to spend time hiking in the area near his family's Cantrell Road home and in the woods and around the creek now known as the Kingwood neighborhood.

At a young age, he answered the call to ministry. He began his studies at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, while serving nearby churches. After graduating from Hendrix in 1955, where he had been a resident of the boarding house known as The Robin's Nest, he spent a year in Oakland, California building cars for Chevrolet. In the Fall of 1956, Gene began his Divinity studies at Vanderbilt Divinity School in Nashville, Tennessee. That Fall, while walking to the Wesley Foundation Methodist Fellowship, he met a young nursing student, Gwen Lapham, from Islip, New York. They quickly fell in love and married in Islip in June of 1957. They honeymooned that Summer while working at Camp Winslow.

Gene and Gwen then moved into the parsonage of Owen's Chapel Methodist Church, outside of Nashville, where Gene served as the pastor. During this time they also both finished their studies at Vanderbilt and remained active in the Wesley Foundation. One of Gene's classmates, Rev. James Lawson, had been recruited by Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. to lead the students in the Nashville Student Movement and the Nashville Christian Leadership Council. These groups began the Sit-ins in the Spring of '60. After the school expelled Lawson for "encouraging others to break the law", Gene and other classmates took the non-violence training and joined the sit-ins, including a protest at the school's administration building which was covered by national media.

After Gene and Gwen left Nashville in May of 1960 Gene served the Methodist Church in Des Arc. Following a time at Pullman Heights Methodist Church, in Hot Springs, the family moved to Grady where Gene was both the pastor at the Methodist Church, and a Chaplain at Cummins Prison. Gene began to be concerned about the incarcerated men and worked to expand Spiritual services there. He saw a need for rehabilitative opportunities for these individuals and began connecting with people who could help make this a reality.

He started the Arkansas Release Guidance Foundation, to address the needs of recently released prisoners, while serving the Tillar Charge. In January of 1968, the family moved to Little Rock where Gene was able to open a halfway house for young men which he called The New Life House. He continued this work until January of 1975 when he began serving Henderson United Methodist Church, in Little Rock. Following that appointment, Gene served the UMC church in Sardis, and subsequently the England-Keo charge, before beginning his last appointment at Capitol View UMC in Little Rock. Additionally, Gene, for many years, served as a part time Chaplain at VA Medical Center. He was able to continue his work as a chaplain in retirement and until the age of 85!

Gene was preceded in death by his wife Gwen (d. June 24, 2022), and his parents. He is survived by a daughter Wendy Lynne Efird, of Little Rock; a daughter Debra Sue Efird (Peter Cvietusa), of Denver, Colorado; a son David Gene Efird (Helen Baldrige), of Little Rock; his sister Jo Anne Efird, of Little Rock; and grandchildren Josie Lenora Efird, Lucas Adams Efird, Audrey Grace Cvietusa, and Miles Owen Cvietusa. He also leaves behind a sister-in-law, many nieces and nephews, and a lifetime of good friends!

A service celebrating his life will be held at a later date.

She was the youngest of her siblings and was affectionately known as "Susy" growing up. This is because her father called her his brown-eyed Susan. As a teenager she was especially fond of babysitting her nieces and nephews. She also enjoyed trips to the near-by beach in Islip. She regularly attended Islip Methodist Church and was active in youth fellowship there.

After graduating from High School in Islip she attended Capital City School of Nursing in Washington DC. Following that she matriculated to Vanderbilt University to obtain her Bachelor of Science in Nursing. While at Vanderbilt she was active in the Wesley Foundation Methodist Fellowship. Following their graduation from Vanderbilt, Gwen and Gene lived in several small towns in Tennessee and Arkansas where Gene served as a pastor and Gwen worked as a hospital nurse. During this time, they had three children, Wendy Lynne (b. 1960), Debra Sue (b. 1962) and David Gene (b.1964).

They settled in Little Rock in 1968 and bought a home by Jimerson Creek which remained their family home off and on for the rest of their lives. Many fond memories were made there. She loved her neighbors and had a great community of support there over the years.

Gwen began working for the Little Rock School District as a school nurse in 1970 eventually becoming the first Health Services Coordinator of a public school system in the state of Arkansas.

She worked with the Governor's wife, Betty Bumpers, to guarantee that all school children received their vaccinations. She also worked on a statewide level to increase the number of school nurses in all public schools. After receiving her master's degree in Psychiatric nursing, she worked to provide small group experiences for children struggling with mental health issues. She remained as Health Services coordinator for over 30 years and following her retirement continued to do contract work with troubled teens for another 10 years.

In addition to her love of her family and nursing she loved the United Methodist Church. In the 1980s she served as a Board Member of Camp Aldersgate and worked as a nurse at the Camp Aldersgate Med Camps.

One of her greatest prides was her work in recent years as the head of the Mission Life Committee at Pulaski Heights Methodist Church. In this capacity, she led many Medical Mission Trips to Guatemala. In addition, she worked with many other committees at PHUMC and was active in her Sunday School class and bible study.

Gwen had a great appreciation for the out of doors and of the wonderful National Parks in our country. Over the years the family took many car camping trips to visit these parks. Gwen and Gene also traveled to many in their retirement.

Gwen loved to garden and work outside in her yard. She lived her life with courage and passed from this life to the next with grace and dignity.

Survivors include: her husband Gene Efird, three children Wendy Lynne Efird, of Little Rock, Debra Sue Efird (Peter Cvietusa) of Denver, Colorado, and David Gene Efird (Helen Baldrige) of Little Rock.

Grandchildren include Josie Lenora Efird, Lucas Efird, Audrey Cvietusa and Miles Cvietusa. She is also survived by her sisters in law Virginia Lapham and Jo Anne Efird and by numerous nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Anna R. Walden Posey July 23, 1933 - Nov. 24, 2022

Mrs. Anna Ruth Walden Posey, age 89, passed away on Thursday, November 24, 2022 at home in Mena, Arkansas.

She was born July 23, 1933 near Lindsey, Oklahoma to Joseph Clifton Walden and Virgie Estell Fussell Walden. Anna attended Bethany Nazarene College for a year, where she met Lloyd Posey. They courted while she also completed a year of nursing school. On June 14, 1953, Anna and Lloyd tied the knot in a double wedding with Lloyd's sister, Dorothy, and his best friend, Charles. Anna worked as first secretary of the Christian Medical Society in Chicago, and then she took time off to raise her young children, Sherry and Philip. She worked in health-related jobs intermittently until she retired, which included being a doctor's secretary and assistant as well as a medical transcriptionist. Anna also fulfilled the role of pastor's wife for many years. After retirement, she sacrificially cared for her mother until she passed at age 104. Anna was a devoted wife and companion to her husband of over 68 years. She was also a woman of high energy! Anna and Lloyd built their dream home together and Anna planted many roses on their property in keeping with her lifelong love for flowers.

Anna encouraged the musical giftings of her daughter and granddaughters. She loved to hear them sing and play the piano. Although Anna never played an instrument herself, she loved singing and participated in the church choir. Anna has affectionately been known as "Mom-o" by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who love her dearly! They will always remember Mom-o for her deep love and fierce loyalty—her determination to do whatever it took to see them safe, healthy, happy, and thriving, no matter the cost! Mom-o was a selfless grandmother, telling the grands many bedtime stories about her own childhood, taking them on walks to the park to play, showing them knick-knacks and other family treasures from her cedar chest, and bringing to life her collection of dolls, as she tenderly spoke of each one with affection and appreciation. Mom-o will also be remembered by her grandchildren for emphasizing exercise, good hygiene, nutrition through healthy eating—and the importance of pinching pennies by reusing napkins, bags, etc., and saving many things—a habit deeply ingrained in her from the Depression era. Mom-o always babied her pets, her flowers, and best of all—her grandchildren. She will be missed by all who loved her!

Anna is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Ellis Lloyd Posey Jr., her four brothers—James Walden, Howard Walden, Lee Walden, and Kenneth Walden—her son, Philip Gordon Posey, and her grandson, Timothy Todd Chapin.

She is survived by her daughter, Sherry Lynne Chapin of Mena, Arkansas, plus nine living grandchildren, and twenty-two great-grandchildren.

Visitation was held on Wednesday, November 30 at 1:00 PM at the Mena First United Methodist Church. Funeral service was held on the same day at 2:00 PM, with interment following at Pinecrest Memorial Park in Mena, Arkansas.

Structure and Standing Rules

Structure & Standing Rules

The Arkansas Conference Standing Rules As Modified and Approved by the 2023 Arkansas Annual Conference June 19, 2023

Chapter One

GENERAL PROVISIONS

101. Mission

The Mission of the Arkansas Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion.

102. Vision

The Vision of the Arkansas Conference is congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate love of God and neighbor, holy living and justice.

103. Trajectory

The Trajectory of the Arkansas Conference is to create vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped and sent to transform lives, communities and the world.

104. Core Measures

1. We will be enriched by our Wesleyan heritage of scriptural holiness so that we are connected by our mission of making disciples instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.
2. We will establish the mission field as the primary focus of our attention and resources instead of directing the majority of our attention and resources to mere maintenance of congregations and clergy.
3. We will equip laity and clergy to transform individuals, communities and the world instead of trying to satisfy personal preferences of current members and ensure congregational preservation.
4. We will address the unique context of each mission field instead of depending on standardized programs and structures.

105. Establishment of Standing Rules

The Arkansas Annual Conference establishes the Standing Rules under the authority of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church ¶ 610, which permits the Annual Conference to structure its own administrative procedures and ministries in order to accomplish its purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

106. Purpose of Standing Rules

The Standing Rules prescribe the administrative procedures the Annual Conference will utilize to carry out its mission, vision, core measures and trajectory.

107. Changes to or Suspension of Standing Rules

A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Annual Conference members present and voting shall be required to change or suspend the Standing Rules.

108. Procedural Authority

Roberts Rules of Order shall be the procedural authority for the Annual Conference when not in conflict with the current Book of Discipline, Arkansas Conference Standing Rules or Arkansas Annual Conference Session Rules.

Policies and Guidelines

Chapter One POLICIES GOVERNING LOCAL CHURCHES

Par. 1000 Policy Statement on Misconduct of a Sexual Nature (Adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004; revised June 14, 2005; updated September 17, 2019, updated June 2022)

Statement of Policy. The Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist church affirms the 2016 Book of Resolutions, #2044, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship, and Resolution #2045, Eradication of Sexual Harassment in the United Methodist Church and Society, which state that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing. In accordance with the 2016 Book of Discipline (§ 161. F) all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual conduct or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, volunteer, person being counseled or any other person to whom the minister relates in his/her capacity as a minister. Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal, or physical, or digitally or electronically engaged that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue. Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the church interferes with its moral mission.

The Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the church. The Conference shall act in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, The United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ.

2. Procedures

a. If you experience misconduct

When you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person. You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease.

If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation.

If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy).

If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing accusations, and each supporting person.

If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

b. If you are told you have been inappropriate

If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship.

If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each have the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting.

If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusation, and each supporting person.

c. If someone tells you about inappropriate behavior

If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.

If you are a clergy/church professional in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventive action.

According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report concerning a child under the age of 18 or from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

Signatures of Administrative Board or Church Council

Information for clarity

Persons covered by this policy. Church employees, persons seeking employment, volunteers, teachers, all clergy assigned or appointed, and members of the congregation.

Sexual misconduct is a chargeable offense for both members and church professionals. It is the abuse of power and authority. Includes but is not limited to sexual harassment, sexual abuse, the use or possession of pornography, and any form of criminal sexual conduct.

Sexual harassment is "any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal, physical, or electronically communicated, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. It is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior which alters the conditions of employment, volunteer work, or worship experiences by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advance, unwanted touching, displays, or comments which insult, degrade, or sexually exploit any person of any age.

A complaint is a written, dated, and signed statement.

This policy covers all persons employed by the Arkansas Annual Conference, including but not limited to the Bishop, members of the Cabinet, conference and district staff, and retired clergy (local pastors, deacons, elders)

Local congregations are strongly encouraged to adopt the policy and to train the members of the congregation so that it will not be necessary to apply it.

Par. 1001 Vacation Policy for Appointed Personnel (Presented by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and adopted by the Annual Conference in June 2010.) It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is "vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out. We recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1. Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1 – June 30).

a. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).

b. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).

c. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).

2. Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.

3. Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor time away from the appointment to attend Annual Conference or other conferences, district, or general church events which the appointee is expected to attend shall be counted as vacation time.

4. Full-time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part-time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education. (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)

5. The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.

6. In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full-time service, including student pastors and part-time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.

7. Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.

8. The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.

9. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

Par. 1002 Outdoor Ministries Committee – Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers (This was passed at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference.) We recommend that the Arkansas Annual Conference rescind the “Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers” adopted in June 2006 and all previous recommendations of camping standards presented to the conference by this committee. We further recommend that all camps and retreat centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference move toward accreditation through the American Camp Association.

Par. 1003 Salary Arrearage Policy (This Salary Arrearage Policy was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 22, 2014, as presented by the Equitable Compensation Commission.) This applies to all churches and all clergy receiving a salary from a local church. This also includes those receiving equitable compensation funds.

1. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, or to remit to the Conference Treasurer full payment for regular direct billed benefit payments such as pension and health care, the church treasurer shall notify within twenty-four hours the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and the Lay Member of the Annual Conference of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall within 3 days notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor’s responsibility to keep copies of all such written notification and to provide additional written confirmation to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefits arrearage may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall within 24 hours convene a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and Lay Member to Annual Conference to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:

- a. Drawing from invested funds,
- b. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation,
- c. Emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor’s compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.

3. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor’s compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The District Superintendent may invite the Commission to send a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue so that the pastor receives full compensation by the end of the conference year.

4. If it is determined that the church is not able to provide the compensation package as voted at Charge Conference, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent (Arkansas Conference 2013 Journal 482) and request a consultation. Options for addressing the arrearage might include:

- a. Develop a payment plan so that the pastor will receive full compensation by the end of the conference Year or
- b. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year.

- c. Requesting an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant for the remainder of the appointive year.
5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:
- a. Determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary.
 - b. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced.
 - c. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org). The District Superintendent shall be notified of its findings and recommendations in writing.
6. If a local church becomes delinquent in the payment of the pastor's direct billed pension, health care and benefits (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the Conference Treasurer shall notify the Conference Benefits Officer, the District Superintendent, and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The Superintendent will work with the CEC and the local church to develop a written payment plan with the local church so that the Conference receives full payment of pension and benefits by the end of the conference year.
7. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing appropriate documentation.
8. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has a claim on the local church for compensation funds (§1342.4).

Chapter Two

GUIDELINES ESTABLISHED BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Par. 1100 Parsonage Standards (Presented by the Conference Trustees, and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004; updated August 30, 2019)

Philosophy for Parsonage Standards: The Conference affirms the policy of church-owned parsonages as the way to serve the churches in our Conference as it greatly facilitates the itinerant system of clergy appointment. Any exceptions to this policy must have the approval of the bishop and cabinet. Therefore, it is important that local church parsonages across the Conference meet certain standards so that differences in quality, size, and equipment are kept to a minimum. The Discipline is clear concerning the Annual Conference's role in setting parsonage standards and how the parsonage is to be understood by the local church and the clergy and his/her family. The 2016 Book of Discipline states that the Church Council shall "Review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding the provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s); and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." ¶252.4e The 2016 Book of Discipline also states that "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." ¶2533.4 The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family.

Guidelines:

1. Bedrooms: There should be at least three bedrooms of standard size with ample closet space in each. It is recommended that one room on the main floor be adaptable to use as a bedroom.
2. Bathrooms: A parsonage should have at least two bathrooms. One could be with shower only, and the one on the main floor should be a combination tub and shower.
3. Kitchen: The minimum kitchen should include: adequate built-in cabinets, sink, stove, automatic refrigerator with frozen storage, garbage disposal (where sewer lines or septic tanks do not make this impossible), dishwasher, good light, and adequate electrical outlets. A breakfast area is desirable. Other appliances shall include a washing machine and clothes dryer (not necessarily in the kitchen area itself). An adequate supply of hot water shall be provided.
4. Living/Dining Areas: Adequate living area for family life and entertaining guests must be provided. Depending upon the needs of the setting this could be a combination of the following rooms/areas: living room, family room, dining room, or a great room.
5. Study: It is preferable for the pastor's office to be in the church buildings. However, the parsonage may be equipped with space for a study. Every parsonage should have adequate bookshelves.
6. Closets: Adequate closet and storage space shall be provided throughout the house.
7. Garage: Two-car garage or carport with storage room for tools and yard equipment shall be provided.
8. Energy Efficiency: It is recommended that conservation of energy be considered when purchasing appliances, when remodeling, and when purchasing a new parsonage.
9. Heating/Cooling: A central heating/cooling system with the capacity to properly heat/cool the entire habitable part of the house and the proper thermostatic controls should be provided. The pastor shall be responsible for changing furnace filters to ensure the safe and efficient operation of the system. The church shall provide all other maintenance of the heating and cooling system.
10. Window Coverings: Appropriate and tasteful curtains, drapes, shades, or other window coverings shall be provided for all rooms of the parsonage. Safe storage of unused window coverings shall be provided by the pastor.
11. Utilities: All utilities shall be provided in the name of the church.
 - a. Telephone: At least two phone outlets shall be provided.
 - b. Heating/Cooling: Adequate heating/cooling shall be provided. The heating/cooling system shall be maintained by the church and shall be inspected annually with regard to the soundness of heating/cooling exchanger, flue pipes, and chimney condition. If a wood stove and/or fireplace is in use, it too should be checked yearly. An instruction sheet should be posted near the furnace, or in a convenient place, to instruct on the maintenance and care of the furnace. The name of a reputable furnace company to be used should be specified. Suggestion should be made as the maximum/minimum temperatures and to the desirability of closing off unneeded rooms during the heating/cooling season. The pastor is responsible for the furnace filters to be changed at least three times yearly.

12. Insurance: The church is responsible for the payment of insurance for the property. It should include homeowner coverage and shall cover at least eighty percent of the replacement cost of the parsonage and related structures and church-owned furnishings. It is recommended that the pastor obtain coverage to insure the pastor's family furnishings and belongings.

13. Parsonage Furnishings and Equipment: The responsibility of the local church to provide "adequate housing" shall be interpreted by the Arkansas Annual Conference to include furnishings and other equipment. However, it is suggested that one bedroom be left unfurnished in all parsonages. The required items shall include an automatic washer, dryer, refrigerator, cooking stove, dishwasher, garbage disposal (unless septic tanks/inadequate sewer line make this impossible), and lawn mower. As applicable, the local church shall furnish a breakfast table, formal living room furniture, den/family room furniture, bedroom furniture (except as noted above), adequate lamps and lighting, and floor coverings. It is expected that the minister shall provide nonessential items such as a microwave oven, pictures, and accessories. It is permissible, and even encouraged, for the pastor and family to provide personal furnishings, as this is their home. The Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee and/or Trustees to provide for safe storage of unused local church-owned furniture.

14. Parsonage Maintenance: Local Church Responsibility

a. The local church board of trustees or elected parsonage committee shall properly maintain an adequate and comfortable home in good condition for the pastor and his/her family. At the convenience of the parsonage family, the chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect the home to see what needs to be done, if anything, to meet these standards and to take necessary steps to accomplish these improvements. It is recommended that the maintenance of the parsonage should include provision for pest/termite control.

b. The chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect, at least annually, the parsonage and grounds to be familiar with said properties. They shall keep a record of their inspection so that they can take initiative in improving the parsonage and grounds. Each year every local church budget shall include money for maintenance, redecoration, and landscaping of the parsonage.

c. All instruction books and warranties should be kept and the location of the books made known to an incoming pastor. The location of all cutoff valves, meters, water and sewer lines and similar items should be kept on file and should also be made known to an incoming minister. The local church shall inform the pastor of who has keys to the parsonage. These keys are for emergency use only by anyone other than the pastor and his/her family. (See above Philosophy for Parsonage Standards)

15. Parsonage Maintenance: Pastor's Responsibilities: The pastor should care for the parsonage as a good steward of the property, avoiding undue wear and tear. Pets sometimes present special problems. It is the responsibility of the clergy who have pets to inform the appropriate local church officers when moving into the parsonage. Pastors with pets should exercise care so that the parsonage is not abused, including professional pest control for parasites from pets. The pastor is responsible for any damage caused by pets, personal guests, or family members. The pastor's family is responsible for cleaning the parsonage when they move out, including residual tobacco smoke and any odors from pets.

16. Parsonage Grounds: The grounds around the house shall be well drained. The grounds shall be cared for by the parsonage family. If the lawn is unusually large, contains many shrubs, or requires a great deal of time to maintain in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, the church should consider assisting the pastor with additional help or service. Landscaping and exterior care of the parsonage shall be the responsibility of the local church and shall be such as to be a credit to the church in the community.

17. Mutual responsibility Covenant: it is recommended that the Trustees and/or Pastor-Parish Relations Committee create a written covenant with the pastor, spelling out each party's responsibilities. The Covenant should be reviewed and updated annually. The covenant should include provisions for restoration to original form any personalized decorating on the part of the pastoral family. Redecorating should be done regularly with full consultation with the pastor.

18. Energy Conservation: It is recommended that all parsonages have an energy audit as soon as possible to determine what might be done to make them more energy efficient...weather seals, storm windows and doors, insulation, etc. Many areas have utility companies that will do this for free or for a small fee.

19. Barrier Free Concerns: It is recommended that all parsonages built, or remodeled in the future, consider needs of the physically challenged such as tub bath, at least one bedroom, and preferably laundry be on the main floor, and a limited number of, if any, entry steps.

20. Safety: The parsonage shall contain certain safeguards for the parsonage family's safety. At least two fire extinguishers, one in the house (kitchen?) and one in the garage or utility area, shall be kept in working condition and shall be checked at the annual inspections. Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors shall be provided, at least one on each floor including the basement.

21. Implementation of these Parsonage Standards:

a. Time: These parsonage standards, to go into effect immediately, are adopted for the pastor, local church board of Trustees, Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and/or Parsonage Committee.

b. All substandard parsonages shall be considered for renovation to conform as nearly as possible to the above standards as soon as possible, but no later than January 1, 2006. District Superintendents shall keep a record of parsonages that are not meeting these guidelines and report annually to the Cabinet.

c. A local church may appoint a Parsonage Committee to work with the Board of Trustees and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in the implementation of these standards and ongoing oversight and maintenance of the parsonage. The Parsonage Committee membership shall include the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, a minimum of three at-large members elected to three-year terms in classes (with the initial election to be for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years to establish the classes), and the minister or minister's spouse. The at-large members may not succeed themselves and at least two of the elected members of the committee shall be women.

d. When there is a pastoral change, the house shall be inspected by the Chairpersons of the Trustees and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, one other member of the Parsonage Committee, if formed, and the Pastor before the Pastor leaves for his/her new situation, to make a list of needed repairs. These repairs shall be accomplished prior to the arrival of the succeeding pastor. When moving day arrives, a final "walk through" conducted by the pastor with the above persons shall occur for a final assessment. Before a move, the departing pastor shall invite the incoming pastor to see the parsonage. Any redecorating should include consultation with the incoming pastoral family.

e. Housing Allowance/Parsonage: The Annual Conference has confirmed the Parsonage System as the most efficient and effective way of serving the local churches in our Arkansas Conference. In certain special and limited situations, a housing allowance or use of rental property is permissible. A decision to exercise this option shall be made with the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendent, the Trustees, and the Pastor. The resulting decision shall then be recommended to the Charge Conference for approval. The decision must also have the approval of the Bishop and cabinet. In order to maintain an open itinerancy system, churches which do not own a parsonage should make provision for a rental deposit/purchase down payment and initial furnishing purchases for any person moved into the appointment.

f. Publicity of Guidelines: Upon adoption, these parsonage standards shall be distributed to all pastors, Chairpersons of local church Board of Trustees, and chairpersons of Pastor Parish Relations Committee. The then current parsonage standards will be printed in the Conference Journal once each quadriennium. These standards shall be given to all new pastors and families coming into the conference by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

g. Compliance: The District Superintendent shall ask questions concerning the parsonage and its compliance with the parsonage standards annually at the Charge Conference. If a dispute arises in a local church or between a local church and the pastor, the District Superintendent should be contacted to mediate the issue.

h. Church/Pastor Parsonage Covenant recommendation: The Administrative Board of the Church has the responsibility to provide adequate housing for the Pastor (Discipline ¶251.4e). The Parsonage is to be mutually respected by the Pastor as the property of the Church and by the Church as a place of privacy for the Pastor's family. To facilitate this mutual responsibility we recommend that the Church and the Pastor enter into the following covenant. Both Parties should feel free to perfect this Covenant to meet any other desired or special circumstances. It is important that both parties feel satisfied with and responsible for the Covenant.

Par. 1101 Safe Sanctuary Policy Recommendation. (This recommendation was adopted by the Annual Conference, Sunday, June 22, 2014).

Whereas, Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child... welcomes me" (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God. God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong. (Adapted from The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 2008.)

Therefore, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church hereby pledges to conduct the ministry of Jesus Christ in ways that promote the physical and emotional safety and spiritual growth of our children, youth and our workers with children and youth. In all of our ministries with children and youth, this congregation is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ so that each child and youth will be "surrounded by steadfast love... established in the faith and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal." (Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 96).

Therefore, we will follow reasonable safety measures when selecting and recruiting workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all areas of programming and care; we will train our workers with children and youth on our procedures and policies; and we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting reasonably suspected incidents of child maltreatment that conforms to the requirements of Arkansas law.

Therefore, recognizing that the programs, needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ, when local churches are developing Safe Sanctuaries guidelines, it is recommended that they:

1. Develop and implement an ongoing education plan for the congregation and its leaders on the reality of child abuse, risk factors leading to child abuse, and strategies for prevention;
2. Adopt screening procedures (use of application forms, interviews, reference checks, background clearance, and so forth) for workers (paid and unpaid) directly or indirectly involved in the care of children and youth;
3. Develop and implement safety procedures for church activities such as having two or more non-related adults present in classroom or activity; leaving doors open and installing half-doors or windows in doors or halls; providing hall monitors; instituting sign-in and sign-out procedures for children ages ten or younger; and so forth;
4. Advise children and young persons of an agency or a person outside as well as within the local church whom they can contact for advice and help if they have suffered abuse;
5. Carry liability insurance that includes sexual abuse coverage;
6. Assist the development of awareness and self-protection skills for children and youth through special curriculum and activities; and
7. Be familiar with annual conference and other church policies regarding clergy sexual misconduct.

Par.1102 Copyright Guidelines for Churches

Disclaimer: The information provided in these guidelines is for information purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. In the development of the guidelines, certain assumptions have been made about underlying practices and uses of intellectual property. Any change in those assumptions could affect the application of a particular guideline or recommended best practice. Therefore, while the information provided may assist a local church, it is not a substitute either for legal advice by an attorney with knowledge of copyright law or the written approval of specific copyright holders. If there is any doubt as to whether a specific use or practice violates copyright laws, the local church should seek the written advice of a lawyer or specific written approval of the particular use by the copyright holder or licensing agent. Further, the local church should maintain a copyright file that contains all written advice obtained from an attorney(s), all licenses/permissions for use of works, and records of any payments made to licensors or owners of copyrighted works.

Overview of United States Copyright Law:

Copyright protection extends to “original works of authorship fixed in any tangible medium of expression, now known or later developed, from which they can be perceived, reproduced, or otherwise communicated, either directly or with the aid of a machine or device.” 17 U.S.C. § 102(a). A copyright does not require registration. A copyright in a work arises from the moment an original work of authorship is fixed in the tangible medium (e.g., when pencil touches paper). Section 102 further provides that “[w]orks of authorship include the following categories:

- (1) literary works;
- (2) musical works, including any accompanying words;
- (3) dramatic works, including any accompanying music;
- (4) pantomimes and choreographic works;

- (5) pictorial, graphic and sculptural works;
- (6) motion pictures and other audiovisual works;
- (7) sound recordings; and
- (8) architectural works.”

Copyright protection may extend to compilations and derivative works that are lawfully created. 17 U.S.C. § 106. The owner of a copyright “has the exclusive rights to do and to authorize any of the following:

- (1) to reproduce the copyrighted work in copies or phonorecords;
- (2) to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted work;
- (3) to distribute copies or phonorecords of the copyrighted work to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending;
- (4) in the case of literary, musical, dramatic, and choreographic works, pantomimes, and motion pictures and other audiovisual works, to perform the copyrighted work publicly;
- (5) in the case of literary, musical, dramatic, and choreographic works, pantomimes, and pictorial, graphic, or sculptural works, including the individual images of a motion picture or other audiovisual work, to display the copyrighted work publicly; and
- (6) in the case of sound recordings, to perform the copyrighted work publicly by means of a digital audio transmission.”

Infringement occurs when you violate one or more of the exclusive rights of a copyright owner. Infringement is a serious matter that may result in a claim of copyright infringement against the person who violates the exclusive rights, as well as against the local church. Remedies for infringement include actual damages, profits of the infringer, or, alternatively, statutory damages. 17 U.S.C. § 504. With certain caveats or exceptions, a copyright owner may elect statutory damages instead of actual damages or profits of the infringer (which is especially applicable in cases where there is no actual damage or profit from the infringement) in a range of not less than $750 to no more than $30,000 per work “as the court considers just.” 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1). Statutory damages may be increased to no more than $150,000 per work if the infringer’s conduct was willful. 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2).

When in doubt about whether a work is copyrighted or whether a particular use would constitute infringement, the church should always seek appropriate advice.

Licenses:

One means to comply with federal law and avoid a claim for copyright infringement is to obtain a license from the owner, or from a representative of the owner, of the work you want to use. This is the best practice and is strongly recommended. Although there are a variety of representatives of copyright owners, well-known licensing companies include, but are not limited to, CCLI (Christian Copyright Licensing, Inc.), CVLI (Christian Video Licensing International), ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, WorshipCast, OneLicense, Christian Copyright Solutions, and Licensing. There are basic licenses that fit most churches’ use of copyrighted materials, and there are a number of supplemental licenses for particular uses such as rehearsal licensing, live streaming, podcasts, videos, and use of video clips. For musical works, it is important to remember that you will need a license to both the musical composition (the notes on the page) and the lyrics. You also should confirm that the songs or videos are within the catalog of works covered by each license. If they are not, then the church should obtain written permission from the copyright holder. Churches should consult with licensing companies concerning the scope of use covered by various licenses and concerning particular practices and uses of copyrighted materials to avoid inadvertent copyright infringement.

Pricing for licenses varies by work. For example, the cost of a license from OneLicense is based upon average weekly attendance of the church. One-time use, weekly use, and annual licenses are available. Reporting usage of a song to the licensing company is required in accordance with the requirements of the license. It is important to keep good records of the use of the works in order to be accurate in your licensing payments and minimize any claims by the copyright holder or its representatives that you have not paid sufficient amounts.

Written Permission:

Written permission from a copyright holder gives a local church protection. This is particularly helpful when the intended use of copyrighted material is not clearly within the scope of a license. As indicated above, any written permission obtained from a copyright holder should be maintained in a copyright folder by the church.

Public Domain:

Intellectual property that is in the public domain is not subject to copyright infringement.

Public domain status is usually indicated on the face of sheet music or on a CD jacket. A church should not assume that intellectual property is in the public domain simply because copyright information is not on the face of the work. In addition, the fact that one version of a work is in the public domain does not mean that a new copyrighted arrangement of the work can be used without a license or written permission from the copyright holder.

Fair Use:

Although rarely available in a church setting, the fair use exception found in 17 U.S.C. § 107 may be available when a church, including a Sunday school class, uses a copyrighted work or a part thereof for teaching or comment, including in a documentary. The teaching exception in 17 U.S.C. § 110(2) may also be helpful to Sunday school classes. In the educational context, the U.S. Copyright Office has published an advisory circular containing guidelines for fair uses of copyrighted works in educational settings. It is available at <http://www.copyright.gov/circs/circ21.pdf>. A group cannot use the fair use doctrine to edit or redact copyrighted materials to remove portions to which it objects even if it sells the edited version with the original version. Fair use is a factual determination that includes, but is not limited to, the following factors:

- (1) the purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of a commercial nature or is for nonprofit educational purposes;
- (2) the nature of the copyrighted work;
- (3) the amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to the copyrighted work as a whole; and
- (4) the effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.

It is important to recognize that a work is not freely available for copying simply because it is out of print. The same factors for fair use apply to determine whether such work may be copied and the amount of the portion copied.

Religious Worship Service Exemption:

17 U.S.C. § 110(3) provides a limited exemption for the “performance of a nondramatic literary or musical work or of a dramatico-musical work of a religious nature, or display of a work, in the course of services at a place of worship or other religious assembly.” This exception does not extend to broadcasting (by radio or television), webcasting, live-streaming, podcasting, or recording of the parts of worship services that include copyrighted works, all of which require a license or the written permission of the copyright holder. For this reason, some churches limit their broadcasts of worship services to those parts of the service that do not contain copyrighted works.

Hymnals:

Hymnals are also copyrighted, and there are limitations on how the copyrighted information may be used, even if your church has purchased the hymnals. Hymns that are listed in the hymnal as being in the public domain may be reproduced without permission. Lyrics from copyrighted hymns may be reproduced in the worship bulletin as long as the church has published hymnals for the congregation and as long as the reprinting is done in accordance with the requirements of the copyright in the hymnal. One typical requirement is to properly note the copyright information in the bulletin. Consult the hymnal and any related license for proper use of the copyrighted songs in a hymnal.

Worship:

A. Music performed by choir

A choir may only use legal copies of copyrighted music. The music may not be copied to make additional copies for practice or teaching by staff or members of the choir. One exception is that musicians are allowed to make copies of pages of music to avoid page turning.

If a publisher lists a copyrighted work as “out of print,” the publisher should be contacted for permission to make copies and to possibly negotiate a reduced fee.

If a choir director or musician desires to create a different arrangement of copyrighted music, written permission should be obtained from the copyright holder.

B. Music performed by organist

The requirements in Part A of this section apply. One possible exception is that an organist or other musician may make copies of a legally purchased work to avoid having to turn pages during a performance.

C. Music performed by guest performers or musicians

The requirements in Parts A and B of this section apply.

D. Lyrics projected on screen during worship

Section 110(3) of the Copyright Act permits the display of a literary or musical work in the course of services at a place of worship or other religious assembly. This display does not include the right to record (via cell phone, video, or otherwise) the projection of the literary or musical work.

Best Practice: Obtain a license that permits such use or obtain written permission from the copyright holder.

E. Lyrics printed in bulletin

See the discussion above regarding the use of songs that appear in hymnals purchased by the church. Lyrics that appear in hymnals or other works legally purchased may be used in accordance with the requirements and conditions set out in the works. Typically, a specified copyright reference is required. If other lyrics are used in a bulletin, they may only be printed with written permission of the copyright holder or a license.

F. Live-streaming of worship music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. The same is true for podcasting. Otherwise, these uses constitute copyright infringement. Christian Copyright Solutions offers a WORSHIPcase license that applies to every song that is licensed by ASCAP, BMI or SESAC. CCLI also offers a streaming/podcasting license.

G. Recording of music in worship for later video broadcast

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement.

H. Recording of performances in worship on CDs or DVDs

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. There may be additional restrictions if the CDs or DVDs are sold to raise funds unless the proceeds are used solely for the church's ministry. The church should contact its license provider for guidance.

I. Recording children's choir performances and uploading the recordings to Facebook, YouTube, or similar social media

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. If the person making this recording is not an employee or staff member of the church, then any infringement is arguably the individual liability of the person making the recording and not the church, although there may be an argument that the person was acting on behalf of the church. To avoid any liability, the church should not make use of unauthorized recordings and should communicate to the church membership that the church is not authorizing the recordings.

J. Use of copyrighted art, graphics, or written works in bulletin

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement.

K. Use of video clips

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, the use constitutes copyright infringement. CCLI has a specific license known as ScreenVue for this use.

L. Pastor's use of copyrighted material in sermon

Reading a copyrighted poem, an excerpt from a copyrighted book, or a copyrighted quotation as a part of a sermon in a worship space for a worshipping congregation may be permitted under the religious service exemption. However, it appears to be clear that printing or recording a sermon that contains such copyrighted materials is a violation of the copyright laws unless the use meets the fair use exception discussed above.

Best Practice: Obtain a license that permits such use or obtain written permission from the copyright holder.

Sunday School:

A. Use of music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. Simply playing legally purchased CDs or other recordings in a Sunday school class is likely authorized by the copyright permissions provided in the CD case, but the church should comply with any limitations or conditions set forth in the case.

B. Use of videos

The requirements of Part A of this section apply. However, if a video is labeled "For In-Home Viewing" or some similar warning, public showing of the video, even in Sunday school classes, is not permitted. Carefully read the copyright information on the video case or at the beginning of the video to ascertain the permitted uses.

C. Use of articles or pictures as teaching aids

There should be no copyright infringement if the articles or pictures used are legally purchased and are not reproduced.

Youth Activities:

A. Use of music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. Simply playing legally purchased CDs or other recordings in a Youth Activity is likely authorized by the copyright permissions provided in the CD case, but the church should comply with any limitations or conditions set forth in the case.

B. Use of videos

The requirements of Part A of this section apply. However, if a video is labeled "For In-Home Viewing" or some similar warning, public showing of the video, even at a youth activity, is not permitted. Carefully read the copyright information on the video case or at the beginning of the video to ascertain the permitted uses.

C. Syncing songs to youth videos

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Permission to synchronize copyrighted music is difficult to secure. Copyrighted music may have already been licensed for this use or may be available for license on the internet, and that option should be explored. Open Sound Resource and Magna Tune may be helpful resources for this purpose. Syncing of songs to videos is common on YouTube and Vimeo (see, e.g., <http://ultimateclassicrock.com/peanuts-classic-rock/>), but youth groups should exercise caution and seek permission before using a copyrighted work.

D. Use of copyrighted works in social media

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required.

Choir:

A. Photocopying of copyrighted work

This is prohibited without written permission by the copyright holder. As noted above in Worship, Part A, however, there is a procedure for obtaining permission for reproducing copies of copyrighted works that are “out of print.”

B. Performing music outside of worship services, including recitals and concerts

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. However, limited permission may already be granted in the copyright information on the face of legally purchased copies of the music. In such cases, the terms of the pre-approval should be followed, which will likely include printing or displaying the appropriate copyright information concerning the work.

C. Recording choir performances

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, the recording constitutes copyright infringement.

D. Making CDs or DVDs of performances

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement.

E. Making rehearsal tape

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. However, some choral works come with optional rehearsal recordings that can be used as provided in the copyright provisions. However, additional copies cannot be made.

Other Issues:

A. Movie Nights

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required, regardless of whether there is a charge for viewing the movie. In addition to the licensing companies noted above in the section on Licenses, a license to show a motion picture can be obtained from the Motion Picture Licensing Corporation (www.mplc.com).

B. Dinner Theaters

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required, regardless of whether there is a charge for the dinner theater.

C. Church websites

Any use of copyrighted material on a church website requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

D. Conferences/Seminars/Retreats

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. The copyright provisions of legally purchased works may provide a limited performance right.

E. Funerals

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. The copyright provisions of legally purchased works may provide a limited performance right.

F. Weddings

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. The copyright provisions of legally purchased works may provide a limited performance right.

G. Newsletters

Any use of copyrighted material in a newsletter requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

H. Church signs containing copyrighted statements, quotations, or photos

Any use of copyrighted material on church signage requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

I. Artwork

A copyrighted image should not be used without permission from the copyright holder or a license.

J. Telephone recordings

Pre-programmed telephone recordings that include copyrighted work but which are part of the telephone voice-mail system are assumed to be authorized for use by the purchaser. However, it is prudent to read the information provided by the seller of the voice-mail system to confirm that authorization and to ensure that the agreement with the seller includes an indemnification clause to cover any infringement that may occur via the telephone system. Copying a song to create a ringtone does constitute copyright infringement. However, playing a ringtone in public - i.e., its normal function - has been found to be exempt from copyright infringement and no public performance license is required.

K. Zumba, Exercise Classes, Etc.

A performance license is required, usually from ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, or from an agent for those companies (such as CCS's PERFORMmusic). However, a license may not be required for Zumba original music if the church or an authorized staff person is a part of the Zumba Instructor Network.

We are grateful for the insights and drafting assistance from the Arkansas Annual Conference.

We Appreciate Your Generosity - All Year Long

You help Methodist Family Health Foundation raise much needed funds to care for thousands of troubled Arkansas children and families each year.

We house, feed and clothe hundreds of children and teens every day. We provide bibles for everyone in our programs. We help mothers overcoming mental and drug-related problems provide birthday gifts for their children, and much more.

Would you please make a kind donation to help us provide the best possible care to those who may need our help? Your gift today makes a difference in the life of an Arkansas child who is abandoned, abused, neglected and struggling with psychiatric, behavioral, emotional and spiritual issues.

Easy Ways to Give

- ONLINE at MethodistFamily.org/Donate
- CALL Christy at 501-906-4201 to make a secure contribution using your debit or credit card
- MAIL a cash or check donation to Methodist Family Health Foundation, 1600 Aldersgate Road, Suite 100, Little Rock, Arkansas 72205
- PLACE a check or offering envelope addressed to Methodist Family Health Foundation in the offering plate at your church

For over half a century, the generosity of faithful Methodists has allowed for ministries, grants, and services to grow across Arkansas.

Thank you for trusting in us.
