

It Ain't Over (Rise Up) [A, 74 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by Matt Nelson and Ken Weatherford

Intro×2, V1, Rf, V2, Rf×2, Inst, V3, Rf×4

INTRO:

| E | Bm7 | F#m7 | - |

VERSE 1:

F#m7

I wake to the siren's laughing echoing in my head

E

Calling me out of my sleep where fear and shadows tread

Bm7 D

F#m7

But it ain't over, it ain't over

F#m7

Held to the earth, beaten down, I'm trying to break free

E

The cries of my wife and kids, the only light I see

Bm7 D

F#m7

Cause it ain't over, it ain't over

REFRAIN 1:

E

Bm7

F#m7

Rise up a - gain, 'cause it ain't over

VERSE 2:

F#m7

Like the wail of a freight train barreling through my mind,

E

Broken glass, screaming past, leaving hope behind...

Bm7 D

F#m7

Cause it ain't over, no it ain't over

F#m7

Storms of thought trap me down like trees torn by wind

E

I can't shake this hatred off from the sins of other men

Bm7 D

F#m7

And it ain't over, no it ain't over

REFRAIN 2:

E

Bm7

F#m7

Rise up a - gain, 'cause it ain't over

E

Bm7

F#m7

Rise up my friend, 'cause it ain't over

INSTRUMENTAL (follow Verse changes):

VERSE 3:

F#m7

I feel the Siren fading, though that voice still tries to bind

E

But in the darkest hour, it's hope that clears my mind.

Bm7 D

F#m7

Cause it ain't over, no, it ain't over

F#m7

The storm may rage around me, but I'm still standing tall,

E

The roots I've grown, the love I've known, will never let me fall

Bm7 D

F#m7

And it ain't over, no, it ain't over